

KEEP BRAGG PLEA OF GOV. PIERCE

Recommends Three Appointees of Own for Retention

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 1.—Delivering a parting message to the members of the Salem Kiwanis club, of which he has been a member during his four years as chief executive, Governor Walter M. Pierce commended three members of his official family to the incoming administration for retention in office. The three were E. E. Bragg, member of the state industrial accident commission, to whom the governor gave credit for the activities during the past four years; J. E. Quinlan, superintendent of industries at the state prison, to whom Governor Pierce said "the state owes an undying debt of gratitude for his wonderful work in rebuilding the state prison after its disastrous fire," and J. S. Stewart, special agent of the state land state $100,000 in the past two years in administration of the field work in connection with the loans from the irreducible school fund.
