AT THE THEATERS

Tom Mix Thrills In Film of The West

For sheer excitement, thrills and suspense, Fox Films "Canyon of Light," the feature picture which is showing today, Friday and Saturday at the Star theater will be hard to surpass. With Tom Mix in the star role and Dorothy Dwan in the feminine lead, plus a fine cast and an absorbing story and with Tony, the wonder horse, playing a prominent part, this is one Western that is sure to please every type of theater patron. Add to this the wild beauty of the backgrounds, for this picture was filmed in Yellowstone National park, and the result is an entertainment long to be remembered. The comedy showing is "Pathing Suits."

Tom Tyler in "Arizona Streak" At Sherrys

Tom Tyler, his horse, his dog and his little pal are a quartet not easily forgotten by those who have seen them. The strapping young western star and his associates are wrapping themselves around the hearts of the picture public as tightly as an old maid would entangle a wealthy bachelor. "The Arizona Streak," at Sherrys, the most recent F. B. O. production featuring the four. And "Your Gang" as they are rapidly coming to be known, are at their best in this rapid-fire comedy melodrama written especially for the latest F. B. O. luminary by P. A. E. Pine. Mr. Pine's contribution to celluloid literature his speed, power, freshness and more than a flash of humor. It has been cleverly adapted to the screen by Lanier Bartlett. Robert De Lacey once more evinces the fact that he is a director with real ability, and the cast in all respects lives up to what might be expected of it. Comedy showing, "Madam Sans-Gene."

Picturization of Belasco Success Coming Here

Of more than passing interest to local playgoers will be the premiere at the Arcade theater on Friday of Fox Films version "The Return of Peter Grimm," Victor Seltzer's production, with Alec B. Francis, noted character actor, in the name part. This is the picturized presentation of the stage drama in which David Warfield scored one of the greatest successes of his interesting career. Janet Gaynor appears in the leading feminine role, Catherine, ward of Peter. Richard Walling, considered one of the greatest "finds" of the past year in picturing, delineates the role of Peter's young gardener. Together these two fascinating young players provide the romantic element of the production.

WESTERN STUFF

This Alkali Al and his fearless pal—New Mexico Pete, by name—Are riders as bold as the stories told—Of a West that is far from tame.

You may picture the two as a reckless crew
Out yonder where men are scarce
You may fancy the twain on a rolling plain
Each wearing his chaps and gat.
All hooded and spurred, but upon my word,
They are never a bit like that.

On their pinto steeds, where the tumbleweeds
Blow over the prairie wide,
You may think they dash, but, at least,
Though they're rash,
They are riders bold as the knights of old
(As an earlier stanza blabbed),
But their riding's done and their wages won
In Los Angeles town.

Burglars in a Chicago warehouse betrayed their presence to the watchman by sneezing. It is thought they had kept so cool that they had caught cold.

Gentleman Jim was polite to the last. He even offered his chair to the warden when he was about to be electrocuted.

Don't—So you made up your quarrel with Tom?
Doris—Yes, but only temporarily. We're getting married next month.

Gladys—No, my mother objects to kissing.
Bill—But I didn't ask to kiss your mother.

Flapper: Ma, is it windy out?
Mother: No, it's perfectly still.
Flapper: Then I'll not roll my stockings today.

Marriage is a great institution, alright; but who wants to live in an institution?

One La Grande man speaks of her as his late wife, because she's always late for the show or reception.

AN APPEAL

Though my line may seem distressing,
Girls, I am not a prude,
But the manner of your dressing,
(Dear, you're going nearly nude)
Is to me far from appealing.
While it charms a lot of guys,
For I find it all-revealing,
And I would not be too wise.

Though I hear you loudly snicker,
As you give poor me the laugh,
I am not averse to liquor
And I like a shapely calf,
But, despite the indignation
I am feeling in each glance,
Bears, I have imagination,
Won't you let it have a chance?

A man rents a pew in a church because it is the proper thing to do, and then tries to get a pass to the theater because he wants to go.

When a man has nothing but a poodle dog and a canary bird in his house, he has no business calling his wife mother.

Sweet Young Thing—"Why are you running that steam roller thing over that field?"
Farmer—"I'm going to raise mashed potatoes this year."

"Lend me an ear," the speaker said.
In quite resounding tone,
"Why should we?" someone questioned him.
"You've got two of your own."

"Is football your favorite game?"
"No, quail on toast is mine; what's yours?"
