California Must Have Annexed It!

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Dec. 10—"Since when," indignantly declared Louis Mueller, deputy sheriff, "is Crater lake located in California.

"It's sure news to me. I knew that the Golden state had corralled all the climate, sunshine and atmosphere on the globe, but had the impression that Oregon had retained Crater lake."

Mueller was waving the rotogravure section of the Louisville Carrier-Journal of Louisville, Kentucky, at his auditors.

"See here," he declared.

And there was an impressive picture of Crater lake with the caption above it, "Crater Lake California."

U. of O. Faculty Members to Talk

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 10 (AP)—Six University of Oregon faculty members will appear on the program at this year's meeting of the Oregon State Teachers association, which meets in Portland Dec. 28-30.

Dr. Henry D. Sheldon will speak before the principals' section and the library section of the meeting. Hari R. Douglass, professor in education, will speak to principals in "state uniform grading system."

F. L. Stetson, another professor in education, will speak on "The supervision of high school teaching." Harold S. Tuttle will report on the reorganization of the state department of education. Dr. Homer P. Rainey will talk on "School Finance in Oregon." Dr. D. W. Debusk will tell of investigations carried on in the grade schools.

F. F. Wooton and Mrs. Edith R. Patee, both instructors in the university high school, will speak before history and languages sections at the conference.

The Labor party of Ireland is urging a government loan for the reconstruction of State property destroyed during the fighting, work which is now being financed out of revenue.

Gauntlet gloves made for degrained skin and trimmed with lizards' heads and tails are becoming popular for women's wear.

IN LINE FOR CROWN

This is young Prince Michael and his mother, Princess Helen, divorced wife of Prince Carol, of Rumania. Should the severe illness of King Ferdinand prove fatal, Prince Michael is to succeed him, Carol having renounced the throne last winter. Late reports from Bucharest have it that Helen, a Greek, is favored for the regency during Michael's minority.

7 Boys Reinstated In Eugene School

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 10 (AP)—Seven of the nine Eugene high school students who were suspended recently, following depredations at the high school and the subsequent whitewashing of principal John G. Swan during a high school assembly, were reinstated last night by action of the board of education.

The seven were allowed to return to their classes today upon their promises to refrain from doing anything toward unpleasantness in the case of Mr. Swan, and to do all they can to avert further uprisings.

The boys who were reinstated are Dale Burris, Lowell Manered, Richard Guske, Henry Welch, Gerald Towne, Tom McCollam and Gordon Pryor.

Bruce Grieve and Byron O'Connor were not reinstated.

The board also decided to reinstate athletics in the high school if no further trouble is had between now and Jan. 3.

TO CONSTRUCT PLANT

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 10 (AP)—A central slaughtering plant and a cooperative stock yards near Eugene, for the use of Eugene and Springfield meat dealers, is expected to result from a meeting held at the Eugene chamber of commerce last night. A chamber commerce met with the wholesale and retail meat men of the two cities. A committee was named to investigate the proposal thoroughly.

Just before they thumbprinted him he said, "Oh, well, you know forgery is a crime on paper only."

Ormiston's Dad To Aid in Coming Battle in Court

CHICAGO, Dec. 10 (AP)—Kenneth Ormiston, elusive radio operator of Angelus Temple, Los Angeles, believes he never would have been found if he had stayed on Broadway.

"I roamed the gay white way for months this summer and laughed to see my picture in the papers," he told a reporter for the Chicago Herald and Examiner, who interviewed him at Harrisburg, Pa.

"In spite of my limp no one recognized me. My only disguise was a little sandy moustache," a copyrighted story quoted him as saying.

Ormiston talked on many subjects during an automobile trip "somewhere in Pennsylvania"—the first leg of his journey to Chicago in company of detectives and newspapermen—but he declined to answer any question concerning Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist, with whom his name has been linked by west coast authorities.

Father to Aid Son

The finding of the radio man, who had lived in Harrisburg several months, under the name of "Fred Lininger," unloosed a flood of new statements from persons interested in the McPherson kidnaping case, including a declaration by Ormiston's father, W. C. Ormiston, that he was coming to the aid of his son.

"I've stayed out of this case for six months, but now I'm in it," the elder Ormiston said in San Francisco. "I don't want them planting any more evidence on Kenneth." He expressed faith that his son had not lied, "yet if he has he has lied like a man."

One of Best

One of the best featherweight fighters in the business is Babe Herman of California. Babe has met all the topnotch boys in his division for quite a long stretch and on the majority of occasions has come out in front. He recently gave the highly touted Benny Bass a nifty lacing in Cleveland. Bass was the most relieved fellow in the assemblage when the final gong rang. Keep your optics on this boy Babe Herman!
