Of all known drugs, creomulsion is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

The nice girl of modern times, is the one who only swears when she finds herself out of cigarettes.

Interested Prof.: "What do you expect to be when you get out of college?"
Persistent Student: "A grandfather."

WHAT THEY LIVE ON
Soldiers live on hash and beans,
Sailors live on ships,
Workers live on what they earn,
Waiters live on tips.

Old men live on borrowed time,
Old maids live on tea,
Then there are my relatives—
They all live on me.

Teacher: "Now, Mary, do you remember what it is that humans have animals don't?"
Mary: "Yes'm, hairfasis."

Small La Grande Child: "Mother, did you know Moses had indignation like you have?"
School teacher told me the Lord gave him two tablets."

Sweet Young Thing (coming in with attentive partner from bridge): "Oh, mother, I've just captured the booty!"
"Well, Well! Come here and kiss me, both of you."

THE BRIDES HYMN
Can-opener, "is of thee,
Friend in emergency,
Of thee we sing,
When burnt brown is the steak,
And sinks the ten-pound cake,
You save a tummy ache,
Oh, kitchen king!"

Anxious Father: "Doctor, my daughter has every appearance of going blind, and she is about to be married."
Specialist: "Get on with the wedding as quickly as possible. If anything can open her eyes, marriage will."

AIN'T IT SIMPLE, MABLE?—
Reduced to simplest terms, the reason given for the maintenance of high prices is that the prices must remain high because they cannot become lower, and they cannot become lower because they must remain high.

Customer: "Did I leave an umbrella in this store yesterday?"
Merchant: "What kind of an umbrella?"
Customer: "Oh, any kind. I'm not fussy!"

A La Grande druggist read this note the other day: My baby has cut his father's parish plaster. Send an anesthetic quick by the express agent, also send a bottle of Creomulsion, as I am a little bit tired.

She has to flatter the fool to catch him and feed the brute to hold him.

AT THE THEATERS

"Desert's Toll" Has Novel Western Angles

No style of motion picture entertainment has yet met with the tremendous popularity ever accorded the western feature. The public seemingly never tires of this form of entertainment, and happy, indeed, is the producer who hits upon something new and novel in a western story and presentation.

"The Desert's Toll," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production starring Francis McDonald, which will be the feature attraction at the Star Theater Tuesday and Wednesday, is without doubt something new in western production.

Francis McDonald is starred in this great drama of the West, with Kathleen Key as the fair lady, Tom Satchel registers as the villainous corner of the triangle.

Cliff Smith, who directed "The Desert's Toll," was responsible for the direction of most of William S. Hart's great successes. He has more recently been Hoot Gibson's director. He knows the West as few motion picture directors will ever know it, and he gives of this knowledge freely in his interpretations of the drama with which the West abounds.

A two reel comedy will also be shown.

"Golden Web" At Sherrys Today Only

"The Golden Web," the first of the Greater Gotham productions which comes to Sherry theater today only contains every basic element of popular appeal. The author, E. Phillips Oppenheim is one of the most popular writers of present day fiction and "The Golden Web" is acclaimed as one of the very best of his many successful novels.

The producers assert that in screening this story they have made absolutely no changes in the structure of the story and that the photoplay is as close to the book as it is possible to make it.

The story tells of a man who has fought his way to the top in business. At the very moment of his greatest financial and social success he finds himself caught in the meshes of the golden web of business and absolute ruin faces him. Forgotten events of his past now confront him and threaten his immediate downfall. He becomes involved in a case of blackmail and eventually a murder trial. He passes through this trying period which brings about his entire moral regeneration and in the end he finds that love compensates for the loss of many material things. He had thought the ultimate in life.

There are many "high spots" in the picture, among them being: A tense "third degree" scene, a very dramatic murder trial, a spectacular earthquake and landslide and a sensational and thrilling plunge from a high cliff into the ocean.

The production was directed by Walter Lang, a coming screen genius and in the east will be found such sterling screen favorites as Lillian Rich secured through courtesy of Cecil B. De Mille, Huntly Gordon a very popular leading man, Jay Hunt star of "Lightning", Lawford Davidson and Boris Karloff.

The Comedy "Monkey Hain" with Max the clown and monkey is also being shown for today only.

The girls are right. When stockings cost $3, and up, why hide them?

Spectacular Water Scenes in "Sparrows"

Spectacular water scenes, where a police boat chases a small motor launch firing shots with a one-pounder, feature Mary Pickford's new picture, "Sparrows" which opened a three day engagement at the Arcade theater today.

These scenes were made at San Pedro, California, after night. Miss Pickford, with nine little children, was on the motor launch. The police boat is in pursuit. The police believe the boat is driven by a band of criminals and they
