Movie Sidelights
By the Associated Press
Every hostess knows how her living room looks after a party. Obtaining this effect for motion pictures is hard on the property men. In production of "Paradise For Two" they had to smoke dozens of cigarettes to get as many butts into the scene of a finished party as the guests would have smoked.

Betty Bronson is filling in the customary waits between scenes by studying French. For the present she finds it easier to respond to her instructor's volubility with gesture and pantomime than in the new language.

A prop in the wings of vaudeville theatres has been adopted for motion picture use. It is the box of rosin upon which dancers wipe their shoes to prevent a tumble. Before walking on a setting that has waxed parquet floors, the players pass the soles of their shoes over the rosin, thus avoiding slapstick falls in the midst of drama.

More than three-quarters of the states have been visited by film companies in search of outdoor backgrounds. Following are just a few in which photoplays have been made in the past three years: Arizona, Utah, Texas, Mississippi, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, New Mexico, Florida, New Jersey, all of the New England states, Pennsylvania, Georgia, West Virginia and Colorado, South Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The desert 28 miles from Needles, Cal., is being used for location, not because of its arid wastes but because of the wide Colorado river which flows through it. An African village has been reproduced on the river banks and plateau and a river steamer, capable of carrying fifty or more persons, was constructed

OFFICE CAT
A woman out west dashed into a burning building and at the risk of death saved nine lives. She grabbed her pet cat and escaped unharmed.

"John, are you sure you can't get this ribbon at any store?"
"I tried them all, dear."
"Good; then I'll trim my hat with it."

"My daughter's music," sighed the mother, "has been a great expense."
"Indeed?" returned the guest; "some neighbor sued you, I suppose?"

OUT FISHIN'
A fellow isn't thinkin' mean
Out fishin';
His thoughts are mostly good and clean
Out fishin'.
He does not knock his fellow-men,
Or harbor any grudges then;
A fellow's at his finest when
Out fishin'.

A fellow's glad to be a friend,
Out fishin';
A helpful hand he'll always lend
Out fishin'.
The brotherhood of rod and line
Ain't sky and stream is always fine;
Men come real close to God's design
Out fishin'.

A fellow isn't plotting schemes,
Out fishin'.
He's only busy with his dreams
Out fishin'.
His livery is a coat of tan,
His creed—to do the best he can;
A fellow's always mostly man,
Out fishin'.

They used to cut up dogs to learn how to operate an auto, but that was when a man was considered worth more than a dog.

The source of the apparently unlimited number of automobiles, expensive and cheap, that appear on the screen has been found. They are rented. More than 45 individually owned "rent" cars are kept on a special lot just outside of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio gate. When a car is to be wrecked in a picture, it is obtained from a second-hand dealer. Rents for special automobiles with drivers range from $25 to $75 a day.

AT THE THEATERS

Mounted Police, Canada Make For Mutuai Fame

Canada has made the Northwest Mounted Police famous but in return the Northwest Mounted Police have also made Canada famous.

Stories of adventure on the ranks of this semi-military and semi-civil body of cavalry have been read with great avidity for many years and these stories have done much to advertise Canada to the outside world.

"Get your man" has always been the slogan of the "Mounties" and has made them the most famous law-enforcing body in the world today.

The organization of the Northwest Mounted Police forms the background of "The Flaming Forest," a Cosmopolitan production directed by Reinhold Barker which will be presented by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer at the Star theater for three days starting Thursday.

Antonio Moreno and Renee Adoree have the featured romantic roles in this picture and are supported by a cast of more than twenty celebrated players, among them Gardner James, Oscar Beregi, Bert Roach, Tom O'Brien, Claire McDowell, and little Mary Jane Irving.

Billy Sullivan Praised By Theater Man
It's an awful thing to say about a regular fellow, who packs in either fist, a kick like a mule's hind leg, but the fact remains that he's as handsome as a Greek god.

His features are clean-cut and regular, although the chin is just a wee mite too strong and determined to make him eligible as a beauty contest entrant—and his body is lithe and muscular, the muscles rippling and flowing beneath the satin skin of the well-conditioned athlete. And he makes love like a cross between Valentino, Navarro, Barrymore, Robert Warwick and Henry, The Eighth! And so, of course, women adore him and flock in droves to see his pictures.

While as for the stronger—who said sex—? Well, there's not a small boy in the land but what looks up to him with a reverent adoration amounting almost to awe. The adolescents copy his clothes and his mannerisms. The men are in him the ideal hero, fearless and resourceful, honorable and strong, asking no odds and seeking none, but facing life always with a smile and head held high.

And there you have the secret

Good Health Depends Upon Good Elimination.
RETENTION of bodily waste in the blood is called a "toxic condition." This often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. Thousands have learned to assist their kidneys by drinking plenty of pure water and the occasional use of a stimulant diuretic. 50,000 users give Doan's signed endorsement. Ask your neighbor!
