Cornelius Vanderbilt is writing to pay off $2,000,000 in debts. That, as the bankers say, certainly is writing it off.

Planning youth is funny, flaming middle age is funnier, but our idea of an absolute knockout is the flaming maiden aunt.

THE OFFICE CAT SAYS
"That the world is composed of 'listeners in' and 'loud speakers.' That the A. B. C. of the road is 'Always Be Careful.'"

It is a mistake to run up your mileage with skids.

That men are divided into two classes—the always-at-home and the never-at-homes.

That spaghetti was recently referred to as "foreign entanglements."

That it is fine to speak well of the dead; but what shall we say about those who are dead, and don't know it.

That "prize fights" are now all prices and no fighters.

All the Mutts are not created by Bud Fisher. Nature turns out a goodly number.

A sinner is one person who is in no hurry to collect his wages.

Our idea of the most useless question a woman can ask her husband these days is what color the eyes of the girl they just passed were.

A pretty girl, wearing the very latest in bathing suits, was sitting on the beach when a young man approached her and took off his hat, remarking that it was a fine day.

"How dare you speak to me!" said the girl indignantly. "I don't know you from Adam."

"Well," returned the young man, unconcernedly, "I would hardly know you from Eve."

STILL WORSE
"We're out of bread," the fellow said.

"That's not half as mean," And here he heaved a mighty sigh. "As out of gasoline."

Eat, drink, and be merry—and tomorrow you'll have to borrow a meal ticket.

Jim: How would you begin to work a typewriter?
You: First you take her out to supper and then to a show.

In these days don't worry much whether we love our neighbors or not; the main thing is to keep up with them.

STARKEY PERSONALS
STARKEY. (Special) — The snow is disappearing rapidly. Several of the ranchers have turned out their horses.

John Rogers, who spent the winter in Kansas, has returned to Starkey. He is now helping R. E. Thomas through the lambing season.

Everett and Carlton Clark, who have been spending the winter with their uncle, H. A. Thornburg, left for Pendleton the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker, of La Grande, have moved to the Oscar Comb's place.

Bob Williamson is spending a few days at Starkey.

Several children who have had the measles since the holidays are now able to return to school.

Fred Hagey, assisted by Willie and Fred Briggs, are cleaning the rocks from the road grade.

H. A. Thornburg made a trip to Hilgard the last of the week. Jess Flunkett was in La Grande over the week end.

AT THE THEATERS

"Night Patrol" At Sherrys Tonight Only

Absolute reputation of the theory advanced by the late Mr. Gilbert that the lot of a policeman is not happy may be found in "The Night Patrol" at the Sherry Theater. The bounding Dick Talmadge is nearly always happy, and he passes on his capers, spirits and joy of living to his hosts of admirers throughout the country. But while Dick finishes his present picture in a contented frame of mind, it must be admitted that he is even more harassed by Herculean tasks than in his usual type of picture—for "The Night Patrol" is something of a departure from the kind of story which this popular star has been doing in the past. A splendid cast, headed by Mary Carr, Gladys Hulette, Grace Darmond and others has been ably directed by Masour Noel. Frank Howard Clark wrote the story. "The Night Patrol" will run today for the last time locally, and it is a production Talmadge fans should not miss.

Two Feature Pictures on Star Program

Al Wilson, who is starring in "The Flying Mail," one of the feature productions at the Star theater today, appears to be a man of iron nerve as well as an actor of note, if we are to believe our eyes after seeing his display of flying stunts on the screen. As a U. S. Mail aviator attempting to clear his name by capturing crooks who use airplanes, he runs the gamut of wild-walking tricks known at present, and adds a few more for good measure. Others in the cast of the Harry von Meter, Eddie Gibson and Frank Tomick.

One of the newest Western stars in motion pictures is Fred Humes, who appears in "The Stolen Ranch," the Universal-Blue Streak Western, showing at the Star theater today and Wednesday as the second feature picture on the double program. In this picture, he fully justifies the faith placed in him by Universal officials and a great future is predicted for him. In his support are seen Louise Lorraine, William Norton Bailey, Ralph McCallough, Nita Cavalier, Edward Cecil, Howard Truesdell, Robert Dunbar, Slim Whitaker and Jack Kirk.

Comedy showing "Wedding Daze."

Screen Version Of "The City" On Wednesday

The screen version of "The City," one of the most talked of plays of America, produced by Fox William under the direction of R. William Neill, will be shown at the Arcade theater Wednesday only.

This play by Clyde Fitch was produced after his death and was, according to all critics, the greatest thing he had ever written. In the transposition from the stage to screen, the play has gained rather than lost. There is the same moral preached, but it is driven home more forcefully in that more of the action can be visibly carried out.

Walter McGrail plays the part which Tully Marshall created on the stage. Nancy Nash, Fox Films latest find, is cast as the Girl, Robert Frazer as the elder brother and Richard Walling as the boy in the production. Others in the all-star cast are May Allison, Dodd Hosing, Lillian Elliott, Melbourne MacDowell, George Irvine, Fred Walton, Billie Baxter and Alleen Manning.

"Bromo and Juliet," a new Hal Roach comedy starring Chester Conroy.

Mrs. Mary G. Young moved her furniture from Toledo last Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Brady, who has been here from Idaho for some time, went to Starkey last week.

Emery Ferguson went to Pendleton Tuesday. From there he plans to go to Lewiston, Ida., where he will work in a logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad were Hilgard visitors Tuesday.

Jack Cox has gone to Norfolk, where he will work on the section.

Mrs. L. Phillips, whose home is in Idaho, is visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Ferguson.

John Bickel moved from Perry

PILES

BEWARE OF COMPLICATIONS
PILES in themselves sooner or later become unbearable. Add, then, the suffering from lost vitality, stomach troubles, neuritis, sciatica and epilepsy, which often arise as direct reflex conditions from Rectal and Colon ailments. Piles will not cure themselves; nor will patent medicines or hospital operations give permanent relief. But the famous Dr. Dean treatments have cured thousands of the most extreme cases, and I will GUARANTEE to write to cure yours, or return your fee. Send today for my FREE 100-page illustrated book. It tells how.
