Cold Weather Fails to Halt Bridge Parties

Despite the cold weather, which caused many organization meetings and parties to be postponed until a later date, several enjoyable parties took place yesterday afternoon and last night, among them being a dinner party last evening at which Mr. and Mrs. Leola K. Kinzel entertained at their home on Fourth street.

Places were marked for 24 guests and dinner was served at 7:15 o'clock. Pink predominated in the color scheme, bouquets of mapparions being used.

Bridge was the diversion following dinner. Six tables were at play with Mrs. Leo Bouvy making high score among the women players and the men's first prize going to Earl Stearns. Mrs. T. J. Stearns and Norman Freese received the consolation prizes.

Another delightful party was at the home of Mrs. George T. Cochran when she entertained the members of the Thursday Auction Bridge club at luncheon at one o'clock.

Three tables were at play after luncheon with Mrs. Charles Playt making high score.

The club will meet again next Thursday, Jan. 27, when Mrs. Fred Kiddle will be hostess at her home at Island City.

Mrs. Charles Binger was hostess to the members of the Alpha club and a few guests yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock at her home on Cedar street.

Twenty guests were seated around five small tables, where bridge was enjoyed following luncheon. Spring flowers in the pastel colors were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. Adolph Siegrist made high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. Gilbert Hunter.

The Swastika Bridge club met last night when Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Williamson were host and hostess at their home on Oak street.

Three tables of bridge was the diversion of the evening with first prize among the women players going to Mrs. Lester Allen. Herbert Pattison made high score among the men and the guest prize went to Miss Mae Stearns.

A pastel color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the rooms in bouquets of sweetpeas. The hostess served a two-course luncheon after the card games, after which music and dancing was enjoyed.

The club will meet again Feb. 3, when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry will entertain.

Hostess at Two Bridge Parties

Mrs. E. L. Pearch was hostess at two attractive parties on Thursday and Friday afternoons of last week.

On Thursday afternoon she entertained the members of the Lucky Thirteen club and a few additional guests and on Friday five tables of friends assembled at her home to play bridge.

Mrs. W. G. Sawyer won the club prize on Thursday afternoon and the guest prize to Mrs. W. C. Froman. Mrs. B. R. Tanner received the consolation prize.

Mrs. H. E. Dixon was first prize winner on Friday afternoon and low score fell to Mrs. Colon H. Eberhard.

Luncheon, at 1:15 o'clock, preceded the card games on both days. Roses served as centerpieces for the luncheon tables. Mixed bouquets of the seasons flowers were used in other parts of the rooms.

Miss Elizabeth Payton was hostess to the members of B. B. club last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Payton. Eight girls were present and the evening was enjoyed at games, dancing and music.

The hostess served a two-course luncheon later in the evening.

Those present were Misses Vallette Harre, Louise Salisbury, Eldora Hansen, Eva Itzges, Mae and Ella Dean, Florence Maistrom and Elizabeth Payton.

Three tables of bridge were at play yesterday afternoon when Mrs. E. C. Coughenower was hostess to the N. B. B. club. Mrs. Ethel Smith was first prize winner and the second prize went to Mrs. Ernest Waldon. Mrs. Grace Aldskin received the guest prize.

Cyclamen plants were used to decorate the rooms of the hostess's home. After the card games a two-course luncheon was served.

The club will meet next Thursday, Jan. 27, at the home of Mrs. Mat Coalwell.

Postpone Many Social Affairs

The meeting of the American home department of the Neighborhood club scheduled to meet yesterday afternoon in the Neighborhood club rooms was postponed because of the cold weather.

The next meeting of the department will be Thursday, Feb. 17, when Dr. Margaret Ingles program on "The Relation of Nutrition to Mental Development," to be given yesterday will be combined with a program on "Modern Science in the Home," of which Mrs. E. Rosenbaum is chairman.

The meeting of the Mission study class of the First Presbyterian church was also postponed from yesterday afternoon until next Thursday, when it will meet at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Busby.

The Campfire girl convocation was postponed and will not be until the regular convocation meeting in February.

The next meeting of Saung-taha group however will be next Thursday, Jan. 27, when the girls will meet to work on head bands.

Announcements

There will be a banquet at Eagles hall this evening for all Moose lodge members and their families, beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

The Pythian Sisters will meet for a sociable this evening at the K. P. hall.

