

SEMI-FINAL FOR MAR. 19 MADE UP

McDevitt, of Tacoma, to Meet Buster Adams Before Main Event

Before Tiger Thomas, Philadelphia middleweight, and Del Adams, Boise, Ida., pugilist, enter the ring at Zuber hall Saturday night, Mar. 19, a scrapper named McDevitt, of Tacoma, Wash., and Buster Adams, of Boise, will meet in a six-round semi-final event. It is announced today by Hector McDevitt. The boxing card, which will consist of five events—28 rounds in all—is being given under the auspices of the American Legion post.

McDevitt fought in Portland on New Year's eve and Buster Adams has appeared in La Grande before. McDevitt expects this event to strengthen the card. Adams, of Spokane, and Harris, of Pendleton, had been tentatively matched for a semi-final, but the opinion here was that the McDevitt-Adams match would be a better event. McDevitt has been fighting many main events in the northwest during the past several months, it is said. He is out of the La Barron stable and will be managed by Tom Hildley in his contest here.

Ford vs. Knight

Firpo Ford, of La Grande, will meet Billy Knight, of Umatilla, in a four-round special and Bell Allen, of La Grande, is scheduled to meet another lad, as yet unnamed, in another four-round event. The curtain raiser, at 9 o'clock, will be a four-cornered battle royal.

Ralph Gruman, a referee for the Portland, Ore., boxing commission, will officiate and it is said that Billy Stepp, Portland sports writer, will cover the fight for his newspaper.

Over Due Thursday

Tiger Thomas is due here Thursday and McDevitt, accompanied by Hildley, will also arrive then. Adams and his brother are expected in Friday.

In speaking of the seat sale, McDevitt declares that to date the tickets have gone rapidly and says that by Friday he expects to have few close in seats left. All of the 45 ringside seats have been taken. McDevitt declares that it was necessary to charge higher prices because of the fact that the card will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000 to stage.

IN CAMP FOR FUN, MAY CAMP DOTTED LINE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 15—Charlie Welsh, young semi-pro outfielder, may have a big league opportunity thrust upon him.

Jim Welsh, Boston outfielder, brought his younger brother Charlie along when he reported to the Braves' camp, thinking the lad would enjoy the trip and pick up a few baseball pointers. Manager Dave Haney says, "He is a good prospect. I am glad Jim brought him along."

It seems possible that Boston may sign him and send him to the minors with a stout string attached. Meanwhile he is playing on the Yonkers against his brother on the regulars in practice games.

Portland, Ore., street cleaners who work at night wear headlights and tall hats that they may not be hit by motorists.

TAKING CALVIN IN TOW

(NEA Service, Washington Bureau)

President Coolidge was tugged from the white house to his temporary home in the Patterson residence on Dupont Circle, Washington, at the end of the leash of Rob Roy, the dog of the executive mansion. All his belongings but his dog, the president entrusted to moving men—and for his care, Rob Roy tugged him most of the way, often out of the chief executive's chosen pace.

T. Higami Defeats Thye in Mixed Go

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Mar. 15 (AP)—T. Higami, of Japan, defeated Tod Thye, of Portland, in a mixed wrestling bout here last night, winning two falls under Jiu Jitsu rules, both with a neck hold after Thye had won the first fall under Police Gazette rules. Higami was awarded his falls in 41 and six minutes, while Thye downed the Nippon after 25 minutes.

"SPOKE" OF TEXAS IS MEAN LARIAT FLINGER

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 15—Will Rogers may have a successor in rope-throwing honors when Tris Speaker gets through playing baseball. "Spoke" brought a lariat from his Texas home to the Washington training camp and practices daily. He has achieved considerable skill and is able to rope Al Schacht, the comedian coach, on the third base coaching line, with fair regularity.

MORE MARRY IN COUNTRY

NEW YORK—If you wish to marry, girls, the chances are better in the country. Ten per cent more women between the ages of 20 and 44 living in rural districts marry than those living in cities. It is shown by a survey made in behalf of the General Council of Churches. The principal reason is high cost.

BOBBY AT LAST GETS HOLE-IN-1

World's Premier Golfer Scores After Winning Many Tourneys

ATLANTA, Mar. 15 (AP)—St. Patrick and Bobby Jones have the same birthday and this time March 17 marks the turning of the quarter-century mark for the young man who is rather generally regarded as the world's greatest golfer.

At any rate, in the year before becoming 25, he achieved the distinction of being the first and only golfer rated officially as the champion of the world, by winning in the same season the open titles of Great Britain and the United States while at the top of American amateurs. The latter title he lost a short time later to George Von Elm.

Shot in Atlanta

Then, too, Bobby's first hole in one came just a few weeks ago, as if to bring his 24th year to a fitting close. It was Number 11, on the East Lake course of Atlanta, and was a half-shot with his Number four iron to the green 170 yards away. The ball hit five yards from the cup, bounced twice and rolled in.

Bobby is generally regarded as being older than he really is, because of his prominence in national and international golfing affairs for the last eleven years. It was at the age of fourteen years, and six months that he entered his first national competition, the United States amateur championship at the Merion Cricket club, Philadelphia, in 1916.

He qualified handsily and defeated Eben Byers, a former national champion, and Frank Dyer before losing a grueling match to Robert A. Gardner, then champion, in the third round. Since then Bobby has been a national figure in golf.

Bobby started playing the game before he was six years old, at the East Lake course of the Atlanta Athletic Club, still his home club. His remarkable style was modeled on that of Stewart Maiden, still the professional instructor at that club.

