MARY TELLS 'EM
CHICAGO—Mary Garden can be quite expressive in plain English as well as in Greek. As to suggestions that a tiff instead of a wretched cold caused her failure to sing "Carmen," she says: "I'm a blubber. Just plain, unadorned blubber."

There are a million and one reasons why girls leave home. The one reason is a man.
He: Why is your face so red?
She: Cause.
He: Cause why?
She: Cause that's.

FASHION NOTE
The helix used to wear flaring, crinolines, vast; Their beaux donned a pair of tight pants to contrast.

Today the belle's skirts Are of scanty expanse; While all the young flirts Affect crinolines pants.

Many men are like poor mullets—they stink to nothing.

BIG BILL A BENEDICT
MOSCOW—Big Bill Haywood is a bridegroom. The bride, about 37, has an attractive and sympathetic personality and a government job, but speaks no English. Big Bill is 53.

Love doesn't always want to find the way.

SIXTY DAYS, NEXT CASE
"Guilty or not guilty?" asked the judge sternly of Rastus, charged with chicken stealing.
"Not guilty, Judge."
"What is your alibi?"
"Alley by which?"
"You heard me. Have you an alibi?"
"You mean th' alley by which Ah got away, Judge?"

Fashion note: Last winter overcoats are worn, as usual, by most of the men who could easily afford new ones.

And what are you going to be when you're a big girl, my dear? Oh, I'm going to be a stenographer so I can eat my breakfast at a soda fountain.

THE RUSH OF CONQUEST?
They tell of the blushing bride Who to the altar goes.
Down the aisle of the church Between the friend-filled rows; There's Billy whom she motored with,
And Bob with whom she swam; There's Jack—she used to golf with him
And Steve who called her "Lamb";
There's Ted, the football man she owned,
And Don of tennis days; There's Herbert, too, and blonde Eugene;
They took her to the plays. And there is Harry, high school hero,
With whom she used to mush. No wonder she's a blushing bride; Ye God! She ought to blush!

Theatergoer—Could you oblige me with a program?
Attendee—Yes, but the show's nearly over!
"I know that, but I want to prove to my wife where I've been."

AT THE THEATERS

Seats Now On Sale For "Rain"

Seats are now on sale at the Glass Drug Store for "Rain," the dramatic masterpiece, which will be presented at the Arcade theater on Monday night, Jan. 17. This city, unfortunately, was overlooked in the first tour of this notable attraction, but just as soon as a second Pacific coast tour was announced, arrangements were immediately made for the engagement here.

"Rain" is a world famous success, a drama of dignity and tremendous power. It is said to sweep the emotions of the audience almost beyond control. For four years it has been the reigning dramatic attraction of America.

This community will see this offering with a stellar cast headed by Isabel Whitson, a youthful, fascinating and charming star. Heading her support will be Harold Salter in the important role of the Reverend Alfred Davidson and the balance of the company, is reported to be of Broadway excellence.

Corinne Wears Royal Robes In New Picture

Corinne Griffith, popularly acclaimed as the screen's most beautiful actress, appears again in the dazzling raiment of European court life in "The Lady in Ermine," which will be featured at the Arcade theater today and Saturday.

The background of the swiftly moving story is the Austrian-Italian war of 1810, against which is set a romance between a man and woman of noble birth, enmeshed in the intrigues of Napoleonic campaigns.

Broadway critics declare it is destined to be one of the outstanding dramatic sensations of the star's career.

Supporting Miss Griffith is an unusually strong cast including Francis X. Bushman, Elmer Hanson, Ward Crane and Charles Selton.

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Welch left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal. They will make several stops en route to visit friends and relatives. They will visit William J. Keown, at San Bernardino.

Miss Emma Baxter is on the sick list this week. Mrs. Ralph Morgan is taking her place at school.

Mrs. Fears is ill at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McKinnis have moved to the Payne place here.

Several people were in La Grande for the dance Tuesday night.

Chick Cleaver caught a dog in his coyote traps this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd and family visited relatives in La Grande Sunday.

Mrs. Ella M. Walker visited her sons in La Grande Sunday afternoon.

40,000 LETTERS
NEW YORK—Mr. Browning is trying to struggle 40,000 letters about himself and Peaches. Some of them have come from Iceland, he says, but nearly all of the 25,000 already read are friendly.

The pine-tree shilling, originating in 1652 and replacing wampum as a medium of exchange, was the first silver coinage in North America.

Enid Bennett In Appealing Film at Sherrys

Seldom has Enid Bennett appeared to such good advantage as she does in the part of Eye Waring, in the Sterling Production, "A Woman's Heart," at Sherrys today only. The picture is based upon the novel by Ruth D'Anastasio. The breath of life is breathed deeply into the picture by the brilliant young director, Phil Rosen, who performed a life service for "Abraham Lincoln."

The life-likeness of the characters and the situations have been heightened by the expert acting of a company of intelligent and sensitive players headed by Enid Bennett, Gayne Whitman, Edward Earle, Mabel Julianne Scott, Lois Boyd and Louis Payne.

Miss Bennett gives a performance that measures right up to the standard of excellence she established for herself in such pictures as "Robin Hood," "The Sea Hawk" and "The Red Lily." Never has she been more human and convincing in her acting. Gayne Whitman, Lois Boyd, Louis Payne and Mabel Julianne Scott give entirely satisfactory and illuminating performance of their roles.
