Xmas Program Is Feature of Missionary Meet

A Christmas program was given yesterday afternoon when the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Stella Ingle, with Mrs. A. P. Hill and Mrs. A. R. Hunter as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. H. H. Cleaver had charge of the devotional and for her part of the program told the Christmas story. Mrs. Floyd Sherwood sang "In His Presence" and "Holy Night," accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Wright at the piano.

"The Religions of India," was the study subject for the afternoon and Mrs. J. K. Wright was the leader.

Before adjournment the hostesses served luncheon.

The regular church night program was held last evening at the central church of Christ, beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock. O. C. Fleishman was chairman of the committee in charge.

A fairly large attendance was present and after dinner there was congregational singing, after which Dr. J. L. McPherson read an article on "Ten Ways to Kill a Good Sermon," and the title of the reading given by Frank Hurd was "We Ain't Got No Bible in Our Home," a pathetic story of a little boy who didn't know the meaning of the word "Bible."

Eight members of the T. N. T. club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Tuckey at her home on Second street. The time was spent sewing and visiting, after which the hostesses served luncheon.

The next meeting of the club will be with Miss Mildred Hoyt.

A surprise party was given Thursday evening at the Thompson home, honoring the birthday anniversary of Floyd Thompson. Fourteen young people were guests and games were the diversion of the evening.

Mrs. Thompson served refreshments at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Green Entertain at Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green entertained last evening at their home on N avenue with members of the Clio club as guests.

Bridge, at seven tables, was played with Mrs. Lee Bouvy making high score among the women club members. The men's club prize went to H. A. Zurbick. Mrs. H. E. Dixon received first prize among the guests and F. B. Appleby was given the men's guest prize.

The Christmas colors, red and green, were used to decorate the rooms, bouquets of red carnations being effectively arranged.

After the card games those present enjoyed a two-course luncheon.

Three tables of bridge were at play yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Lavey on Oak street, when she was hostess to the members of the Friday Afternoon Bridge club.

Mrs. Sam Harris made high score among the club members and the second prize went to Mrs. Charles Beddingfield. Mrs. Arthur H. Bowen received the guest prize.

The rooms of the Lavey home was decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The hostess served a two-course luncheon after the card games.

Mrs. H. Rasmussen will be the next hostess to the club.

UNION (Special)—With covers laid for 12 Mrs. C. E. Hall entertained the members of the Camellion club at a 1:15 o'clock luncheon at her home in North Union this week. The luncheon table was decorated with bouquets of pink and lavender flowers.

After luncheon Kensington was the diversion.

Mrs. Bert Knight will be the next hostess to the club.

Campfire Girls Make Xmas Plans

The campfire girls of Riveria school met this week at the school when they decided on several interesting features for Christmas.

The group has been named Tapawingo, meaning "place of joy," and the following officers have been elected: president, Edna Towery; vice president, Virginia Smith; secretary-treasurer, Freda Smith; reporter, Blanche Green.

The girls of the group are now practicing Christmas carols which they will sing Christmas eve. They will also decorate a Christmas tree for the Riveria school to be placed in the lower hall of the school building. A candy sale at the next parent-teacher meeting of the school, Dec. 17, will be given to raise money for Christmas.

ENTERPRISE (Special)—The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Ault, with about 40 members and visitors present.

Each member present gave a dollar toward the offering and original poem as to how she earned it.

The program consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. W. Robinson, a group of readings by Helen Savage, a dramatic reading by Mrs. B. Stearns, and a humorous reading by Nanne Heaton.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. P. Craig, Mrs. Rex McCrea, Mrs. David Reavis and Mrs. Bert Thompson.

UNION (Special)—Mrs. Donald Gale was elected worthy matron of Grande Ronde valley chapter No. 49, Order of the Eastern Star, Wednesday evening, when a meeting was held at the Masonic hall here.

Tony Smith was elected worthy patron; Mrs. Francis Torral, associate matron; Mrs. Emily Cook, secretary; Miss Stella Levy, treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Bideler, conductress and Miss Margaret Pfy, associate conductress.

UNION (Special)—Miss Clio Spencer entertained a few of her friends at a 6:30 o'clock chicken dinner at her home Wednesday evening.

Covers were laid for eight, including Misses Gracia Haggerty, Helen Johnson, Lola Childers, Carrie Skiff, Ruth Watis, Marjorie Hyatt, Virgel Wilkinson and Clio Spencer.

UNION (Special)—Members of the Women's Christian Temperance union enjoyed an interesting program Wednesday afternoon when a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. S. A. Pursel, with Mrs. Belle M. Wright, Mrs. Cyrus Williams, and Mrs. D. A. Van Houten as hostesses.

Mrs. Wright was leader for the afternoon and she read an article on "Elections in Brief." Mrs. Van Houten read an article on "The Quebec Commission." Mrs. Mattox read a paper on "Prohibition" and Mrs. Dacey gave a paper on "Anti-Prohibition Organizations."

A report was given of the W. C. T. U. national convention recently held in Los Angeles, Cal.

Following the program refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be held the second Wednesday in January at the home of Mrs. Pursel with Mrs. Charlie Cross and Mrs. Arthur Dickinson as hostesses.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Apples baked in prune juice, cereal, thin cream, waffles, syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed celery with poached eggs on toast, rye muffins, canned white cherries, nut cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked halibut steaks, cottage fried potatoes, scalloped tomatoes, stuffed pepper ring salad, pineapple sponge, rye bread, milk, coffee.

Two fish steaks cut about 1/2 inch thick are baked sandwich fashion with a bread stuffing for the filling. An egg or oyster sauce can be served with them if wanted but if scalloped tomatoes are used a sauce is not necessary.

Stuffed Pepper Ring Salad

Two green peppers, 3/4 cup finely diced celery, 1 package cream cheese, 2 tablespoons orange marmalade, 4 tablespoons chopped nut meats.

Parboil peppers for five minutes. Drain and plunge into cold water. Rub off thin skin. Cut slices from stem end of peppers and remove seeds and white ribs. Chill. Work cheese with a fork until creamy, adding celery, marmalade and nuts. Fill peppers with mixture and let stand in a cold place for half an hour or until the filling is firm. Cut in half-inch slices and serve on a bed of lettuce with French dressing.

Each pepper is calculated to cut in four slices and two slices are used for each serving.
