CONGRESS TO TAKE RECESS UNTIL JAN. 3

For good measure, the house has passed five bills making changes in postal rates and the senate has disposed of the poison gas protocol for the time being by sending it back to the foreign relations committee after discussion had shown vigorous opposition to ratification.

When congress reconvenes in January it will have about nine weeks left in which to tackle the mass of work already slated for disposal. Despite the progress made thus far, relatively little im-

And while we think of it, what ever because of those old-fashioned undergarments that used to be known as "unmentionables"?

"What's that on your neck?" "That's a freckle." "Well, now, that's the first freckle I ever saw a freckle walk!"

Adam was lucky— You'd hate to own, For his wife cost him Just one home.

And Noah, too, With his big ark; Didn't have to hunt For a place to park.

And Jonah, too, For the time he spent Inside the whale. Paid no high rent.

The best way to work up an appetite is to have somebody promise to treat you to lunch.

Barber (after cutting senator's hair): "Wet or dry?" Senator: "None of your business."

HOW TO BE LONESOME Always boast of your accomplishments. Flaunt your few dollars. Have an opinion on every subject under the sun and never fail to express it.

Talk publicly of other people's mistakes, faults and shortcomings. Never lose an opportunity to argue your pet religious or political prejudices.

The dress she bought was much too short. And yet, it was a beauty. It used to be a dress, but now it's her best bathing suit.

Life's most heroic gesture is courageously and cautiously to descend from a higher to a lower income.

Most men would embrace an opportunity if it came disguised as a pretty girl.

G. B. Shaw Would Abolish Christmas

LONDON, Dec. 22 (AP)—George Bernard Shaw, the brightly lit, brilliant dramatist who recently won the Nobel prize for literature for 1925, thinks that Christmas should be abolished.

Writing in the New Leader, Shaw says: "It has become an unbearable nuisance, but the difficulty is to draft a bill making the celebration of Christmas a criminal act and compelling the shopkeepers who are just enabled by the Christmas trade to pay their rents, not to mention all the other people who make money out of it and who do not know that the landlords pocket it all in the long run."

Oppression has been made on the long programs which confronted the members two and a half weeks ago, and Chairman Snell of the house rules committee has just listed five more measures which are being considered for legislative preference after the holidays.

Other Measures Feted. They are the Butler bill for 10 new cruisers; the bill to give western states title to school lands; the Tinkham resolution proposing a third Hague conference for codification of international law; the bill to give disabled emergency workers retirement privileges and a measure proposing a national moratorium here.

AT THE THEATERS

"30 Below Zero" At Star Has Great Climax

Equipped with a gripping story and surrounded by an excellent cast, Buck Jones opens a two day run at the Star theater Thursday in "30 Below Zero," Fox Film version of John Stone's dramatic story of the north woods.

The cast includes Eva Novak, Paul Panzer, Harry Woods, Frank Butler, Henry Murdock, Vincent Howard and others.

"30 Below Zero," directed by Bob Kerr, has been called the best offering of the kind ever brought to the silver screen. The story opens in New York and has a smashing climax in the snow-country, where Buck performs some of the most hair-raising stunts of his career.

The two reel comedy, "Madame Dynamite" will also be shown.

Mingled with the comedy and gaiety of its lighter classics is heart-stirring tragedy, "Paint and Powder" is truly a gripping story that will hold your interest to the final scenes.

Hunt Stromberg, who is among the leading directors of the motion picture industry today, has chosen an excellent cast of talented and popular players such as...

Nothing can be more real than actually, so the circus "atmosphere" of "Spangles," the big United States theater Thursday only must necessarily ring true. From the setting up of the "big top" to the loading of the trains for departure it depicts the routine of an actual circus, the Al G. Barnes Shows, which was set up within stone's throw of its winter quarters for the filming of the picture, through the preliminaries and the performance leading to the striking of the tent, leaving the train and departure for Phoenix, Arizona, to open its summer season. The camera, under the watchful eye of Director Frank O'Connor, recorded it all, and the high spots are seen in "Spangles," as the background for Nellie Kevell's story, adapted to the screen by Leah Baird.

Put O'Malley and Marlan Nixon are featured in the picture, which was produced by Arthur E. Heek, with a supporting cast including Hobart Bosworth, Gladys Brockwell and others.

HILGARD PERSONALS: HILGARD, (Special)—Mrs. Frank Sanford and Mrs. Young were La Grande visitors Sunday. Howard Stalret and Frank Sanford were shopping in La Grande Monday.

Howard Stalret has started work as day agent for the O.-W. R. and N. here.

The thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero here on the morning of Dec. 14.

William children were out of school Tuesday because of the cold weather. They drive four miles to school.

Obe Burnett, of La Grande, stopped at the Frank Sanford home here Thursday night. He was on his way to Meacham with teams.

John Thornbrue will stay at the Frank Sanford home for a while. His family is in quarantine with grippe fever in La Grande.

George Bourne is ill at Hot Lake.

WRITE WITH TOES: CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Anybody who receives a Christmas card from a Tadellite girl should have no less opinion of college reformatory. Two hundred freshmen were ordered to write holiday missives with their toes. The purpose was to exercise to prevent flat feet.

"Paint & Powder" Opens Run At Sherrys

A production of unusual promise is Hunt Stromberg's "Paint and Powder," which will be the feature attraction at the Sherry theater for two days commencing today. This new Chadwick Pictures Corporation drama, a story of Broadway stage life, is said to be a true picture of the life of a great stage star.

Truly a drama of midnight madness, the story moves rapidly from the splendor and passion of time through the cheap gaiety of the Bowery to the glamour of the stage and its people. There is a disillusionment in the story of "Paint and Powder" for those who hold the common views of the off stage life of actors and actresses. Here, for perhaps the first time, is a fair and thorough representation of the lives of those who sacrifice so much for our entertainment.
