Legionnaires Entertain at Annual Dance

One of the most attractive of the holiday dances took place last evening when the American Legion post sponsored its first annual "Silver Thaw" dance. The unique decorations of the hall was the principal feature, the room being transformed into a winter scene with snow, icicles and evergreen. Christmas trees also played an important part in the arrangement.

The idea of the aurora borealis was carried out in the lighting effect, vari-colored lights reflecting on the snow scene at one end of the hall.

The orchestra started playing at 9 o'clock and the dance lasted until midnight. The hall was just comfortably crowded.

The legion is arranging for several other dances about two each month, during the remainder of the winter, the proceeds to go toward the 1927 convention fund.

The La Grande organization of the Mojay entertained at its third annual holiday dancing party last evening in the Elks' ballroom.

Dancing started at 9 o'clock and continued until 12, the familiar orchestra furnishing music. During the evening punch was served by Misses Lenore McCorkle and Ruth Cullen.

Several members of the Masonic lodge and their wives were patrons and patronesses. They were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hess, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McEachern, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lindgren, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coe and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. OUT OUR WAY

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, apple and corn meat po-milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of pea soup, toasted crackers, egg salad, sandwiches, pineapple bavarian cream, cocoa.

DINNER—Pan-broiled lamb chops, twice baked potatoes, creamed carrots, orange and stuffed celery salad, bran rolls, mince pie, milk, coffee.

Sometimes we find oranges distinctly tart. If this fruit must be used for breakfast it can be made quite acceptable by the simple addition of sugar or water. Of course the volume of the drink is increased by the water, but so much the better for those of us who drink too little water. The tart oranges are usually very juicy, so the juice of one and one-half is calculated to serve one person. Put one or two teaspoons sugar in a glass, add orange juice and fill glass with water.

Apple and Corn Meal Pone

Two cups corn meal, 2 cups boiling water, 2 eggs, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups chopped apples, 2 tablespoons molasses.

Put corn meal into mixing bowl, add boiling water, stirring to prevent lumping. Beat smooth and pour bowl with cold. When cold, add eggs well beaten, butter melted, and beat hard for several minutes. Add remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pour into a well-buttered dripping pan and bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes. Cut in squares and serve warm with butter.

COUNTESS NOW A DRUMMER

BERLIN. (AP)—Travelling about Germany with models for a Parisian fashion house is the fate of Countess Olga Boris-Melikov, granddaughter of Czar Alexander II of Russia and also the Russian poet, Alexander Pushkin.

Had the fortunes of war been different, this blue-blooded saleswoman might today be crown princess of the Kingdom of Flanders, the creation of which was planned by the Germans in 1916.

Countess Melikov, nee Countess Merenberg, comes to Germany from time to time to show the models of a house owned and run by Russian emigre aristocrats living in Paris. She makes regular stops in Berlin, Frankfurt, and Wiesbaden, besides paying occasional visits to other centers, and everywhere by the charm of her personality manages to dispose of orders running into high figures.

PAY 'EM HEAP MUCH

CHICAGO—Nearly $21,000 has been spent in taxicab fares by Mrs. Ernest H. Kelly, a Cherokee Indian, it is avowed by her husband, also a Cherokee and superintendent of the Cule's park. He wants a divorce, but the courts won't let him have it. Instead his wife was advised to sue for separation.

INDIANS ASK LAW

WASHINGTON—An Indian should be able to cross the boundary between the U. S. and Canada as freely as his forefathers, in the opinion of the council of six nations, and it is going to take the matter to Uncle Sam's courts in an effort to prevent deportation of a Quebec Iriquois.

20 BEARS, NO BULLS

Efforts to Bring Back Muffs Fail; Cuffs Serve O. K.

By The Associated Press
A muff by any other name keeps just as warm, and attempts by Parisian furriers to revive the old-fashioned muff have been baffled by the prevailing mode of deep fur cuffs. By crossing the hands the fur wearers convert their cuffs into what are to all intents and purposes good muffs.

Gentlemen Prefer Brown
One of the major features in men's styles is the dark brown lounge suit in many shades which is gradually pushing the more flashy type of the Paris map. The suit is usually in fine and soft wooten fabric.

Mistures in the weaving is varied and sometimes there is a vague plaid line in the material, which may be either in a lighter brown or a much deeper tone that verges upon the black.

Trousers and coat do not always match in weave. One or the other may be plain.

Feminine fancy leans more and more to the "broche" and the latest addition to the well stocked lingerie drawer of the English woman are the "Charlotte" knickers made of satin or crepe de chine. These are finished with a deep band of elastic which covers the knee and gives firm support. Dance dresses have a pair to match as no petticoats are worn.
