HINT FOR MEN

NEW YORK.—The latest sartorial mode for eligible men is a big light grey, is a salmon pink shirt. One was worn by the Marquis de Queensberry at the Maloney-Delaney fight. The radio announcer said it was red. The identification of the grandson of the famous boxing authority pleased the gallery gods when his Prince of Wales smile beamed from the ring. "Much luck old top," he said to Maloney with a hearty handshake. Since the marquis is an Irishman, he was highly pleased by the decision.

Reykjavik, capital of Iceland, will be heated by hot water from nearby hot springs if plans of the prime minister materialize.

Pastor Denounces Scandal Mongers

LONDON, Feb. 19 (AP)—Scandal mongers, by name, are to be denounced from the pulpit by the Rev. T. P. Stevens, vicar of St. Matthew's church, New Kent road. Police men are not concerned with petty gossip spreaders, says the minister, who has conceived this scheme of dealing with persons of a spiteful nature.

"The female scandal monger of South London is the counterpart of the male grumbler who has no healthy thoughts, and therefore resorts to the easiest form of conversation—fault finding," writes the vicar in his parish magazine.

"The female species is the same type. She chatters empty stupidity and does harm in that way. The thing for the vicar to do is to ignore her, but if she really does harm and attracts young people from the church, she must be prevented from the pulpit or reported to the bishop."

WINNINGS

The ministerial association will meet at 10 a. m. Monday at the Baptist church.

The rector of the Episcopal church has announced a series of sermons and addresses for the pre-Easter services. On Sunday mornings a course on "Power of The Ghost in The Church" and on Sunday evenings a course on the "Miracles of Our Lord" will be given.

Concerning the Bible, the Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor of the South M. E. church, has this to say: "The only way to know God is to study His word; and the more we study it the more anxious we are to study it, and to know His will."

The Central Church of Christ has a Bible class—"Everyman's Bible Class"—will finish the study of the trial of Jesus Sunday morning.

The third class in divine healing began last Sunday at the Episcopal church. This will be the last class until the fall and all who wish to take up the study of this important phase of church life are asked to re-enroll next Sunday. No admissions will be allowed after that date, according to the rector, the Rev. Oliver Riley.

The adult Bible class at the Lutheran church will resume its work again Sunday under the leadership of Orville Webster.

Evangelistic services at the Nazarene church are progressing successfully. It is reported, Thursday night almost every seat in the new church at the corner of Y and Birch was filled.

A special song program has been arranged for the Sunday night service at the First M. E. church, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Summer School To Be Held at Cove Next June

Dedication of Church Is Dated

WALLA WALLA, Feb. 19.—Formal dedication of the new Christian church of Walla Walla will be Easter Sunday, April 17, according to official action taken by the congregation last Sunday morning.

An elaborate program of dedication exercises is being arranged by the architect and his board and members of the congregation.

The new church building is so nearly finished now that the official board and congregation were unanimous in setting the date as stated above. Extensive plans will be made by the pastor and church in making the Dedication Day a great and memorable occasion.

Ministers Ban Sunday Funerals

LOVELAND, Colo. Feb. 19 (AP)—There will be no funerals conducted on Sunday in this city. The city fathers have passed an ordinance prohibiting them and the Ministerial Alliance of Loveland has commended the council for its action. There has never been a Sunday funeral here, but the council became fearful that someone might take a notion to conduct one.
