Clair MacDowell is a busy aunt and mother. She played Claire Windsor's aunt in "A Little Jour-ney", has been cast as Joan Craw-ford's aunt in "The Taxi Dancer", and was Norma Shearer's aunt in "A Slave of Fashion". She was Ramon Novarro's mother in "Ben-Hur" and John Gilbert's mother in "The Big Parade".

Art in motion pictures has been judged by educators worthy of ex-hibition in the salon of the new Los Angeles public library. Char-coal drawings by leading film ar-tists taken from their work in re-creating scenes of the life of Christ for the Biblical picture "The King of Kings", compose the display.

The eye of the movie camera, keen to expose imitation jewelry, was almost fooled by the film re-search laboratories. Science dis-covered that paste gems, if sub-jected for a time to radium's rays, would out-photograph temporarily the genuine stones. A check of the tests, however, showed the radium necessary for practical application of the discovery would cost more than the precious stones.

One day a school teacher told her class to write an essay on "In-come Tax."

A small boy taxed his brain to the utmost, and at length he wrote the following:
 "I have a dog, his name is Tax. I opened the door and income Tax."

Read in the paper the other day where a radio soprano's voice put a fire 29 miles away. Glad they've found some use for them.

Yes, Christmas comes but once a year; but the enthusiastic cele-brant can spend all year paying for it.

Teacher's Note: "Dear Sir: Your son William shows decided indica-tions of astigmatism, and his case should be attended to without de-lay."

Parent's Reply: "Dear Sir: Whop it out of him."

Pussy Lady: "Does your mother know you smoke?"
 Small Boy: "Does your husband know you speak to strange men in the street?"

"A motion picture is good when the spectator derives from it a satavalanches and skipping chasms is not the worst of it. The altitude often makes such hard play ex-

 GRANT'S PASS, Ore., Dec. 13, (AP)—Unable to cross Sexton mountain, north of Grants Pass, the northbound coast air mail plane was forced to use the American Legion emergency landing field in Grants Pass yesterday. The plane tried to make the crossing over the mountain, which is the highest point between Medford and Portland, but was forced back to this city by a snowstorm and the mail was put on the northbound

AT THE THEATERS

Calls Indian Government Most Democratic

The North American Indian has the most democratic form of gov-ernment in the world, says Col. Tim McCoy, star of Metro-Gold-wyn-Mayer's initial western drama, "War Paint," which will be shown at the Star theater Tuesday and Wednesday.

"There are no hereditary titles," says McCoy "and any Indian youth has a chance to become chief if he can show he is worthy of his high office. Usually the Indian boy has to prove great skill as a warrior, teacher or benefactor of the tribe before he is elected to the tribal council. After that he can be- come chief if he gains the confi-dence of a majority of the tribe."

"War Paint" is a thrilling drama of the 'eighties when a general spirit of restlessness pervaded the Indian tribes of the Far West. More than five hundred real In-dians take part in the picture, most of which was filmed on location in Wyoming. A burlesque Brown comedy is also on the program.

Last Showing Tonight of "Steel Preferred"

Something new in motion pic-tures as delightful as it is rare—this may be said of "Steel Preferred," a Metropolitan picture, re-lieved by Producers Distributing Corporation, which was shown with emphatic success at the Sherry theater yesterday. A dramatic photoplay filled with laughs is a rarity, but "Steel Preferred" is that, and then some. Features are Vera Reynolds, William Boyd and Charlie Murray, with Ben Turpin, Walter Long, Hobart Bosworth and William V. Mong. In the support-ing cast, it is one of the most en-joyable pictures shown here for many months.

There are numerous scenes in the action, the most notable being the wrecking of a ladle train and the spilling of hundreds of tons of molten steel down a hillside. The heroism is topped by the avalanche of flaming metal and when her cowardly escort deserts her to save himself she is rescued by the hero and carried out of the danger zone. It is only natural that the love of the girl he saved should have been his reward.

Aside from this, the picture is packed with exciting scenes that thrill. The battle in the station frequented by the mill workers, by which a strike is averted, is ex-citantly well done. The comedy sup-plied by Charlie Murray, William V. Mong and Ben Turpin, is de-licious. The work of Vera Rey-nolds, William Boyd, Hobart Bos-worth, Walter Long and Nigel Harrie is excellent. The screen needs more pictures like "Steel Preferred." We recommend it heartily to all screen fans.

"Midnight Sun" Buchowetski's Greatest Film

In "The Midnight Sun" Univer-sal Super-Jewel starting today at the Arcade theater for a three-day run, Dimitri Buchowetski, noted Russian director, has produced one of the greatest screen spectacles of the year. It is a Russian story staged in a lavish setting, filled with all the luxury and mysticism that marked the Russia of pre-war days. But even more striking
