Daughters of Pioneers Meet, Recall Old Days

Mrs. Lester Stoddard and Mrs. Virginia Lowry entertained 25 daughters of Utah Pioneers yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stoddard on Second street.

An interesting program was given during the afternoon. Mrs. George A. Bean telling of the early Biblical music of the Utah pioneers, after which she sang a selection from the cantata "The Prince of Peace."

A quartet, consisting of Mrs. Jack Hiatt, Mrs. Lester Stoddard, Mrs. W. A. Bean and Mrs. Elmer McManis, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Mrs. Ray Haun sang a solo and Mrs. Osborne Richards of Union, gave a biographical sketch of the life of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Scofield.

A short business meeting preceded the program, presided over by Mrs. H. G. Larson, president. The hostesses served refreshments following the program.

The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church made plans for a luncheon meeting at the church for Tuesday, Jan. 25, when Dr. Maude Allen, missionary from India, will be here, yesterday afternoon when the regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Eakin, with Mrs. W. H. Bohnehamer, Jr., and Mrs. H. Hanna as assistant hostesses. Mrs. O. E. Moran, president of the society, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Hanna had charge of the devotion.

Mrs. H. H. Chayer was program chairman for the afternoon, and told in a very interesting manner some of the problems of China.

Compass, maps and rulers were brought into play Thursday afternoon when the campfire girls of Seanglelaha group liked up Den's canyon. The girls met at the home of Lenore Ely at 2:30 o'clock and from there they started at a point they called X, where the maps were started and general directions were given.

Lucille Metcalf, Mildred Spencer and Mildred Bradshaw were paces and Dorothy Brownson, Margaret Danks and Lenore Ely were skaters, while Mrs. G. S. Birnie acted as adviser. The paces marked the road into lay-yard intervals at the end of which the skaters stopped and mapped the land just traversed.

At 4 o'clock the girls decided to turn back and a light lunch was enjoyed. The girls will receive honors for their maps. The next meeting will be a ceremonial at the home of Mrs. G. S. Birnie Wednesday evening, Jan. 19, at 7:30 o'clock. Three new members, Irene Spencer, Marjorie Wallstinger and Florene Vedder, are to be brought in then. The girls will also receive heads for honors they have won during the past months.

Minerva Says—

When you come into The Bootery, ask us to show you some of our Spunex silk hose that sold for $1.50, at $1.25 per pair, now on sale. We sold eight pairs of the $1 slippers yesterday. These are broken sizes and old styles at this price, but good quality.

All our new styles at reduced prices, both men's and women's shoes. Arch-Aids and Red Cross Slippers and Oxfords at $7.95 and $8.15; were $10 per pair. Bring your money and get the shoes. No fit, no sale. Boys' shoes, sizes 2 1/2 to 4 1/2, $1.00 per pair. I am going to sell all these at prices you pay for baby shoes—$1.00 per pair. Don't say shoes are awfully high, but awful cheap. When did you ever buy a boy's shoe before in these sizes for $1?

OUT OUR WAY

JAZZING UP THE OLD BABIES

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Sliced bananas with canned apricots, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, scrambled eggs, graham toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Spanish onions stuffed with baked beans, eye bread, spinach salad, jellied oranges, fruit cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Liver savory, baked macaroni, stewed onions, tomato jelly, salad, whole wheat rolls, crisp apple pudding, milk, coffee.

The woman on a farm always has plenty of apples at her disposal, and sometimes grows weary of the eternal paring and cooking of them. The "crisp apple pudding" suggested in the dinner is quite unusual and most delicious. Apples are usually one of the most expensive fruits for the city housewife to buy, so she will welcome the pudding recipe quite as eagerly as her sister in the country.

TRUDIE NOT ENGAGED

NEWARK, N. J.—Trudie Merle has yet to fall in love. Therefore she insists any report that she is engaged to Louis Timson, also a swimmer, is a joke, but it is not on her.

Crisp Apple Pudding

Four to eight apples, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 cup sugar, 3/4 cup flour, 1/2 cup butter. Pare apples, remove cores and cut in thin slices. Put into a well-buttered baking dish and pour over water, cinnamon, lemon juice and grated rind. The dish should be about two-thirds full of apples. Mix and sift flour and sugar and rub in butter with finger tips. Spread over top of apples, and bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes. Serve with plain or whipped cream.

Society Women Quizzed; Result Is Interesting

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 15 (AP)—Betting on the knowledge which the ordinary society and club women has of the world of literature, music, or science is a losing proposition, according to the discovery of a prominent Salem woman who put a group of her friends to the test. Only one woman in the 25 known who H. L. Meekens is and that was because she read the American Mercury magazine in a street car.

The questionnaire presented at a society tea given here several days ago was the result of a previous conversation of the hostess with a man who claimed that the ordinary bridge-playing matron knows little or nothing of present day events. A five dollar bet was made and the champion of the women presented a list of 14 questions at her next tea.

She Paid

Now she is paying up her debt. The Mercury editor, James Branch Cabell and Vachel Lindsay might as well be myths excepting for one or two of the group. A piece of Dresden china exhibited was guessed to be everything from Venetian glass to Sheffield. Only those of the group who are amateur gardeners had ever heard of a 'Callitula.' Not a single one knew that the California Sequoia is the oldest living thing in the world. Four women could give correctly the four parts of an orchestra. Only a few could name the building in Salem which is an example of pure Gothic architecture, and the only person in the group who could correctly tell what kind of a rug covered the floor was a young girl who supports herself.

Check Manipulator Works Eureka, Cal.

EUREKA, Cal., Jan. 15. (AP)—A middle aged man signing the name "J. J. Daly" and "C. E. Frazier" to checks drawn on the Southwestern Bank of Oregon, Marshfield, several days ago, operated in this city. After his departure checks marked "No Account" began to return to this city. He has been traced to Oakland by the sheriff's office here. Daily, alias Frazier, posed as a representative of the "Sinclair Oil company" and said he was purchasing sites for oil service stations.
