THE SOUL HUNGER—"Oh, that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for." Job 6:5.

section since the McNary-Haugen bill was killed. A wild third party.

While the artist world is debating the question of whether John McCormack or Edward Johnson is the greatest tenor, why shouldn't the rest of us get down to something really practical, and find who is the worst, and do something about it?

Uncle Sam is going to feed his soldiers better. By an executive order, there will be a larger ration hereafter, with more meat, potatoes and butter regularly, and more extras for holidays. This will raise the daily cost of the army ration per man from 36 to 50 cents, and add $6,000,000 to the annual feed bill. But the country can stand it, as a matter of justice and a bid for military contentment.

Twenty cities in this country are putting the new vitaglass in certain hospitals for the purpose of testing its efficiency in health work. This glass is a quartz product of English invention which is said to transmit the ultra-violet or actinic rays of sunlight, which are the health-bearing rays. Ordinary window glass excludes these special rays so that sunlight coming through it, though warm and beautiful, lacks the healing power of outdoor sunlight. If the new glass does what is claimed for it, its use should be extended not only to all hospitals and places for the care of the sick, but to school rooms and private homes. This would help prevent many diseases now cured by sun treatment or artificial ultra-violet rays.

STUDENT SUICIDE

There isn't really a "wave of student suicide" just now, as some of the headlines would lead us to believe. There is only an occasional young man or woman here or there, one out of tens of thousands, who with mind overwhelmed by real or fancied troubles seeks death as a solution. Yet there are too many.

Suicide means despair. It is one of the tragic paradoxes of life that youth, with all its strength, buoyance and promise, should so often see only hopelessness in life, while elderly persons, apparently in far more tragic plight, bear up strong-heartedly.

Youth is a queer mixture. Supposedly the happiest age of all, it may yet be the most miserable. The sensitive boy or girl in high school or college may feel more darkness than ever before or after. The vast majority come safely through that troublesome period. Those who falter must be helped. The best help is wise understanding and sympathy on the part of teachers and parents—especially parents.

BUTTER PRICES SHARPLY LOWER

Prints Cut to 48 Cents a Pound to the Grower, in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 5 (AP)—Butter prices are sharply lower today. Local creamery men have cut the price of prints 4 cents to 45 cents a pound to the grower. Heavy production with lower yields ruling in outside markets has been a bearish factor for several days now and the decline was not anticipated by the trade.

Further Weakness. Cattle prices showed further weakness on the dairy exchange today, closing a half cent lower on extras, standards and firsts and a cent lower on prime firsts. Exchange prices at the close were: extra firsts and standards 43 1/2 cents; prime firsts and firsts, 42 1/2 cents; this is a decline of 3 to 4 1/2 cents per pound in cube prices during the past week.

The fresh eggs market was generally steady at the close with a good demand. In the closing session of the exchange firsts advanced a cent and mediums declined a cent.

Poultry receipts cleaned up along the street today with prices fully maintained in most lines.

Country dressed hogs were scarce at the close of the week, with the general top down to 16 1/2 cents after ruling at 17 cents up to Friday. Choice light calves held steady at 18 to 18 1/2 cents.

Downward Trend Continues; Stock Issues in Slump

NEW YORK, Mar. 5 (By the Associated Press).—A further downward readjustment of prices took place in today's brief session of the stock market. Selling originated largely with bear traders, who succeeded in uncovering a number of weak spots in the industrial issues and specialties, but long traders and investors also showed a disposition to sell and convert their paper profits into cash.

Oils were prominent among the few outstanding strong spots. Houston soaring nearly 10 points to 119 and Atlantic Refining moving up three. Continental Bakker "A" yesterday's weak feature, also received better support.

Persistent selling of DuPont, Pinken Bolder Bearing, General Railway Signal, Commercial Solvents "B" and United Drug caused these issues down two to nearly four points below yesterday's final quotations. The closing was heavy. Total sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.