In 21 Championships

Briefly, his career has to date included competition in 21 national championships, ten open and eleven amateur; sixteen in the United States, one in Canada and four in Great Britain.

He has won every major golfing title except the British amateur championship. He has won the United States open championship twice, in 1923 and 1925; the United States amateur title twice, in 1924 and 1925; and the British open once, in 1924.

In the United States open event, his record is unapproached. In the last five years, beginning with 1922, he has been either first or second in every tournament.

Bobby also has won innumerable lesser competitions, having been Southern amateur champion three times, up to 1922, when he won the title at East Lake with an aggregate score of ten under par for all the rounds he played, and since has not competed in that event.

During the war years of 1917 and 1918, he competed in matches for the Red Cross, all over the country, playing in four ball matches with Perry Adair, his famous partner in golf, Miss Alexa Stirling, of Atlanta, and Miss

Brothers Duelled Because of Her

(NEA Service, N. Y. Bureau)

Underlying the sensational walking-stick duel fought on New York street by Colonel Edward C. Carrington, once candidate for U. S. senator from Maryland, and Campbell C. Carrington, his wealthy brother, is Mrs. Anna Walsh Carrington, the colonel's estranged wife (above). Campbell has been named respondent in the colonel's divorce action, and defendant in the colonel's $1,000,000 suit for alleged alienation of his wife's affections. After their encounter, which took place outside Mrs. Carrington's home, Campbell was removed to a hospital with a broken crown and the colonel was arrested on a charge of assault.

Elaine Irenenthal, of Chicago. The four young people helped to raise something like $150,000 for the Red Cross fund.

Bobby was married in June, 1924 to Miss Mary Malone, of Atlanta, and now is the father of two children, Clara Malone Jones, not quite two years, and Robert Tyre Jones III, aged not quite four months.

To Play This Year

The open champion, after being graduated as a mechanical engineer at the Georgia School of Technology in 1922, went to Harvard for a B. S. degree and after a year in business went back to school to study law at Emory University, preparatory to entering his father's law firm in Atlanta. He is now in his first of two terms at Emory and is rated the best student.

Bobby intends to play in two major tournaments this year: the national open championship in June at Oakland, near Pittsburgh, and the national amateur championship at Minneapolis. He has stated he would not make the trip to Britain in those championships.

"We got to get ready for the game of life," says Bobby, and pursues his law studies at Emory.

WALKER'S HOME-TOWN SMILED TOO SOON

HAZELTON, Pa., Mar. 15—They've replaced old smiles with new at a barber shop here where Michael Pecora used to fling hot towels.

Michael was once ambitious to become a famous runner, but got discouraged when he saw a track star in action. Then he saw Frierio, the Italian, who is Olympic walking champion, and decided, "I can walk as fast as that."

Soon the town was amused by the daily spectacle, continued for 16 months, of Michael taking prodigious strides down the main street.

"He seemed such an intelligent chap, too," murmured his colleagues. Now they're hoisting because he beat Willie Piant, American champion, twice, and wondering why they were so derisive about the training that enabled him to do it.

REMOVE TEMPTATION?

ROME—Temptation will be removed from Italian women if fascists dress makers have their way. They want the government to prevent foreign rivals, particularly Parisians, giving fashion shows in Italy; also Italians would be forbidden to send fashion scouts to Paris.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION, (Special)—Superintendent Roy Conklin, John Worthman, and W. V. Connor, three teachers from the Union schools, went to Elgin Saturday to attend the teachers' institute which was held in that place. Mr. Conklin was in the program for the subject of athletics in the high schools and gave a very interesting talk to the teachers who were present.

William, "Dad" Miles is seriously ill at his home in South Union. The local campfire girls, the Weimachic camp, is clearing the yards of its members and enjoying a picnic feed at 11 noon hour of each Saturday.

At the regular morning service hour at the Methodist church Superintendent H. M. Broadbent, of the Baker public schools, occupied the pulpit. He talked on the subject of "Respect for Law." In the evening the Rev. H. H. Hamilton district superintendent of the Boise district, preached at the regular hour and afterwards held the second quarterly meeting of the year.

Mrs. Eva DeLap who was recently taken to Hot Lake for a second time, is reported as much better at this time.

Newell Martens, who recently went to Portland for medical examination, returned home the last of the week. His trouble was diagnosed as enlarged glands and he was advised to spend more time outdoors.

PARIS—Now comes Mme. Genot, culinary artist, with a defense of French cooking in answer to Mrs. Rosa Lewis, of London, hotel owner, who has been saying things in the U. S. A. Why does the Prince of Wales visit Paris? Why was she offered a bridge of gold to palm beach? Mme. Genot asks these and other questions in challenging Mrs. Lewis to a kitchen combat, with adjudication by a hungry jury.

SAYS HAVE IT

NEW YORK—On the question whether cosmetic and beautification of hair are detrimental to womanhood morally and physically, the boys have it so far. The vote as revealed by a hair dressers' convention was 7 no; 2 yes. Voting in the affirmative were the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman and Mrs. Huntington Booth; in the negative Robert W. Chambers, Producer; Phinley, Dr. Stuart H. Rowe, Ruth Hale, Alice Brady, Senator Copeland, Daniel Frohman.

A congressman calls for a survey to find out if the country really is prosperous. He ought to talk to that New York beggar who complained that it takes him more than 10 minutes these days to collect a paltry $2.25.
