E. O. Chapter Pays Tribute To Founders

After I of P. E. O. observed their day yesterday afternoon the members met at the home of Mrs. Chester Bidwell at 11 City with Mrs. Iola Blodgett as assistant hostess.

An old-fashioned program was put out in a most interesting way by Mrs. George Curry, chairman for the afternoon and her committee. The program in the program, which with a colonial wedding, old-time costumes.

During the afternoon Mrs. G. S. sang an appropriate solo Mrs. A. V. Lindgren and Mrs. Dutton sang a duet, "Ruben Rachel," accompanied by Miss Miller at the piano.

Harriet McDonald played selections of old-time music, being her father's favorite. She wore a gown which she wore when she was 16 years old.

The program closed with a singing of the bride, accompanied by Miss Gladys Miller at the piano.

The rooms of the Bidwell home were appropriately decorated with old-fashioned tildes playing a prominent part. Old-fashioned photographs were also brought along with albums and things.

Appropriate refreshments were served consisting of the bride's marble cake and punch.

Luncheon was enjoyed following the card games.

Mrs. Fred Spoth entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon Bridge club and one table of guests yesterday afternoon at her home on Second street, at a luncheon at 1:15 o'clock.

During the afternoon's games Mrs. Harry Lovey made high score among the club members and the second prize went to Mrs. Charles Beedingfield. Mrs. J. O'Connell received the guest prize.

Bouquets of sweet peas in pink and lavender were used to decorate the luncheon tables and were arranged about other parts of the rooms.

Mrs. Charles Wale will be the next hostess to the club on Friday, Feb. 4.

The Valencia Bridge club met last night with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ledbetter as host and hostess at their home on Adams avenue.

Three tables were at play during the evening and the women's first prize went to Mrs. Blake Shields. Nolan Skiff made high score among the men. The consolation prizes went to Mrs. Nolan Skiff and Carl Dallas.

After the card games the hostess served a two-course luncheon. The club will meet again Feb. 4, when Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keown will entertain at their home at 603 Washington avenue.

Mrs. Pennington Hostess to Club

Although not many were present because of the cold weather the Women's society of the First Baptist church had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Pennington on Main avenue.

Mrs. William Shadle, president, presided over the short business session, after which Mrs. George A. Pollard led in the afternoon's program. The lesson was taken from the log being used in the imaginary trip around the world in the ship "Evangeli," and was very interesting.

Following the program Mrs. Pennington served luncheon.

Instead of a luncheon at the church on Wednesday afternoon the members of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will entertain Dr. Maudie Allen at a tea at the home of Mrs. A. T. Hill, on first street.

Dr. Maudie Allen is a medical missionary from India, where she has been working for the past 22 years. While in La Grande she will be the house guest of Mrs. P. Mossman.

The Westminster society of the church has been invited to meet with the missionary society on Wednesday to hear Dr. Allen.

Because of the cold weather the sociable planned for the Pythian Sisters last evening at the K. P. hall was postponed.

P.-T. Association Views Playlet

Tapingo campfire girl group furnished an interesting program for yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Riveria Parent-Teacher association.

A short business session preceded the program which started with a playlet by the girls of the campfire entitled "Every Girl." Piano solos, a duet number, a violin solo, a dance and several readings made up the remainder of the program.

Miss Francis Reharis and Valerie Harper played piano solos; Helen Rostock and Marie Floberg played a duet; Gertrude Conrad played a violin solo and Thelma Irvin gave a solo dance. Readings were given by Vivian Hilyard, Elmitra Shirley and Catherine Humphreys.

The parent-teacher committee in charge served refreshments, following the program.

The association president, Mrs. George M. Pierce, announced a picnic sociable and program for Feb. 22, to be given by the organization.

Mrs. J. K. Charlton, vice president, presided over yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Greenwood Parent-Teacher association in the absence of the president, Mrs. C. J. Metherson, whose home is quarantined because of scarlet fever.

The Rev. G. A. Pollard led in the opening prayer after which little Norman Allen, who has been in school just one week, and will

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Chilled apple sauce, cereal, thin cream, broiled cottage ham, cornmeal pancakes, syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Brussels sprouts au gratin, graham rolls, prune pie, milk, tea.

DINNER—Noodle soup, cold sliced roast veal, peach sauce, baked spaghetti in tomato sauce, stuffed celery salad, fudge cake, canned pears, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The prune pie suggested in the luncheon menu supplies the necessary protein. If preferred, a plain baked custard can be substituted, although the prunes furnish valuable nutrients as well as a pleasant contrast in flavor with the Brussels sprouts.

Brussels Sprouts Au Gratin
 One pint brussels sprouts, 2 coarse blades celery, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, buttered crumbs.

Wash and look over sprouts. Cook in boiling water until tender but not mushy. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt when sprouts have cooked fifteen minutes and do not cover sauce pan while cooking. Melt butter and add celery finely chopped. Cover sauce pan and cook over a low fire until celery is tender. Stir in butter and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and cook until thick and smooth. Drain sprouts if necessary and place in a buttered baking dish. Pour over sauce, sprinkle with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderately hot oven until crumbs are brown and sauce bubbles up. Serve from baking dish. (Copyright, 1927, NEA Service, Inc.)

he six years old, sang a solo to show what he had accomplished during his first week of school.

Mr. Pollard was the speaker of the afternoon and he gave an interesting talk about the child and the adult. He divided life into groups, the first 12 years being infancy and childhood, the second 12 years, adolescence, and the next three dozen years, maturity and the next 12 decline.

He discussed the manner in which a child should be treated, saying that the child and adult were two separate and distinct persons.

During the short business session Miss Esther Phelps' room was awarded the picture for the largest number of parents in attendance. Miss Phelps' room has had the picture, with the exception of the first month, since the beginning of school in the fall. The parents of the children in her room are apparently unusually interested in the work of the organization.

WOMAN CIRCUIT JUDGE ON BENCH IN CHICAGO

Miss Mary Bartelme of Chicago is a circuit judge. She had practiced law for several years when she was appointed public guardian of Cook county in 1897 and served in this position for 17 years. Circuit judges, seeing the need for a woman in the juvenile court, appointed her an assistant and she was elected to a full judgeship in 1923. She has been a pioneer in movements to aid girls and children.

BETTER LITERATURE BY BACHELOR WOMEN

Unmarried women write the best literature, thinks Miss Frances Newman, author of "The Hard Boiled Virgin." Miss Newman points out that many women who have won literary fame have been spinsters or widows. "One reason married women don't write well is because they are afraid of their husbands," Miss Newman suggests. "A woman fears rebuke from her husband more than anything else, and, accordingly, the married woman is afraid to express her innermost thoughts."
