Dr. and Mrs. Ingle Entertain Clio Club Members

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Ingle entertained the members of the Clio club Thursday evening at their home on Washington avenue.

Bridge was the diversion and Mrs. E. L. Hinton made high score among the women. The men's prize went to Hal Bohnenkamp.

Carnations were the flowers used to decorate the rooms. After the card games refreshments were served.

The Valencia Bridge club was entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Skiff on Oak street.

Four teams were at play with high scores among the women going to Mrs. John Stewart and the men's prize to Everett Keweenaw. Consolation prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dalas.

A two-course luncheon was served at a late hour, carrying out the motif of Washington's birthday.

UNION (Special).—Members of the Lafatol club met Monday afternoon at the Union hotel for a 1:15 o'clock luncheon. It was a no-business affair and after luncheon, bridge was the diversion in the living room of the hotel for the remainder of the afternoon.

P. T. Association Honors Founders

The Riveria Parent-Teacher association met Friday afternoon at the school with a large attendance. The association president, Mrs. George Pierce, presided over the business meeting, during which time it was voted to buy a piano for the chapel. The Tappington campfire girls pledged $5 toward the piano fund.

Monday evening, Feb. 21, was the date set for a picnic to be held in the chapel. There will be a program and refreshments.

Mrs. Camp's room received the picture for having the most parents present. Last month Mrs. Patten's room received the picture.

After the business session an interesting program was enjoyed as follows: talk on Abraham Lincoln, George Courtney; violin solo, Ernest Briggs; talk on Abraham Lincoln, Lily Blaha; recitation, "The So Splendid to Live so Grandly," Dorothy Pierce; "Good Old Time," Melba Shepherd; "George Washington," Edward Nibarger.

Following this the meeting was turned over to Mrs. L. Paul, who talked on the history of the Parent-Teacher association. Her meaning, worth and growth. Mrs. George Pierce gave the parent's creed, after which Mrs. Louis W. Zell gave a talk on "What Parents-Teachers Mean to the Parent."

Mrs. Camp followed with a paper on "What Parents-Teachers Mean to the Teacher."

A large birthday cake with 31 lighted candles was then exhibited, the day being the thirtieth anniversary of Founder's day of the parent-teacher association. One large candle in the center of the cake was lighted in memory of the founders of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Alice McCallan Birnie, and Phoebe A. Hearst. The cake was large enough to serve 40 people.

In spite of the rain Thursday the girls of the Songetaha campfire girl group gathered at the home of Mrs. G. S. Birnie for a hike.

After struggling through mud ankle deep the girls finally reached Cougar pond, where they decided to turn back.

Although the purpose of the hike, which was to sketch trees and take pictures, was defeated the girls declared they would have enjoyed the hike had it not been for cleaning boots upon their arrival home.

The next meeting of the group will be Wednesday, Feb. 23, at the domestic science building of the high school. Plans were made for winning honors at that time.

KAMELA (Special).—A valentine costume party was given by the parent-teacher association of Kamela last Saturday evening. The hall was prettily decorated in red and white, and the evening was spent dancing. The opening of a valentine box caused considerable merriment.

Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

P. E. O. Entertained By Mrs. G. S. Birnie

Chapter I of P. E. O. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George S. Birnie on Fourth street. After the business session two interesting papers were given by Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp and Mrs. Stanchfield, reviewing articles in the January issue of the Atlantic Monthly.

Following the program the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. F. B. Applegate and Mrs. E. L. Holmes, served refreshments.

The first meeting of the Westway club, the newly organized social auxiliary of the Woman's Benefit association, was held at the home of Mrs. Irvin Bramwell, 1503 1/2 M avenue, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with 23 members and one visitor present.

During the business meeting Mrs. Ethel Smith was elected as secretary to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Florence Green.

A sociable was enjoyed and refreshments were served by a volunteer committee before adjournment.

The next meeting of the club will be Friday evening, March 4, at the home of Mrs. Gertrude McVey, 1507 Sixth street.

About 30 Neighbors of Woodcraft met at the home of Mrs. Walter Parker Thursday afternoon and spent the time at needlework and visiting.

Before adjournment refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Thomas Short, Mrs. W. L. DeVine and Mrs. Ada Clark.

UNION (Special).—Fourteen members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union enjoyed an interesting program, Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Pursel in North Union.

The afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Belle M. Wright and Mrs. D. H. Crouter. Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Mattox each read a paper on the work of the W. C. T. U.

During a sociable following the program refreshments were served.

UNION (Special).—The Aid society of the Presbyterian church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Cross with Mrs. Craver assisting as hostess.

During the regular routine of business the secretary was instructed to write a letter in behalf of the society to the minister's wife, Mrs. Arthur L. Dickinson, who is ill at the Grande Ronde hospital, also one to Mrs. Emmell, a member of the society, who is ill at her home here.

Following the business meeting the remainder of the afternoon was spent visiting. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MISS MORHOUS FIGHTS FOR WOMEN'S MEASURES

Miss Bess M. Morhous, legislative representative and field secretary of the New York State League of Women Voters, has the formidable task of convincing a majority of 61 state senators and 150 assemblymen in Albany that the seven planks of her organization should be incorporated into law.

Miss Morhous was engaged in welfare and women's work in the South and in Rhode Island before going to Albany. The seven measures for which she is fighting are the Sheppard-Towner act for the care of mothers, a 48 hour week for working women, jury service for women, prohibition enforcement legislation, raising the marriageable age of girls from 14 to 16 years, restoration of the direct primary for state officers and extension of registration time for city voters.

PROHIBITION WORKER PRAISED BY ANDREWS

Mrs. Adrianna Hungerford, recently honored by Gen. Lincoln Andrews, prohibition administrator of the United States, who expressed a desire to have her become a member of his staff, is one of the outstanding prohibition workers of Colorado. President of the W. C. T. U. since 1904, Mrs. Hungerford was a leader in the move to place Colorado in the list of dry states in the campaign of 1914. Since prohibition was voted, she has been to the front constantly in opposition to moves made to modify the law. In the 1926 election her efforts and those of her organization were active in defeat of a "beer and light wine" referendum.

BREAKFAST—Winter pears, cereal, thin cream, scrambled eggs with fried dried beef, corn bread, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of onion soup, oysters, sweet potato and pineapple salad, whole wheat bread, steamed fig pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked halibut steaks with dressing, shoestring potatoes, dandelion greens with bacon dressing, caramel nut custard, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

After making the caramel and spreading it evenly over the baking dish, sprinkle chopped nuts evenly over the caramel. Then add the custard mixture and bake as usual. The nuts absorb some of the caramel and have an unusual and delicious taste. The dessert must of course be served very cold.

Steamed Fig Pudding

Three-fourths cup chopped figs, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg, 1/4 cup milk, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Five or six figs are put through the food chopper and thoroughly mixed with 2 tablespoons sifted flour. Cream butter and gradually beat in sugar. Add one or two tablespoons sifted flour, beating to keep mixture perfectly smooth. Add egg well beaten. Mix and sift remaining flour with salt and bak-
