But at that the girl who wears furs in July is not much crazier than the man who drinks whiskey to keep cool in summer and warm in winter.

He: Are your parents always up when you get in?
Gladys: Only my Dad—Mother doesn't get up so early.

A flapper doesn't roll her stockings when she hangs it up for Santa Claus.

Now is the time to swear off smoking so your friends won't give you any cigars for Christmas.

No doubt there are girls who would like some nice young man to say it this way: "Marry Christmas!"

"Harry, whom do you love better, Papa or me?"
"I can tell you better after Christmas, Mama," said Harry.

The fellow who said "make two blades of grass grow where one grew before" had nothing on the bootlegger. He makes two quarts of Scotch out of one quart of prune juice.

HOW TO GET WHAT YOU WANT FOR XMAS
Brother asked for a nice new roadster.
Sister asked for a Paisleyshawl.
Mother asked for a dinner service.
Dad asked for nothing at all.

Brother and Sister were disappointed.
And Mother is also blue.
For none of them has got what was wanted.
But Daddy's wish came true.

The teacher asked little Ruth what her father's name was.
"Daddy," she answered.
"Yes, dear," said the teacher; "but what does your mother call him?"
"She don't call him nuthin'!" Ruth answered earnestly. "She likes him."

Here—"You say that the pretty girl defendant kissed one of the jurors after she was acquitted? What did the juror do?"
Winton—"Oh, he made a motion for a new trial."

UNION PERSONALS
UNION (Special)—Mrs. R. C. Emmel was taken to the Grande Hotel hospital in La Grande Friday where she underwent an operation.

Miles Darden, born in North Carolina in 1798, was one of the world's largest men, according to available records. He weighed seven feet six inches tall and weighed more than a thousand pounds.

AT THE THEATERS

Charming Ingenue At Sherrys in "The Grey Devil"

Lorraine Eaton, who appears opposite Jack Percin in "The Grey Devil," a Rayart picture scheduled for presentation at the Sherry theater tonight had two years of stage experience in musical comedy prior to her appearance upon the screen. She was seen to advantage in "Sunny" and "Irene," two highly successful productions in which her beauty and grace elicited high praise. Recently, Miss Eaton made a trip to Los Angeles and was induced to have a screen test. So successful was this that despite several offers of stage engagements she decided to devote all of her time to the screen.

She has done considerable work for Fox, Sennett and P. B. O., but never before has she been seen to better advantage than in her current role, in which her beauty and natural dramatic talent are given full scope.

"Comedy showing, "Wood Simple," Also, "Seeing N. W. California," a scenic.

Belle Bennett Is Featured in "The Lily"

Belle Bennett, according to preview critics, does the greatest work of her screen career in "The Lily," Fox Films version of David Belasco's memorable stage success which begins a two-day run at the Arcade theater Wednesday. Victor Schertzinger directed the production from a screen-play by Eve Unsell. There is a widespread feeling that Miss Bennett eclipses even the soul-stirring portrayal of the mother in "Stella Dallas." This characterization brought her world fame.

"The Lily," boasting one of the most pretentious casts ever assembled at the Fox West Coast Studio, is a gripping story of sister-love, with many of the scenes laid in a romantic old chateau in France. John St. Polis, one of the most polished actors in America, in cast as Count de Malony, while Ian Keith, a protégé of Belasco himself, plays the highly important role of the handsome young artist in love with Christiane, the count's youngest daughter.

The play is packed with romance and the vital action centers about the two sisters when the father discovers that the artist is married and has been unable to gain his freedom. This brings about some of the most gripping situations ever recorded by the camera.

Charley Chase, Martha Sleeper and an excellent cast will be seen in the other feature of the program "Crazy Like a Fox." Hal Roach's latest in screen mirth. From all accounts, it is great fun and rollicking entertainment.

Movie Sidelights

By Associated Press
Scan the enemy of dirt in real life, in this fast counterfeited in the movies. Washing powder (see as dust before the camera. It was explained at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio that when a dusty cloth is shaken before the camera, the dust is never seen, but rubbing polished furniture with soap gives a real effect of dirt. Scattering washing powder on a white cloth from which dust is to be shaken gives a white cloud which films and settles.

Director Fred Niblo has no qualifications for the motion picture profession. He says he wants his daughter, Leslie, who is 5 years old, to become a film actress because he believes that acting is an unselfish profession and that her work will keep her clear of temptation.

Norma Tallmadge's blond perfection, named Dinky, is willing to compare traveling experiences with any other canine. He has seen much of the world with Miss Tallmadge, having made a complete tour of America and visited Italy, France, Germany, Austria, Russia and Algeria during his nine years.

A set a mile long and a half-mile wide is being erected for a new picture, "Sunrise," at the Fox studios. It represents a section of a city, with elevated trains, street cars and other objects of city life.

Two of the latest movie recruits come from musical comedy. Charlie Chaplin and his wife visited a Los Angeles theater where they saw Mrs. Chaplin's friend, 17-year-old Norma Kennedy, in a musical comedy, "All For You," and Charlie signed her to a contract as his leading lady in "The Circus."

Glenn Swanson saw John Bowles in a musical comedy, "Kitty's Kisses," in New York, and he was signed as leading man in "Sunny." Miss Swanson's first independent venture.
