Bridge Parties Held at Reuter Home This Week

Two delightful parties of this week were Wednesday and Thursday afternoons when Mrs. Norman W. Reuter and Mrs. Walter H. Reuter were hostesses at the Reuter home on First street.

On both occasions luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock, six tables of bridge following luncheon on Wednesday and on Thursday seven tables were at play.

Bouquets of spring flowers were effectively used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. W. C. Froman was high score winner on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Clyde Kiddie received the second prize and the consolation prize fell to Mrs. G. L. Larison.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Juliet French made high score, the second prize went to Mrs. H. B. Colburn and the consolation prize to Mrs. C. S. Moore.

Members of the Lucky Thirteen club were guests at an attractive luncheon at 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Mrs. J. T. Richardson was hostess.

Bridge was the diversion following luncheon with Mrs. F. L. Meyers winning high score. The guest prize went to Mrs. P. S. Robinson.

The N. B. B. club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the new home of Mrs. Jack McGheon on X avenue.

Three tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon with Mrs. H. W. Riley winning high score and the second prize going to Mrs. Nellie Spencer.

The hostess served refreshments following the afternoon's games. The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. Walter Jones as hostess.

The Helonals Bridge club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Charlton.

Three tables of bridge were at play and high score went to Mrs. George McVey. Mrs. Roy Farnum received the consolation prize and the guest prize was won by Mrs. Vada King.

The rooms were prettily decorated with potted plants. At 5:30 o'clock the hostess served a hot fudge luncheon.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. E. M. Jensen, on Maple street.

Mrs. H. E. Williams and Mrs. C. H. Williams were hostesses at a sherry last night honoring Mrs. Charles Webb at the home of the former.

Several friends made up the guest list and following the show or five tables of bridge were enjoyed. Mrs. Robert Carey made high score at cards and the second prize went to Mrs. G. G. Griffiths. Mrs. Everett Rowan received the consolation prize.

Pink and blue was the color scheme used to decorate the rooms and was carried out in bouquets of the season's flowers. Favors and score cards appropriate for the occasion were in the same colors.

At about midnight the hostesses served refreshments.

Mr. Cleaver Will Wed Portland Girl

Of interest to many La Grande people is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Beth Sutherland to Francis Cleaver, which was made last week at the Alpha Delta Pi, women's living organization at the University of Oregon, and the Phi Kappa Psi, fraternity house.

Miss Sutherland is the daughter of C. G. Sutherland, assistant to general manager of the Union Pacific in Portland. She is a major in the normal arts department.

Cleaver, son of George L. Cleaver, former resident of La Grande, is president of the Phi Kappa Psi house and has been a member of the varsity track team for four years. He is a senior in the geology department.

Miss Verne Conn and Elmer Carpenter, both of La Grande, were married here yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the groom, the Rev. J. A. Hall, of the Methodist Episcopal church south, performing the ceremony.

Only members of the immediate family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will make their home here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bettner and John M. Burnside, both of Haines, were married here Sunday. It was announced yesterday.

The marriage took place at the parsonage of the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. G. A. Dollard performing the ceremony.

The couple will live near Haines, where Mr. Burnside has a ranch.

P.-T. Association Aids Piano Fund

To raise money for a piano fund the Riveria Parent-Teacher association had a pie social Tuesday evening at the school.

In addition to the sociable an interesting program was given consisting of an original play by the children of Miss Myrtle Hoyt's class, a dialogue by five of the boys from the same room; a recitation by Billy Standford; recitation, Vivian Hilyard; piano solo, Mrs. William Kelly; "A Slight Misunderstanding," Ruby and Vivian Hilyard; reading, Mary Vaughn Hendrickson; Scotch song, Merrill Hinworth; stunts, Helen Fallow and Dorothy Pierce; violin duet, Alice Joacite and Madeline Cooper; reading, Catherine Humphreys; one-act play, "Getting Rid of an Aunt," Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hoff and Mrs. G. M. Pierce.

Pie and coffee were served.

The Mothers' Self Culture club held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Williams yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Miller sang two solos, "The Stars Have Eyes," by Sanderson and "Indian Love Call," from "Rose Marie." Mrs. J. D. Meyers, accompanied her at the piano.

The next meeting of the club, Thursday, March 10, will be at the home of Mrs. Walter Palmer.

One new member was initiated Tuesday evening when the Degree of Honor Protective association met in regular session at Eagles' hall.

Mrs. Albert Herman presided over the meeting. The new member taken in was Mrs. Claude Nash.

The next social meeting of the association will be Tuesday evening, March 22.

