OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

Sister Mary Says:

BRILKAKEAST — Baked winter pears, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, whole wheat pop-overs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Corn and tomato chowder, prune and nut salad, coconut custard pie, graham bread, milk, coffee.

DINNER — Braised liver with vegetables, parsnip straws with melted butter, pineapple and cheese salad, rice souffle, rolled oats, bread, milk, coffee.

Sometimes I think that if we would serve the homely everyday vegetables with as much care as we do the delicate, succulent ones, these rather unpopular common vegetables would have a better chance. The parsnips suggested in the dinner menu are cut in neat strips of uniform size and carefully cooked in boiling water until they are perfectly tender but not broken. Add salt to the water 15 minutes before taking up. Drain parsnips and arrange carefully in a hot serving dish. Pour over melted butter and sprinkle with paprika.

Braised Liver With Vegetables — One and one-half pounds beef liver, 8 tiny onions, 2 small potatoes, 5 slices bacon, 2 cups diced celery, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Wash liver and remove any membranes. Pour over boiling water and let stand ten minutes, drain and dredge with flour. Place on rack in roaster or put in a casserole. Put bacon slices over top.

SHE GOT HER MEN
FORT MYERS, Fla.—Prisoners in the county jail will be careful hereafter. Mrs. W. B. Maynard, wife of chief deputy of the sheriff,

AL WINS FIRST HOUND
NEW YORK—Al Smith beat Coolidge? Well a postcard with the governor's likeness sent around the world in six hours less than one bearing the president's portrait. The Smith card started with the annual trip to San Francisco; the other went to membership to London, and so Hugh Clark, philanthropist, is paying a $200 bet to Theodore Steinway, of the pianos.
