made by certain politicians, in and out of the house, to create a partisan issue out of the present situation." The country has a right, he said to ask both parties these questions: "Are you with Russia in Mexico, or with America in Mexico?" "Are you for the president of Mexico or for the president of the United States?"

Even the jewels and semi-precious stones which embellished the granite tombs have been removed, leaving only the holes in which they were set.

PEACE DEMANDS MADE
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Peace appeals and other moves looking toward re-establishment of tranquil conditions in Nicaragua and more cordial relations between the United States and Mexico have developed both here and abroad.

The house was asked in a resolution today by representative Moore, democrat, Virginia, to go on record that there is "nothing in the Mexican situation which would justify the severance of our diplomatic relations," with that government or forcible intervention in its affairs.

The administration policy in Mexico and Central America was assailed in the senate today by Senator Dill, democrat, Washington.

"I do not propose to sit silent without protest against a policy which might involve us in a confrontation over land laws in Mexico, which the government of that country has offered to arbitrate," said Senator Dill.

Referring to Nicaragua, he declared that "precedent is no defense for a wrong action."

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—The New York World today tells of a Nicaraguan gun running expedition, which it says apparently was conceived and executed in the United States and made possible with American money.

WANT DATE EXTENSION
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Extension of date on which construction repayment on federal reclamation projects are due would at this time nullify a vital government policy, Secretary Work declared today.

BABY MARKET IN CHICAGO EXPOSED

Newspaperwomen Give Information Leading to Arrest of Mid-Wives

CHICAGO, Jan. 14 (AP)—Thirteen mid-wives are under arrest on warrants ordered by Dr. Herman N. Bandemson, city health commissioner, on information given by girl reporters for the Chicago Herald and Examiner that the women had been operating a baby market. The reporters, posing as customers were informed, they said, that the women would care for prospective mothers in their homes, and if the mothers did not want the babies would sell the children to wives who deceived their husbands into believing they were to become mothers. The prices for a new born baby the newspaper said, ranged from $250 to $1200. In case an unwanted baby died, one of the mid-wives said she had an arrangement with two undertakers to dispose of the bodies.

Turn Cathedral Gold Into New Russian Coins

LENINGRAD, Jan. 14 (AP)—Gold and silver from the famous cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul is being melted into coins.

Many articles of the metals, including the intricately wrought funeral offerings to the royal dead from the Russian people and from foreign sovereigns, have been removed by the state authorities and melted into coin.

Longview Bridge Bill Is Passed In House Today

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Longview bridge bill was passed today by the house.

The measure has already been approved by the senate and unless it is necessary to send it back to that body for correction of a clerical error congressional action is complete.

Passage by the house came on a viva voce vote. "We do not believe," Sinnott declared, "that congress should ruin our harbor through two promoters."

W. D. Comer and Wesley Vandercok are named in the bill as the persons who would construct the bridge, but Sinnott did not mention names.

550 Delegates To Attend Conference

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 14 (AP)—The flow of delegates to the state high school conference to be held on the University of Oregon campus today and tomorrow began yesterday, and an attendance of more than 550 is expected to register.

Student body officers, press representatives, officers of girls leagues and faculty advisors will attend the sessions.

A general assembly at 9 o'clock this morning marked the formal opening of the conference. Following the general assembly, the meeting divided into sectional conferences.

Baseball, although still a novelty, is progressing slowly in France. Last year six clubs made up most of the championship. Four more clubs have entered the Paris baseball league for the 1927 season.

the governor be made the budget officer and that the supervision of the state prison be removed from the governor to the board of control.

Senator Moser will introduce the bills making the transfer.

Other measures in which Patterson is interested will provide for a separate department for motor vehicles, repeal of the so-called peddlers license act, and curbing bond issues.

Senator Bell, of Lane county, will next week, it is understood introduce a bill consolidation of the departments of insurance, banking and corporations each of which is now a separate department.

Also Bell will introduce a measure for the abolition of the state emergency board. He claims that this board in effect nullifies the work of the state budget commission and the ways and means committee.

Berry Growers Of Two States To Join

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 14 (AP)—Tentative plans for the organization of berry growers of Oregon and Washington into a cooperative body were announced here today by H. R. Rippi, manager of the marketing department of the chamber of commerce.

Berry growers of the various berry growing districts will form individual associations. Each of these associations individually will enter into separate contract for centralized distribution.

There is to be organized what will be known as the Berry Growers' Foundation Inc., in which all of the district associations will have membership and which will be managed by a board of 15 trustees.

Man Gets Five Years on White Slave Charges

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 14 (AP)—United States Circuit Judge Iudkin today sentenced Mate Murusch, 32, to five years in prison following conviction of white slavery in connection with transporting a Los Angeles woman to Klamath Falls. Murusch and the woman were arrested at Klamath Falls last November.

"A man who will take a mother away from her children and treat her as you have treated this mother is the lowest type of person with which the law has to deal. And the sentence of this court is that you be confined in the penitentiary at McNeil island for five years," said the judge.

Judge Iudkin sentenced Homer Cass and Bill Huff, both of Chilquin, to three months each in jail for selling liquor. Both pleaded guilty. Mrs. Rose Huff, arrested with her husband, is in Klamath Falls caring for two 11 children. She was fined $25.

BILL INTRODUCED
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The interior department would be authorized to conduct negotiations to release the government and other interested parties from contracts to build drainage works on reclamation projects under a bill approved today by the house irrigation committee.