UNION (Special) - Preston Woman's Relief Corps No. 22 held an open meeting at the K. P. hall in honor of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and William McKinley Saturday, the three birthdays coming in the month of February.

The following program was given: song, "America," by all; Tribute to George Washington, Mrs. Agnes Paddock; address, the Rev. Robert C. Lee, his subject being "Washington"; "The Life of Lincoln," the Rev. Arthur L. Dickinson; "Patriotism," the Rev. William M. Bradner; "McKinley," C. L. Caldwell; "Teach Children Patriotism," Will Baxter.

Mrs. Agnes Paddock gave a reading entitled "Lincoln" and Mrs. Edith Phis sang two numbers, "Diana" and "When the Flag Goes By." Mrs. William Hutchinson sang "A Song of You" by Cadman, and a quartet consisting of Misses Leona and Nona Spray, Jane Smith and Vaille Goertzen sang two numbers, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Home Sweet Home Lullaby."

The program was interspersed with readings, flag drills and songs by the school children.

After the program lunch was served by the members of the corps.

COVE (Special)—The campus girl groups here and their leaders, Mrs. William M. Brander and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, gave a party for the boy scouts at French hall Monday evening.

Twenty boys and girls were present. Games were played, after which refreshments were served.

COVE (Special)—The Young Matrons' Bridge club enjoyed a no-hostess party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Friday evening, Feb. 18. Two tables of bridge were played and Miss Vina Conley and G. E. Barker made high score.

Refreshments were served after the card games.

Mrs. William Hallmark was hostess to the club Saturday afternoon at a luncheon.

Three tables of bridge were enjoyed after luncheon, with Miss Bess Kelly winning high score.

COVE (Special)—The Ladies' guild was entertained at a luncheon Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. M. Laid with Mrs. Laird and Mrs. L. E. Anderson as hostesses.

HELS BLIND AND DEAF TO BE MUSIC TEACHERS

The blind and the deaf learn music and become teachers of it under the tutelage of Miss Clara Gregory Bridge of Cincinnati. Wholly deaf persons enjoy music keenly through vibrations, she says, and can tell accurately what instrument is being played, at the first note. Because little of the world's best music is published in raised characters, her blind pupils memorize every note.

MEGAN LLOYD GEORGE JUMPS INTO POLITICS

Miss Megan Lloyd George has taken the platform to aid her father in his fight to bring the call of liberation to the fore. Mr. Lloyd George is often accompanied by his daughter in his speech making trips about the country, and it was at Middleburgh that she made her debut as a platform speaker.

The young woman made a favorable impression, the Liberal press announcing that her talk, both in form and matter, was excellent, and that Miss George showed herself as being particularly well informed in public affairs and had a splendid speaking voice for political work. The most enthusiastic member of the audience who heard the Middleburgh speech was "daddy" himself who chuckled and applauded as his daughter displayed some of the mannerisms which helped to make Lloyd George famous.

TURKISH WOMAN GIVES FORTUNE TO CHARITY

Turkey's wealthiest woman farmer, an old peasant woman, Hairie Hanoum, who lives in the Anatolian village of Akshahir, has bequeathed her fortune to charitable and patriotic works. It is estimated at 166,000 lira, including her 50,000 lira farm. She has stipulated the amounts to be divided between the Society for the Protection of Children, the Red Crescent, (the Turkish equivalent of the Red Cross), and the National Aviation Fund. Part of her money will be used to construct Akshahir's first hospital. She has operated her farm for 60 years working in the fields herself, wearing the typical peasant costume, her head covered with a white towel which she draws over face when confronted by strangers.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Apples, cereal, thin cream, ham, omelet, crisp graham toast, orange marmalade, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Corn soufflé, tomato jelly salad, nut bread and butter sandwiches, prune pudding, milk, tea.
DINNER—Pot roast of beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered parsnips, horseradish and apple salad, graham rolls, cherry pudding, milk, coffee.

The marmalade is suggested in the breakfast menu to furnish the needed touch of piquancy. If you make your own marmalade it can be as bitter or as mild as you prefer it. Keep in mind that carrots scraped and put through the food chopper and simmered in just enough water to prevent burning make a satisfactory "stretcher" as well as a neutralizing agent for the oranges.

Corn Soufflé
Two cups canned corn, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 3/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk.

Chop corn. Mix and sift sugar, flour, salt and pepper and stir into corn. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add to corn mixture. Place out bowl in which eggs were beaten with milk and add with softened butter to first mixture. Mix thoroughly and fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a well-buttered baking dish and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve at once from baking dish.
