FLORAL TOKENS

NEW YORK—Floral horse shoes inscribed "success," are popular tokens when a new business is opened. Anne Nichols, author of the most successful play, "Abbie's Irish Rose," has a seven foot horse shoe containing 2,000 roses, presented at the 2,000th performance of the play.

The man who used to "swear off" something on New Year's day now finds that there are enough laws to cover the situation.

An English writer says the American theater is becoming Anglicized. It must be true, for we have heard words lately that we couldn't understand.

Abolishment Of Lame-Duck Meet Is Held Unlikely

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (NEA)—The expiring house of representatives has an opportunity to perform one deathbed act for which it conceivably might gain some admiration. But it is not likely to seize this chance.

As usual, the end of this congress finds the Norris amendment to the constitution abolishing "lame duck" sessions still before the horse. Three time this amendment has passed the senate and just as often the house machine has kept it from a vote on the floor.

A great many agruments have been advanced, in favor of this amendment, which would bring representatives and senators elected in November into office and into session the following January.

* * *

The object is not merely to put the "lame ducks" out of their misery. It is rather to get them out from underfoot, where they are accused of cluttering up the path of such progress as one may be able to credit to congress.

This "lame duck" situation is especially poignant in the final short session of the sixty-ninth congress.

A "lame duck" is a senator or representative voted out of office in primaries or November elections who, nevertheless, has been elected to a term running until March 4 and including a session of congress meeting after his defeat. The fellow elected in his place, whose election sometimes constitutes a rousing repudiation of the incumbent and all his works, cannot take office until the new congress goes to work 13 months later.

Five hundred tons of American horseshoes were applied to horses in foreign countries last year.

It's Dangerous To Be Too Thin

Demands of Present Day Fashion for Straight Line Skinniness Wrecking Health of Thousands.

It's the worst kind of folly to sacrifice your Health for Fashion or to daily ignore a condition you know is seriously wrong.

You do not need to be a Doctor to understand the dangers of subnormal weight. Common Sense and the fact that Life Insurance Companies refuse to sell Insurance to those who are "too thin" furnish convincing proofs that cannot be denied.

If you are five or more pounds underweight, don't neglect the matter, but start the use of McCoy's Tablets at once! The lady cricket, so they say,
Can lay a million eggs;
Her husband, too, has learned to play
The fiddle with his legs.

The lady bee does all the work,
The queen is on the lay;
But the He-bee is the turbaned Turk—
He loafs around all day.

The lady ostrich lays the eggs
Down near the hot equator,
Then struts her feathers while the heat
Acts as an incubator.
The female of the species then,
According to this tale,
Is vindicated once again—
She's smarter than the male.

Golfer—My lad, do you know what becomes of little boys who use bad language while they are playing marbles?

Small Boy—Yes, sir; they grow up and play golf.

A late feminine fad is "Painted-On" stockings. We fear, however, that when it rains this kind will suffer from runs, too.

AT THE THEATERS

Hilarious Thrills In Picture At Sherrys

At the Sherry theater they are featuring a Warner Bros. classic of the screen which is one of the most thrilling and most hilarious of recent screen productions. It is "The Man Upstairs," the film version of that well known Earl Derr Biggers story, "The Agony Column," and introduces a delightful new screen team—Monte Blue and Dorothy Devore.

The plot is generously punctuated with thrills and laughs and is so skillfully directed by Roy Del Ruth that it keeps the audience in breathless suspense until the surprising climax.

"The Agony Column" in a daily newspaper brings together two young people in search of romance and adventure. To gratify the young lady's thirst for excitement, the hero creates a mysterious murder which is ultimately attributed to him and for which he is sent to prison. It later develops that the girl had decided to play a joke on him and when she has tested his courage and wits, promises to marry him to atone for her prank.

The supporting cast is an excellent one, and includes Helnie Conklin, John Roche, Helen Dunbar, Arthur Thalaso, Otto Hoffman, Carl Stockdale and Stanley Taylor.

From every angle, "The Man Upstairs" is a picture well worth seeing.

Comedy showing, "The Vulgar Yachtsman."

"Rain" Reserved Seats on Sale Tomorrow

Seats go on sale tomorrow at the Glass Drug Store for the forthcoming presentation of "Rain", America's outstanding dramatic success, which will be seen here on Monday Jan. 17, at the Arcade theater. This drama, strong in its appeal, full of virility and picturesque and fascinating in the extreme, should prove a notable attraction. It is described as an irresistible play, sweeping the emotions of the audience almost beyond control. A new Western tour of this play has been arranged by Henry Duffy in cooperation with Sam H. Harris, the New York producer, and Isabel Withers will be seen in the dominating role of Sadie Thompson.

The chief male role, that of the Rev. Alfred Davidson will be in the capable hands of Harold Salter, a Broadway favorite. The supporting cast is described as of metropolitan excellence, with scenic features beyond comparison.

Farm Pointers

To make fancy butter deliver cream to the factory three times a week in winter and four times in summer, says an O. A. C. creamery report. No one can make fancy butter from old cream. Regardless of how sweet it may be, cream two to three days old will make 92-93 score butter, cream three to four days 91-91 score butter, four to five days 90-91 score butter. Butter that scores under 92 causes a loss that might be prevented.

On many Oregon streams at least enough electric power may be developed to run a 2 to 5 horse power plant, says the farm mechanics department of the state college. This is enough power for the average farm. In exceptional cases it is possible to supply a plant to provide a current to run 50 to 100 lights, run a washing machine, ironer, vacuum cleaner, electric fan, toaster, percolator, sewing machine, a cooking range, and other like equipment. Before any site is developed it is best to find out whether it can be made profitable.

Since adults of the strawberry crown borer that damages Oregon crops frequents flowers, feeding on the honey, the experiment station department of entomology is trying out a series of tests to see if it can be controlled by a poison bait.

In planning the Oregon poultry farm four things are mentioned by the experiment station poultry department for consideration by the prospective poultryman—community development, type of soil, cost of land, markets. It is a great advantage to locate in a community where many neighbors are interested in the industry. Aside from similar interests are financial advantages in lower prices for feed, supplies and equipment. The best soil is a sandy loam that while producing good crops will not puddle in winter and bake in summer. Heavy clay land is not so good, but can be used successfully, as the college has proved.

It is a mistake to think that Oregon clover will succeed on poor soil, says the experiment station. Clover needs to make a large growth and make it rapidly, so requires available fertility. It is noticeable that clover growing on land that produced other good crops succeeds well.

Ostrich feathers are plucked every seven months and as the birds often live to the age of 80 years, ostrich farms are profitable.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Marble Headstones To Replace Crosses

PARIS, Jan. 13 (AP)—Marble headstones, it is reported, are to be substituted for the wooden crosses of 31,000 American graves in Europe. Colonel R. W. Van Duyen, of the graves registration service, is said to have concluded a contract with a quarry firm at Pietrasanta, Italy, delivery to begin in February.
