Parkdale Club Views Pictures Of Christ Birth

Members of the Parkdale club enjoyed an unusually interesting afternoon yesterday when Mrs. E. P. Mossman, an honorary member of the club, was hostess at her home on Spring avenue, assisted by Mrs. Charles Gump and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce.

The Cove Women's club, of which Mrs. Mossman is also an honorary member, was invited, but because of the weather conditions were compelled to telephone regrets the day before.

The meeting started with a two-course luncheon, served at 1:30 o'clock.

After luncheon attention was turned to a screen at one end of the living room, where pictures showing the Christmas story were projected by Mrs. Mossman with her stereoscopic slides. The first picture shown was of the Annunciation, followed by several others by famous artists portraying the Christmas story. The next pictures depicted the baby Jesus, and Mary, in the stable, where he was born.

Several pictures of the Madonna and child were shown and discussed by Mrs. Mossman and finally the picture known as "The Best of the World," "The Sistine Madonna." The program closed with the pictures of the Three Wise Men and their visit.

While the pictures were being shown and the story explained by Mrs. Mossman, members of the club furnished sacred music. Mrs. Nell Thacker and Mrs. J. Sharf sang a number and Mrs. Thacker sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson at the piano. A group of the women sang for a part of the pictures.

After the program there was a general discussion of art, the club members being much interested because of a contest to take place sometime in the future between them and the Cove Women's club.

Mrs. Gump, the club president, announced the next meeting for Jan. 5, after the Christmas holidays, which will be at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson.

W. B. A. Officers For 1927 Elected

La Grande Review No. 27, of the Woman's Benefit association, met in regular session Tuesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall with Mrs. Minnie Pike, commander, presiding.

Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the following: Mrs. Bernice Bramwell, commander; Mrs. Nora Mackey, lieutenant commander; Mrs. Agnes Adey, junior commander; Mrs. Nellie Spencer, record keeper; Mrs. Lodesa Kreutz, finance keeper; Mrs. Pearl Wood, chairman; Mrs. May Hilcy, secretary; Mrs. Mollie Buck, sentinel; Mrs. Carrie Eaton, picket; Mrs. Erastine Stitzinger, publicity reporter; Mrs. Pearl Bowman, captain of guards; Miss Marian Harris, musician; Mrs. Sadie Nedro, queen's advisor; Mrs. Erastine Stitzinger, musical director.

With Mrs. Vera Murchison re-appointed as collector by the home office in Port Byron, Mich., and Commander Minnie Pike taking the past commander's chair, all officers were filled for the coming year with the exception of summer camp supervisor, who will be named after the new commander takes the chair.

During the evening Mrs. Mackey was presented with a past commander's pin, the presentation being made by Mrs. Adelaide Clark, district deputy, of Pendleton, who was making her first official visit to the review.

Mrs. Packard gave an instructive talk about the work of the organization and also announced that Eastern Oregon had won over Western Oregon in the recent contest for the great review to be held sometime in April or May. It has not been decided which city in Eastern Oregon will have the state meeting.

Plans were made to entertain the juniors at Harris hall on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21. There will be a Christmas tree and games from 7 o'clock until 9. This is in charge of the junior commander, Mrs. Della Harnden, the junior commander-elect, Mrs. Agnes Adey, and the queen's advisor, Mrs. Sadie Nedro.

At a late hour refreshments were served by a volunteer committee, headed by Mrs. Mollie Buck.

A campfire girl group, sponsored by the Zion Lutheran church with Mrs. Leif H. Aves as guardian and Miss Anna Lottes as assistant guardian, was organized Saturday with seven members. The name of the group is "Sawtooths."

Meetings will be every Saturday from 5:30 until 6:30 o'clock at the Aves home. Election of officers will take place at this week's meeting.

meeting and other members may be admitted.

At the first meeting Mrs. Aves explained the meaning of campfire and the girls learned the watchword and its meaning. They also learned the campfire law and the hand sign.

Postpone Meetings Because of Storm

Several club and society meetings scheduled for yesterday afternoon were postponed because of the weather conditions, among them being the meeting of the Helonala Bridge club, and the Helonala society of the Zion Lutheran church.

Members of the Helonala Bridge club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. John Green, and the Lutheran Missionary meeting has been postponed until after the holidays.

It will be held on the third Wednesday in January at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Leif Aves. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at that time.

Several of the clubs in the city have also adjourned until after the holiday season.

Announcements

The Central Parent-Teacher association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in the Central school building. After the regular business session a program will be furnished by several of the school children.

Chapter I of P. E. O. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. McTamore, Mrs. Hall K. Walls, of Island City, will be assistant hostess.

The December meeting of World Wide guild of the First Baptist church will be Saturday evening at the church. Mrs. W. P. McCarty, counselor, will be hostess.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church held its annual bazaar Saturday in the M. and M. gallery, and at the same time held a cook food sale and served a merchant's lunch during the noon hour. The bazaar was very successful.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Halves of grapefruit, country sausage, raised buckwheat cakes, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Navy bean and tomato soup, toasted brown bread, lettuce and bacon sandwiches, baked apples, milk, tea.

DINNER—New England salt codfish dinner, beet salad, apricot cream pie, corn bread, milk, coffee.

If small children must be served breakfast orange juice or stewed fruit and a cereal should be provided for them.

The salt fish dinner suggested is a particularly happy choice to serve between Thanksgiving and Christmas or Christmas and New Year. The clever housewife sees to it that her first days are not dimmed by similar meals before the gala occasion. If the family is "fed up" on fowl, the Christmas goose will lose much of its charm. You may want to serve apricot cream pie and coffee to your afternoon bridge club.

Apricot Cream Pie
Two-egg hot water sponge cake, 1/2 pound dried apricots, 2 oranges, 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar, 1 1/2 cups cold water, 1 cup whipping cream, 4 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 cup shredded almonds.

Wash apricots through many waters. Put stand for an hour in lukewarm water to thoroughly cover, drain and rinse. Cover with cold water and let stand over night. In the morning cook in the same water until tender. Rub through a sieve. Squeeze juice from oranges and cook orange shells until tender. Scrape as much of the white part from the yellow rind as possible and cut in shreds in shreds. Add rind, juice and sugar to apricot puree and cook, stirring to prevent sticking until mixture thickens. When a spoonful is tried on a cold saucer. Split sponge cake and put together with the apricot marmalade. Cover top with marmalade and mask the whole cake with cream whipped, sweetened with powdered sugar and flavored with vanilla. Sprinkle with almonds which have been browned in a moderately hot oven.
