COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

AT THE THEATERS

Pola Negri In Picture At Arcade

The Pola Negri of "Passion" has returned. She reaches the pinnacle of film genius in one of the great pictures of the year, "Hotel Imperial," her newest Paramount starring vehicle, which opens today at the Arcade.

Here at last, in an American-made picture, is the woman whose sensational characterizations aroused world-wide enthusiasm when she first appeared on the screen, in a vehicle worthy of her tempestuous artistry—a tremendous drama. Her interpretation is by far the finest work she has done since coming to America.

Second only to the star's fine work is her supporting cast. James Hall, whom Paramount recently drafted from the musical comedy stage, appearing in his second picture, gives a performance that proves him the year's leading "find." As the fugitive Hungarian officer, he reveals a gift for gripping drama that bids fair to carry him very far. George Siegmann, the "heavy," a demoralizing Russian general, adds new wreaths to his many laurels, while Nicholas Soussanh, Michael Vavitch, Otto Fries and Max Davidson are splendid in minor roles.

Dog Story Is Coming to Star Tuesday

Fox Films has scored another outstanding hit with "Wings of the Storm," showing at the Star theater Tuesday and Wednesday with Thunder, the great dog star, in the featured role. It has aroused renewed interest in "man's best friend," while the vivid performances of Virginia Brown Faire, Reed Howes and William Russell are very pleasing.

The scenic beauty of the production, which was directed by J. G. Hyuston, is in itself a genuine delight and the photoplay in excellent. The story is based on the mental and physical evolution of a dog. But it is the remarkable performance of Thunder, the magnificent police dog, that arouses the greatest interest. His performance is fascinating in the extreme and "home" of dog intelligence. There are several other good dog actors in the cast, among them White Pawn, Thunder's mate but all are overshadowed by the work of Thunder.

"Vanities" To Be in Baker Wednesday

The most popular of the New York reviews, the Earl Carroll "Vanities," will be brought by the Joseph E. Milt, Inc., to the Clark Hotel, Baker, Wednesday, March 16. "Vanities" has been highly successful from the time of its first presentation. It is said to be unique in character, the book being devoted largely to travesties on the topics of the day and introducing a quaint humor, entirely different from the usual stereotyped comedy of the average revue or musical comedy.

The entire New York production with a company of 100 persons headed by Bert Swor, Lou Powers and Dave Chasen, and the perfect Venus-Love troupe, is carried on the road. The cast will further include many favorites, among others Mary Doyling, Alice Bradford, Lew Miller, John Coyle, Kenneth Lackey, Almee Archer Swor, Walter Hamilton, Johnny Dove, Rocco, John Kirk, Maria Vosta, Harry Sharpe, Mary Mansfield, Virginia May, Violet Davis, May Valle, Billie Monies, Alice Edrique, and a bewilderingly beautiful chorus of singing and dancing girls. The revue is of spectacular magnificence, and introduces many charming and original numbers among others "The Rotisserie," "The Gate of Roses," "Neath Miami Skies," "The Kinky Kids on Parade," and the grand finale "Hi Ho," with the entire strength of the company.

"Barbara Worth" At Sherrys Today, Tuesday

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," Samuel Goldwyn's presentation of the Henry King production of Harold Bell Wright's best selling novel, with Ronald Colman and Norma Hanky, comes to the Sherry theater as the feature photoplay.

The dramatic romance which features Ronald Colman and the lovely Norma Hanky, reunited on the screen after a year's separation in other films, is a glowing tale of those pioneers who battled with the menace of water, first in its foetid absence and then in its overwhelming presence. It is at once the story of vast lands reclaimed and the recolonization of a man's soul.

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," presents the most unique eternal triangle of any of the more important films, with Willard Holmeck, eastern engineer, coming to love Barbara just as she, too, desert-bred westerner, does, and poor Barbara does not know her own mind, loving both. Gary Cooper, one of the year's "finds" plays Abe Lee to Ronald Colman's Holmes. And Miss Hanky is Barbara Worth, daughter of the Jefferson Worth who knew the West should be reclaimed.

Comedy showing "Sweet and Pretty."

COVE PERSONALS

COVE (Special)—Miss Vina Conley, a teacher in the Union high school, is ill at her home here. Other members of the Conley family, who have been ill, are also better. Merrill, who is a student at Whitman college, has returned to school after two weeks at home because of illness and Virgil and Maxine are again in school after several days illness. Mrs. Conley is able to be out again also.

Alda Blank, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Blank, is at the Grande Ronde hospital, where she underwent an operation for her eye. She is reported to be much better.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conley, who have been living in La Grande for the past year have moved back to Cove to spend the summer.

A BIT OF STATIC

The government has assumed control of radio. Too bad the law cannot reach the man who owns one. He always tells you that his set was working fine last night. Tonight the only thing he can bring in is an arm-chair. Maybe the U. S. can tell us why the only station some sets can get is a maternity hospital at feeding time. The commission members are to be given $10,000 a year. But they give $10,000 a year. But they don't whenever his buzz-catcher begins to get roared. Radio control and charity should begin at the same place.

Paderewski was given a ukulele in Honolulu. We hope he sticks to his piano a while longer, though.

COLLEGE LIFE

Seventeen universities have banned students' automobiles as detrimental to morals. After the students had been driving half the night, it seems they couldn't be driven to work. When some of the boys ended their university careers the automobile was the only engineering they knew. A fellow who had tried all evening to find a girl who'd ride in a driver wouldn't be interested in any more experiments the next day. The student whose car had four punctures and a leak in the gas tank refused to be bothered with economics. The young man with the Rolls-Royce couldn't get worked up over sociology when he spent all his time declining invitations from people to ride in his car.

Russians conducting a night club in New York, and keeping open until 4:30 in the morning tried to justify their infraction of the curfew ordinance by pleading that day was the Russian New Year. The judge decided that the plea lacked judicial support, for the sojourners have adopted the Gregorian calendar.
