Miss O'Day Is Honor Guest at Bridge Parties

Miss Margaret O'Day, of Portland, who is visiting here at the home of her cousin, Mrs. William Pearce, has been the inspiration for two attractive parties during the week.

Last night she was guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. H. M. Turner, when three tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. Melvin Larson made high score at cards, and the guest prize went to Miss O'Day. Consolation was won by Mrs. William Pearce.

The decorations were appropriate for Washington's birthday, red and white sweet peas being used.

Luncheon was served following the games.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Pearce was hostess in honor of Miss O'Day at three tables of bridge, with Mrs. James McNamee winning first prize, and the guest prize going to Miss O'Day.

A red and white color scheme, carrying out the idea of St. Valentine's day, was used. At an appropriate hour the hostess served luncheon.

Miss O'Day will probably be here for a week longer before she returns to her home in Portland.

wards, Nolan Headen, Elvin King and Harry Karns.

The Pythian Sisters met at the Knights of Pythias hall Friday evening for a social, following the regular lodge session.

Four tables of bridge were at play and high score among the women went to Mrs. W. A. Moss. Jack McCarthy received the men's prize, and the consolation prize fell to Mrs. A. B. Shannon.

The committee in charge served refreshments before adjournment.

Mrs. P. A. Charleston, of Forest Grove, was a visiting member.

Women's Society Victor in Debate

The Woman's society of the First Baptist church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Shade for a debate with the World Wide guild of the church on the subject, "Resolved, that the rural church has more to consider for the future of America's Christianity than the city church."

Members of the women's society, representing the city church, won the debate.

Five members of the guild and 15 women were present. Mrs. William Shade, president of the society, presided over the meeting, and Mrs. W. P. McAdory led in the debate.

During the business meeting plans were completed for the dinner to be served by the Women's society Friday evening in the basement of the church. Mrs. W. L. Devine is general chairman in charge.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments.

Members of the Osoho campfire girl group met Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Barbara Piddcock from where they started on a hike for the purpose of studying trees. An interesting hour was spent after which they returned to the Piddcock home, where refreshments were served.

An outdoors girl? Yes, but she'd pass indoors, too. She is Carol Woods of San Diego, Calif., recently chosen as the "typical Girl Reserve."

LAW OFFERS WOMEN ABSORBING VOCATION

A woman lawyer of nearly ten years' experience, whose father, grandfather and great grandfather were members of the profession, believes the law offers women a "wonderfully absorbing vocation," in which chances for success are not prejudiced by sex.

Miss Esther Phillips, an assistant United States attorney in San Francisco, is the fourth generation representative of a family of lawyers. "Hostility in the profession against the femi-ne gender has long since ceased to exist," she declared.

"There would be more lawyers and know that no phase of legal practice is dull, that there is as much variety and thrill in a law career as there is on the stage or any kind of business," she said.

It is a mistake for the youth of this country to go to Europe for musical training, Madame Schumann-Heink told friends in Dixie. She believes there are better facilities for training in America.

Royal Neighbors Plan Convention

An adjourned meeting of the Royal Neighbors' lodge was held last night at the home of the oracle, Mrs. Currie Eaton, when the date for a district convention of the lodge to be held here was decided upon.

The convention will be May 21, and delegates will be here from all over the district, which includes Baker, Umatilla and Union counties. The lodge members also balloted on candidates during the evening.

Friday evening the regular meeting of the organization will be held at the K. P. hall, initiation to take place at that time.

Following the initiation there will be a banquet, at which the losing team in a membership contest will be hostesses.

A birthday party was given in honor of Harry Karns Friday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Andrews, at 1422 Jackson avenue.

The evening was spent at games and music, followed by refreshments served by Mrs. Andrews and Miss Hutchins, of Boulder, Colo.

Those present were Vivian Gallagher, Madeline Gallagher, Ruth Brandon, Marie Brandon, Gertrude Swartz, Vera Bickford, Myron Smith, Frank Hutchins, Earl Ed-

Mrs. Martens Is Host to Lucky 13

UNION (Special).—Mrs. Newell Martens was hostess at an attractively appointed luncheon Friday afternoon at her home in South Union, where she entertained the members of the Lucky Thirteen club.

Pink and white carnations were used to decorate the three small tables, where a three-course luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock.

During the bridge games which followed, Mrs. Fred Fox made high score and Mrs. W. M. Dobbin received the consolation prize.

UNION (Special).—Members of the T. B. club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens, when four tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson made high score among the women players and the men's prize went to Fred Fox. Mrs. Bert Knight received the consolation prize.

Announcements

The Degree of Honor Protective association will meet in regular session this evening at Eagles hall. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. G. Bayton, 604 Adams avenue, tomorrow afternoon, with Mrs. T. E. Dixon in charge of the study subject.

NUMBERS STUDENTS AT TWENTY THOUSAND

Twenty thousand music students have been tutored by Miss Bertha Bauer, director of the Cincinnati conservatory of music. She went to Cincinnati 48 years ago from Ann Arbor, Mich., to the school founded by her late aunt. The conservatory, now 60 years old, has the support of several public spirited Cincinnati women and owns its own campus and buildings.

THEY MADE A KICK about returning to America, but that doesn't mean that Beth and Betty Dodge, twin dancers, aren't glad to be back. They've spent the last year on European stages and were so tickled to see home shores again that they staged a little gopher-orchestration celebration on the deck of their liner.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed figs with orange slices, cereal, thin cream, French toast, strup, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Baked rice and tomatoes, kumquat salad, rye bread, rock cookies, milk, tea.
DINNER—Roast veal, glace sweet potatoes, spinach in lemon butter, radishes and new onions, peach tapioca pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

These are simple menus that will appeal to the average family. If children under school age are to be served, one or two rearrangements may be necessary. The "finger" luncheon salad should be of shredded lettuce simply dressed with oil and lemon juice. A sweet potato baked while the meat is roasting should be substituted for the glace sweet potatoes and the onions should be very finely minced. Children under ten years of age find radishes extremely hard to digest and should not be allowed to eat them.

The peach tapioca pudding is an ideal dessert for the very young or very old and will not be scoffed at by any member of the family.

Rock cookies will help the much-discussed glass of milk to disappear like magic.

Rock Cookies
One and one-half cups light brown sugar, 3/4 cup butter, 2 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped nut meats, 1 cup chopped and seeded raisins, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 cups flour, 2 tablespoons milk.

Cream butter and gradually beat in sugar. Add egg yolks well beaten. Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder and cinnamon. Add with nuts and raisins to first mixture. Add milk and mix thoroughly. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and cut and fold into mixture. Drop from tip of spoon onto buttered and floured baking pans and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.
