OBSCURE QUESTIONS
Is my hat on straight?
Have I too much powder on my face?
Can you get any good liquor around here?
Do you think this dress is immodest?

MARY'S VOTE
Mary had a little vote.
By Nature quite erratic.
And everywhere she went with it.
The men said things emphatic.

She took it to the primaries.
Which was against the custom.
The men cried, "Welcome, Mary's Vote!"
But, all the same, it fussed 'em.

"What makes the Vote behave so queer?"
Young politicians cried.
"In Mary's hands it gets that way!"
The boss, in gloom, replied.

The man who keeps to the right is not in much danger of getting left.

About the only modest thing about some homes today is dad's income.

The more luxurious the home, the less time is spent there.

He: "You contradicted everything I say."
Gladys: "Why, I do not!"

REVISION OF LAWS NEEDED
Too bad a woman can have but one husband, for in summer she needs one for a gardener and one to wash the car.

When freezing winter comes, she needs a husband who's a plumber.

And another one to tend the furnace, and so there you are.

Some men are brilliant talkers in public and others go out with their wives.

It is said that an apple a day will keep the doctor away. For the rest of the crowd, use onions.

WHAT IS IT?
What is it that gives me my food, and clothes and shelter and all the comforts I need?

What is it that I sometimes neglect and make disagreeable remarks about?

What is it that I do not value until I lose it?

What is it that gives me a chance to climb high in the world?

MY JOB!

AT THE THEATERS

"Denver Dude" Showing At The Star

Hoot Gibson's latest western comedy, "The Denver Dude," opened an engagement of three days at the Star theater here last night. Gibson is noted for his swift-moving pictures in which action, comedy and thrills are skillfully intermingled, and "The Denver Dude" ranks among the best productions the popular star has ever done.

Although western in its locale, and with much action typical of this type of picture, "The Denver Dude" is more than a "western" in the usual sense of the word. It is light comedy, with the intangible float riding the crest of every scene and situation with his winning personality always beaming through and his innate sense of comedy always foremost.

Blanche McWhorter makes an attractive leading woman for Gibson, and Glenn Tryon and "Slim" Summerville assist the star in leading comedy to the picture.

Robert McKim, Howard Truesdell, Harry Todd, Mathilde Brandage, Rolfe Sedan and others are also in the cast.

"Where There's a Will" is the comedy being shown. Al Cooke and Kit Girard are featured, the story is taken from H. C. Witver—Columbia's Weekly stories Bill Grimm's Progress.

Universal Film Proves To Be A Thriller

Something in the nature of a sensation was revealed on the screen of the Arcade theater yesterday at the opening performance of Jules Verne's famous melodrama "Michael Strogoff," long popular as a book and as a play, and now filmed for the first time and presented by Carl Laemmle as a "Universal-Film de France production." A handsome and personable young Russian actor, Ivan Mozhukin, said to be "Europe's idol of the screen," heads a brilliant group of principals, supported by a cast said to number 6000. The performance of the star as the intrepid hero, a "secret courier of the czar," was a splendid realization of Verne's famous character and left nothing to be desired.

The story concerns itself with the adventures of Strogoff on a 5000 mile journey from Moscow to Irkutsk in Siberia, with a message from the czar to his brother, the grand duke. In command of the Russian troops, who are threatened by an uprising of the semi-barbaric Tartars under Feofar, the grand kahn.

Much of the picture is in natural color. The picture was fully appreciated by the large audience that greeted its initial presentation at the Arcade theater. The picture will be shown again today and Saturday.

Secret Service Agent Has Exciting Time

Evelyn Brent in her most colorful role! That is the opinion of Los Angeles critics who have seen "Secret Orders" in this production starring this brilliant emotional actress.

Having made the girl crook popular, Miss Brent has now turned her attention to the Secret Service, and Martin Justice's powerful story carries her into exciting intrigue in this tale of war days. According to the reviewers, who have all been lavish in their praise of the picture, nothing that Miss Brent has done in the way of sustained dramatic acting comes up to her scene in the enemy headquarters. Robert Frazer takes the leading male role opposite the star, and the remainder of the cast, which includes Marjorie Bonner, John Gough, Harold Goodwin, Brandon Hurst and Frank Leitch, is exceptionally good. "Secret Orders" will begin a one-day engagement at the Sherry theater today. Chet Withey has done splendid work in directing the picture, as has J. Grubb Alexander in transposing the original story to the screen.

The comedy "So's Your Old Man," is also being shown.

Beauty, Drama In Film "Barbara Worth"

Tense dramatic incidents, an incomparable love story, unusual scenic effects, together with an underlying strain of comedy and the graphic portrayal of desert development join to make Henry King's film, "The Winning of Barbara Worth," which comes to the Sherry theater next Sun. Mon. and Tues. one of the outstanding photo-plays of the year.

Filmed on the great arid Black Rock Desert, the story unfolds a world of entertaining and educational features before Ronald Colman, as Willard Holmes, begins to feel sure that he has finally won the fair Barbara, played by Vilma Banky.

Ronald Colman's ride with the payroll to stop a threatened revolt of laborers in the town of Barba, built by Jefferson Worth, Barbara's father, to compete with Kingston, is one of the high spots of the production.

Vilma Banky, who as the grown-up Barbara, casts the magic spell over Ronald Colman, young actress, and Gary Cooper, as Abe Lee, desert-bred western engineer, plays the mother of the infant Barbara in the prologue of the picture.

For more than a week, with the temperature hovering around 120 degrees, the talented actress worked in the biting blasts of man-made sand storms in order that she might give the limit of realism to the part, which called for great dramatic portrayal and emotional acting.

KIPLING WRITES FOR MOVIES

LONDON—Word that Rudyard Kipling is writing for the movies comes at the same time as news that the government plans to compel theaters to have at least 7 1/2 per cent of British-made films in their attractions.

To ensure settlement on inferior land, the New Zealand Government has decided to give it away.

PILES
BEWARE OF COMPLICATIONS
PILES in themselves sooner or later become unbearable. Add, then, the suffering from lost vitality, stomach troubles, neuritis, sciatica and epilepsy, which often arise as direct reflex conditions from Rectal and Colon ailments. Piles will not cure themselves; nor will patent medicines or hospital operations give permanent relief. But the famous Dean treatments have cured thousands of the most extreme cases, and I will GUARANTEE to cure yours, or return your fee. Send today for my FREE 100-page illustrated book. It tells how.
