A traveler says that widows in New Guinea cover themselves with clay and mourn their husbands for a year. That's not the rule here—they're known 'em as put on a little more powder and start looking for another long before a year has passed.

Johnny's Ma: "Johnny, there were three pieces of cake in the pantry, and now there is only one. How did that happen?"

Johnny: "Well, it was so dark in there I didn't see the other piece."

Anburn Stenog—Why the deuce do I struggle with this piffling job?

Blonde Ditta—Don't be discouraged! Think of the mighty cak. It was once a nut like you.

We like the informality of "Widow" Smith. It recalls that pathetic little chorus:

"His father called him William And his mother called him Will And his sisters called him Willie And the fellows called him Bill"

He—Would you be angry with me if I asked you to be my wife?

She—Not at all. But I'd be furious with myself if I agreed to.

William: I hear that you kissed to boys at the party last night.

Gladys—Yes, ten—all told.

Doctor: "So you are suffering from indigestion? You ought to drink a glass of hot water every morning."

The Consultant: "But I do, doctor, though my landlady calls it coffee."

Out to the famous swimming hole. He always loved to swim. But guess how he would kick when he was forced to bathe at home.

Country—What are you so hot for, old man?

Hick—I've got one of these here two-piece suits on.

Wright Book Comes to Screen At Sherrys

Samuel Goldwyn paid $125,000 for the screen rights to Harold Bell Wright's best selling book, "The Winning of Barbara Worth," which comes to the Sherry Theater in film form Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It was the favored selection of the pioneer film producer, when he and Director Henry King purchased the film rights in New York, that the story should lose none of its dominating power and dramatic appeal in the trans-film process.

Carrying out this idea successfully, Mr. Goldwyn assigned Frank Marion, famous scenarist, to do the scenario for the screen version. She worked for six months, while studio technicians toiled over various pre-production angles and Mr. King traveled more than five thousand miles seeking a typical and realistic location, which he found on the desolate but impressive Black Rock desert of Nevada.

The film version preserves such great incident of the novel, including the thrilling ride of Willard Holmes and Abi Lee with the first under the direction of Ray Kavanagh, one of the many features of the performance. Baker, Ore. is the only city in Eastern Oregon "Vanities" will visit.

New York and Paris costumes prepared for the show. The Earl Carroll Theater orchestra, under the direction of Ray Kavanagh, is one of the many features of the performance. Baker, Ore. is the only city in Eastern Oregon "Vanities" will visit.

Another group of high-class artists will be seen on the vaudeville bill at the Arcade Theater on Sunday.

This bill is headed by The Four Lion Sisters who offer a novelty in their singing and popular harmony numbers. Frank Robb, a dapper chap dressed in an eccentric manner, offers a nonsensical oddity which he calls "Conserving High-Class Hash". Goetz and King offer a comical specialty of singing and talking that will furnish ample entertainment. Miss Margaret Austin, a vivacious miss, presents a bit of entertainment called "A Bundle of Personality". She renders a musical cycle of violin selections. Franklin Brothers are known throughout the vaudeville world as two of America's greatest equilibrists and will present a routine of ground acrobatic work and risky specialties.

Bob Custer in "Hair Trigger Baxter" Tonight

A man whose gun play wins the respect and admiration of the population in a tough western town is the story of "Hair Trigger Baxter", an F. B. O. production starring Bob Custer which will be shown at the Sherry Theater tonight. In this picture, Custer not only has a chance to do some of his inimitable riding, but for the first time he is given a role which does justice to his shooting ability. The story calls for some remarkable gun play and Custer proves equal to the most difficult shots. Aside from the gun and riding thrills, the picture offers a charming romance in which the lovely Eugenia Gilbert plays the role of a maiden in genuine distress. The cast also includes such favorites as Lew Meehan, Murdock MacQuarrie, Penny Bingley, Jim Corey, Ernie Adams and Hugh Evans. The picture was made under the capable and intelligent direction of Jack Nelson. James O'Leary wrote the story while Paul Bryan made the continuity. Comedy showing, "M-Inchid Fot-lies."

"Vanities" at Clarick Theater Wednesday

That the Earl Carroll "Vanities" under the direction of Jos. De Milt, Inc. which comes to the Clarick Theater, Baker, Ore. on Wednesday, March 16 at 8:30 p. m. is a production of magnitude, magnetism and melodrama is the universal opinion of the New York critics, where this musical revue shattered box office records. Primarily the dancing, singing and fun-making in the hands of an excellent cast, headed by Bert Sweet, Lou Powers, Dave Chasen and the perfect Venus—Louise Brooks. Other important members are Mary Dowling, John Coyle, Lew Miller, Alice Bradford, Kenneth Lackey, Almee Archer Swor, Johnny Dove, Rico, John Kirk, Harry Sharpe, Maria Vesta, Walter Hamilton, Mary Mansfield, Emma Dean, Virginia May, Mae Valle, Violet Davis, Lillie Menzies, Alice Edrique, Marie Goode, and a host of others who have earned the Earl Carroll "Vanities" the reputation of being by far the best musical revue ever produced.

New York and Paris costumes prepared for the show. The Earl Carroll Theater orchestra, under the direction of Ray Kavanagh, is one of the many features of the performance. Baker, Ore. is the only city in Eastern Oregon "Vanities" will visit.
