Strangler Not One Sought in Coast Centers

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 28 (AP)—Authorities are investigating for an attack yesterday on Mrs. Sarah Roberts, a Centralia rooming house proprietress, declared that it was probably the work of a stranger, who has slain a dozen Pacific coast women.

Exhibiting a bruised throat, Mrs. Roberts reported that a man who gave the name of Mason attempted to choke her after he had inquired about a room.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28 (AP)—Captain of Detectives John T. Moore, of the Portland police, and two of his inspectors, last night at Vancouver, Wash., interviewed Mrs. Sarah Roberts, of Centralia, who reported yesterday that she had been attacked by a would-be stranger.

Captain Moore said he was convinced that the man who attempted to strangle her was not the murderer who killed Mrs. Blanche Myers in Portland some weeks ago, and Mrs. Florence Fithian Monks in Seattle.

Captain Moore said the Centralia assailant did not fit the description of the man sought for the Portland and Seattle murders.

Why all the worry about the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony? It doesn't seem to bother the ladies in the least.

SPUD CONDITION QUIET, HEALTHY

Good Undertone Reflected Throughout Country in Potatoes

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28 (AP)—Although the local potato market is quiet and inactive, conditions generally throughout the country reflect a good, healthy undertone. Buying has quieted down here and along with other country produce lines there is not much activity at this time.

Local potato buyers show little interest for supplies just at this time and bids in the country are fractionally lower. A limited amount of business is shown at $1.25 to $1.40 to the grower, with such a limited profit. There is little profit in potatoes cutting over $1.50 at Portland, local jobbers assert.

Top score better is weaker in the local market today, with extra down a cent to 48 cents on the exchange. Other grades remained steady at former levels. The market as a whole is reported in a good, healthy condition.

Fresh egg prices continue steady and unchanged with last week's prices again posted on the local market boards. Extras are listed at 48 cents with firsts at 35 cents, pullets at 35 cents and current receipts at 27 cents.

Interest in the turkey market is now almost entirely limited to the hotel and restaurant trade. Not many birds are coming and dealers are holding prime birds at 45 to 47 cents.

A better tone is shown in country dressed meat and choice veal are moving out firm at 16 to 16 1/2 cents. Choice light hogs sell at 16 1/2 cents, with a few at 17 cents.

EGG, Ore., Dec. 28 (AP)—Stories of raspberries in bloom in Lane county have been coming in, and now enters the story of a turkey hen who thought it was springtime.

Just a few days before Christmas a turkey hen on the Curtis ranch west of Cottage Grove came forth with a brood of eight little turkeys, hatched from a 11-cent setting.

The turkeys were judged to young to grace Christmas tables for this year at least.

NEW YORK FRUIT

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—Evaporated apples dull; fancy, 11 1/2 to 12 1/2; prunes, active; apricots firm; peaches quiet.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

UNION, Ore., Dec. 28 (Special)—Christmas exercises for the Methodist Sunday school were held at the church Sunday evening. Besides the singing of Christmas carols the following numbers were given: "Before and After" by Doris Sturgill; "Truly Blessed" by the Sunbeam class; "Mantling of a Christmas Carol" by Wanda Sturgill and Ruth Connor with the Campfire girls singing; and a reading "Anne's and Willie's Prayer" by Edith Cheney. All the members of the Sunday school were given treats at the morning service.

STAGE OPERATOR WINS

SALISBURY, Ore., Dec. 28 (AP)—An opinion of the supreme court today holds that A. J. Joffe, of Portland, operator of the Columbia stages, shall recover $738.14 from the United Auto Indemnity Exchange, representing damages paid by Joffe to persons injured in a traffic accident. The opinion was written by Justice Brown and affirmed by Justice John H. Stevenson of the lower court for Multnomah county.

PATIENCE GONE

—NEA, Kansas City Bureau
Patience is a virtue, but it can be carried too far. Miss Sarah L. Applegate of Joplin, Mo., was engaged to Benjamin Franklin Cox for 25 years, but she finally lost hope, she says, when Cox continued to delay the wedding. Now she's suing him for $50,000 for breach of promise. The two are shown here.

Sharp Break in Wheat Prices in Chicago Market

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 (By the Associated Press).—Opening of 1/2 to 3/4 off, wheat prices underwent a sharp further drop, but then rallied somewhat. Corn and oats were easy, corn starting 1/2 to 3/4 decline and subsequently recovering part of the drop. Provisions were irregular.

Wheat closed heavy, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 lower; corn, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 off; oats, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 off; and provisions unchanged to 20c up.