The Adlibitum Pinochle club will meet tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cleavinger on Third street.

AGE LIMIT FOR MEDALS

PARIS (AP)—Those literary or artistically inclined ladies who aspire to wear the little medal of the French order or public instruction, commonly known as the "Palme", will have to admit being 35 years or over before their claims can be examined. This decision was made by M. Herriot, minister of education, who found that the number of decorations at his disposal was far inadequate to the demands.

Hitherto the medal, replaced with street dress by a little strip of violet ribbon, has been rather freely distributed. Coming just under the Legion of Honor in the hierarchy of the Republic, the "Palme" Academique's mark of success has been highly coveted.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Shredded prunes, cereal, thin cream, creamed salt codfish on toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Scalloped oysters, eye bread, fruit salad, date bars, milk, tea.

DINNER—Stuffed pork tenderloins, scalloped potatoes, buttered canned lima beans, apple-celery nut salad, raisin pie, bean rolls, milk, coffee.

Although we always think of pork as being a fat meat, the tenderloin is so "lean" that extra fat must be used in cooking it. Two pieces of tenderloin are cut lengthwise, deep enough to open and flatten with a meat cleaver. They are placed one above the other with a rich bread stuffing between, and securely tied with cord. The roll is brushed over with melted butter and roasted in a hot oven in a tightly covered casserole. Do not add water.

Date Bars

One pound dates, 1 cup nut meats, 1 cup flour, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 4 eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Remove stones from dates and put dates and nuts through food chopper. Mix and sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Combine half of this mixture with the nuts and dates. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon-colored. Add remaining dry ingredients and melted butter. Mix thoroughly and add nut mixture. Fold in whites or eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Add vanilla and turn into a well-oiled and floured square pan. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Cut in oblong-shaped pieces and roll in powdered sugar.

These bars can also be served with whipped cream, pudding fashion, and are delicious for afternoon tea.

Bend Chorus Will Have 50 Voices

BEND, Ore., Jan. 21—With 31 persons present, organization of the Bend Orpheus club took place at a meeting recently in the union high school when officers were named for the coming year and plans were outlined for the presentation of several concerts in this season.

R. L. Fromme, who has won recognition as a leader of singing and as an entertainer since he came to Bend from Olympia, Wash., as supervisor of the Dechutes national forest, was elected president of the reorganized club. Mrs. R. S. Dart was named secretary. Other officers are R. S. McClure, vice president; Mrs. John Dubuis, librarian, and C. T. Terrill, treasurer.

MADAME CURIE DRAWS VERY SMALL SALARY

Madame Curie, world famous discoverer of radium, gets only a second class professor's salary of $125 a month at the Sorbonne. The most highly paid educators in French universities, and there are only about 30 such in all France—receive only $15 a month more. These facts were cited by Prof. Paul Petit, dean of the Nancy University faculty, in support of his statement that higher education in France is on a regrettably basis that threatens its future.

BAKER BANQUET SET FOR FEB. 7

Preparations Made to Seat 500 at Annual Chamber Dinner

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 21—Preparations for the annual chamber of commerce banquet and election of officers to be given in the high school gymnasium Feb. 7, has been started and the services of William Moore, veteran banqueter, have been secured to arrange for the banquet.

The program this year will feature the agricultural and lumbering industries of Baker county. Letters have been sent to prominent speakers in the state asking them to appear on the program. A pep program has been promised and music and stunts are being arranged for to fulfill the prediction that the affair will be "bigger and better than ever."

The committee in charge of the banquet calculate that 500 will attend the meeting and because of the limited space it has been requested that reservations be made as soon as possible. Because of the congested condition in the gymnasium last year no more than 500 people will be admitted.

I am just about too busy to put in an ad this morning. The drivers are sitting in by the fire trying to keep the stove warm but that is not our fault—you cannot see the desk for the orders. Coal is selling like a river running down hill. We are out of lump coal but we are expecting a car any minute and another car on the road besides that. But don't forget we still have Royal lump coal at $10.50 per ton. We received word from Mr. Pratt last night that he is starting home today but I don't suppose he will be here till Monday morning, then you can talk to the big fat man again. I can't think of anything to say—I don't run quite like machinery, so good-bye for today.
