MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed dried apricots, cooked wheat cereal, thin cream, creamed fresh beef on toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of spinach soup with spinach balls, corn fritters, strap, chilled apple sauce, "brownies," milk, tea.

DINNER—Rolled broast of veal in rice border, buttered carrots and peas, salad chiffonade, rice bread, fruit cup puddings, milk, coffee.

Corn fritters are almost as good made from canned corn as from fresh and the fritters themselves are more appealing on a cold winter day than a hot August one. To insure the corn being its best, open can, turn corn into a china or earthen bowl and let stand an hour before using.

Corn Fritters
One can corn, 1-1/2 cups flour, 2 teaspoon powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 cup milk, 2 eggs.

Mix and sift flour, salt, sugar and baking powder and add to corn. Add milk and yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon colored. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Drop from tip of spoon into deep hot fat. Cook until a golden brown. Drain on brown paper and serve with syrup.

If thermometer is used, the fat should be 275 degrees Fahrenheit. If a thermometer is not at hand an inch cube of bread from the soft part of the loaf should brown in 99 seconds when dropped into the hot fat.

OFFICE OF SHERIFF FOR WOMAN IN KANSAS
Mrs. Frank Chase, Quaker mother is the new sheriff of Kiowa county, Kansas. Mrs. Chase succeeded her husband, a third term not re-elected for a third term on account of a statutory limitation. Her husband's record as sheriff was one of her campaign planks, and a pledge for strict enforcement of the state prohibition law was another. A Democrat in a normally Republican county, she won the election by a large majority. Upon taking office she appointed her husband, under sheriff.

WOMAN HOUSE MEMBER WAIVES SALUTATION
Members of Wisconsin's general assembly need not say "Lady and Gentlemen" when they address the house. The only woman member of the body, Representative Helen Thompson, has insisted that she will not feel slighted if her colleagues address the house as "gentlemen". Miss Thompson enjoys pinocchio, whist and bridge next to legislating and teaching school but warns members of the house that they need not try to inveigle her into poker games.

TRENTON, N. J.—Miss Helen M. Clark, who, when discharged as a school teacher in Secaucus, was accused of smoking after school hours, has lost an appeal to the state supreme court. The case was decided on technical grounds without discussion of smoking.

A REPORTER'S WAIL
I'd liked to have been a reporter in the days of Noah's Ark. Or when Jonah rode in the Captain's room.

"Mishap of a Pullman shark!" I'd liked to have worked assignments in the days when Israel, free, Walked dry through the waters all piled up. By the wind in the old Red sea.

I'd liked to have worked on the story: When Joshua stood on a hill, And stretching his arm, with a single word He commanded the sun stand still!

And how I'd have loved to ferret The story of Moses out— To locate those very lullabies, and remove all question of doubt!

Why couldn't I have been working: When Gomorrah and Sodom fell! That story of Lot's wife turned to salt— What a wonderful tale to tell! And the General's Army, circling The city, their ranshorn's blown— Footing a tune till the walls fell down

To the last dog-gasted stone! My life has been spent in seeking The stuff that is news, but I Was out of the picture when Habel rose

With its peak in the cloudy sky! Why is it that one so eager Was foiled by the pranks of Fate? All of these stories were pie for me, And I.....too late!

"How did you happen to pay that lunch check?" asked the wife of the one who had lunched with her and a downtown business associate.

"I didn't intend to, but when we went to the cashier's desk he just out-fumbled me. That's all."

"How's the handsome new jail coming along?" "Fine," answered Cactus Joe. "It's got a waiting list."

What Is a Diuretic?

People Are Learning the Value of Occasional Use.

EVERYONE knows that a laxative stimulates the bowels. A diuretic performs a similar function to the kidneys. Under the strain of our modern life, our organs are apt to become sluggish and require assistance. More and more people are learning to use Doan's Pills, occasionally, to insure good elimination which is so essential to good health. More than 50,000 grateful users have given Doan's signed recommendations. Scarcely a community but has its representation. Ask your neighbor!

AT THE THEATERS

Revealing the secret of woman's age old influence over men, Fox Films latest feature, "Womanpower" is being shown today and Thursday at the Arcade theater.

"Womanpower" is a picture that hits home for it shows to what a tremendous extent the fairer sex can influence the lives of men.

Cast in the role of Johnny White Bronley, Ralph Graves, portrays the young man who missed the womanpower of good in his youth because his mother died in childhood. The first woman whose influence comes to bear upon him, is Dot, a nightclub queen, played by Margaret Livingston. Her power is wholly evil and she leads him down to spiritual bankruptcy.

Then comes Jenny Killian, splendidly portrayed by Kathlyn Perry, who uses her womanpower to help him recover his spiritual manhood. This is an exceptionally well-played melodrama that not only inflates a lesson by which every one can profit, but it is also a very fine entertainment. The characterization is very strong as are the scenes as they include such varied types as the wealthy men-about-town, wild-dizzers, prizefighters and the kindly folk of every day life.

Ben Stollhoff, creator of nineteen other Fox Film successes, directed the production from a scenario by John Stone, who has written most of his Western dramas. It will show at the Star theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Stone accompanied Stollhoff to Yellowstone National park, where scenes for the production were made. Later they toured the "hot cities" of the West as the deserted mining towns are now called to determine just the proper settings for the final scenes.

"I hear you broke your engagement with Tom—what was the matter?" "Why, he wanted to get married."

"The revival meetings at Wigwag hall have closed. Elmer Weis arrived home from the Grande Ronde hospital Sunday. His condition is much improved.

Mrs. T. M. Ruckman has been ill at her home here.

Mrs. W. W. Smith and sons went to La Grande Saturday night to visit Mr. Smith.

Vera Reynolds In Picture At Sherrys

Not since her appearance in "Feet of Clay," which brought her into prominence, has Vera Reynolds had such a wide variety of roles since she became a Cecil B. DeMille player.

In "Without Mercy" she was compelled to dive from a large ship and swim ashore at night. In "The Road to Yesterday," she encountered many new phases of motion picture activity which were new to her—and which she mastered.

Now comes the stellar role in "The Million Dollar Handicap," at Sherrys theater wherein Miss Reynolds rides one of the most thrilling races ever shown on the screen.

For many days prior to her starting on the production, Miss Reynolds could be seen in her riding habit seated on a spirited horadashing along the Beverly Hills bridge path and other courses taken by film folks who are learning to ride as well as by those who already have mastered the art.

In "The Million Dollar Handicap," Miss Reynolds finds herself in mighty fast company, so far as jockeys are concerned, but due to her freshness and knowing her mounts, managed to ride and win.

Edmund Burns, Ralph Lewis, Crane and Clarence Burton appear in support of Miss Reynolds.

CRITICAL AUDIENCES STILL JUDGE ARTISTS
Operatic and concert audiences are just as meticulous as ever despite their acceptance of a school of youthful artists, says Frieda Hempel, on a tour of Dixie.

"Even though an artist is accepted, one finds it increasingly difficult to keep one's name before the public. There are so many more interests to diversify our attention than when I came on the stage—motion pictures, vaudeville, revues, more interesting newspapers and magazines and what not."
