 Behind This Great Sale

Add New Beauty
 To Your Home

There is no more important expenditure during the year than that made for furniture. It is an investment in your home, in comfort and beauty for years to come.

What joy there is in having a new living room! What a pleasure it is to have your friends in for social gatherings when an attractive interior is ready to greet them! How proud one can be when serving a dinner that is set off by an appropriate dining suite! And isn't it a source of real pleasure to have a guest room to which you are glad to show visiting relatives and friends?

Yet an attractive home is not expensive to have. The remarkable values offered in this sale make your plans for re-furnishing all the more reasonable. Let us help you with combination selections.

Quality Is All-Important

Because you buy furniture to last, to retain its comfort and beauty features for a great many years, if not for a lifetime, the question of quality is always paramount when making your investment.

Furniture must possess expert construction, carefully selected hardwoods, fine materials underneath as well as outward attractiveness. That's why you find that Bohnenkamp's reputation for superior quality is so wide-spread—we insist on the best that the market affords for the money.

You can enjoy this quality at a most unusual saving during this sale. Whether you select the most inexpensive piece of furniture or the most elaborate, you are assured dollar-for-dollar value that will give lasting satisfaction.
