Among the many St. Patrick's day parties was an attractive dinner dance given last evening at the Union hotel, with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange as host and hostess.

Dinner was served at 7:15 o'clock, the guests being seated at tables which were effectively decorated in accordance with the occasion green being the predominant color. Daffodils, in green and yellow and green carnations served as centerpieces for the tables.

There were 66 guests and following dinner dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Helm's five-piece orchestra furnished music during the evening.

Dance favors were St. Patrick's day caps in green. During the dance the orchestra played appropriate Irish music.

A cleverly appointed St. Patrick's day bridge luncheon was yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter H. Guild on O avenue when she was hostess to 20 guests.

Luncheon was at 1:15 o'clock the guests being seated at seven small tables, each one finding her place by means of a novelty place card, a miniature slip attached to the card on which her telephone number was written.

Green and gold was carried out in the color scheme to the minutest detail. Place cards were green with gold lettering. Green organdy table covers were used, baskets were green and gold and the flowers were green daffodils and sweet peas.

Seven tables of bridge were at play following luncheon. High score was made by Mrs. F. L. Ralston and the second prize went to Mrs. F. L. Lilly. The consolation prize fell to Mrs. Clayton Turner.

Mrs. Lester Allen made high score among the women players and the men's first prize went to Lowell Williamson. Mrs. Williamson and Walter Perry received the consolation prizes.

The rooms were decorated in accordance with St. Patrick's day, green carnations being used about the rooms.

After the card games when a two-course luncheon was being served, the members of the club presented Mr. and Mrs. Pattison with a gift in remembrance of their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Nowland will entertain the club April 7.

Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. Minnie Lapher and Mrs. Mary Ellen Prieberg entertained the Parkdale club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Davis.

The program on Children's art was followed by a social, when the hostesses served refreshments.

La Grande N. O. W. Planning Visit

Members of Circle No. 47 Neighbors of Woodcraft, of this city, are looking forward to a visit to the Enterprise lodge Monday evening, March 21.

The Enterprise lodge is reorganized and a large class of candidates will be initiated. The officers and guards of the local lodge have been invited to attend the meeting and to put on the work.

All officers and guards are requested to meet at the K. P. hall Monday afternoon, at two o'clock. They will leave from there for Wallova county. About 25 women will make the trip.

The Sacajawea campfire girls had their first Sunday ceremonial Sunday evening in the auditorium of the Lutheran church, about 50 young people being present to witness the first effort of the girls in their training for worship.

While singing "Rejoice Ye People in Heart," the girls marched to the front of the auditorium, where they formed a circle and the candle lighting ceremony took place. Edna Jensen, Lillian Lund, and Marie Neukirchner lighted the candles giving appropriate Bible verses.

All members of the campfire group were present but one and each gave sketches from lives of various missionaries, exemplifying the lives of campfire girls.

The girls plan to give a ceremonial the second Sunday evening of each month at the church and in this way gain a practice in the art of worship. The April program will be on Palm Sunday and will be a religious playlet "Janey."

Last night the birthday ceremonial, commemorating with 15th anniversary of the campfire organization was held in the church annex, eight girls, Edna Jensen, Lillian Lund, Verla McLane, Marie Neukirchner, Emma Wurl, Natalie Elert, Juanita Silbinger and Opal Smith, receiving honors. Two new girls joined the group, Selma Inseth and Bernice McKinney.

Six green cardboard trees, made by the assistant guardian, Anna Lottos, together with dim lights and burning candles decorated the room.

After the program the girls served refreshments as a surprise to the guardian, Mrs. L. H. Aweas, it being her birthday anniversary.

MENUS

BREAKFAST—Bananas, cereal with cream, tomato omelet, crisp granular toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Casserole of macaroni and round steak, brown bread, jellied apples with whipped cream, milk, tea.

DINNER—Stew of mutton with vegetables and rice, curly cutlets with bacon dressing, rye bread, canned peaches, spice cake, milk, coffee.

The stew of mutton with vegetables is ideal for the fireless cooker and in lieu of the fireless cooker a large double boiler can be used. The whole meal is planned for the convenience of the cook after an afternoon "out." If she washes her hands in the morning and puts it in a tightly covered pail her only work at dinner time is to make the bacon dressing, set the table and serve the meal.

Tomato Omelet
Four eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons hot water, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup hot tomato puree.

Beat yolks of eggs with salt and pepper until thick; gradually add hot water, beating until mixture is thick. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into yolks. Melt butter in frying pan turning pan to completely coat with butter. The pan should be hot but not hot enough to discolor the butter. Pour omelet mixture into pan and cook over a moderate fire for eight minutes. Place in hot oven for two minutes. When firm to the touch the omelet is done. Spread over top of omelet hot canned tomatoes well seasoned and rubbed through a strainer. Fold omelet and serve at once. (Copyright, 1927, NEA Service, Inc.)

Both Are Nora Bayes

Nora Bayes has lots of things named in her honor. New York named a theater after the popular musical comedy variety star. Now a Detroit floriculturist, Vincent R. DePetris, has named a new white carnation the "Nora Bayes carnation." Nora is shown here with an armful of them.

NOT SO DUMB

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—When it comes to horseflesh Arthur E. Hopkins seems dumb, like David Harum. He bought a colt three years ago in New York for $21. The seller thought the horse was a joke. Hopkins recently sent the animal to Lexington, Ky., for a sale. Joseph J. Collins of Boston bought him for $5,250.

Historic Treasury Cash Room To Be Modernized at Cost of $30,000

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17 (AP)—With the appropriation by congress of $20,000 to supplement a previously authorized expenditure of $10,000 for modernizing the cash room of the treasury, which handles more money daily than any other banking room in the world, equipment in use nearly 60 years will be replaced with more efficient up-to-date facilities.

Ever since it was formally opened, March 4, 1869, when the inaugural hall for President Grant was held there, the cash room has been recognized as one of the most beautiful chambers in any government building, being finished in eight kinds of marble and having a solid bronze balustrade midway between floor and ceiling.

Marble counters which have served from the beginning will be left as they are, under the scheme of renovation, but the heavy mahogany and glass fixtures will give way to modern bronze equipment, the antiquated iron wire cages for the tellers will be changed, and a better lighting system will be installed. At present, the paying teller, who on a normal day must pass out $1,500,000 to government disbursing officers and local banks, is in such cramped quarters that he must start work in the morning, standing in the midst of great piles of coins in bags.

Daily deposits which come to the receiving teller, made up of all sorts of government revenue, such as postal and tax receipts, amount to $12,500,000, while the change teller handles approximately $500,000 in units from one cent pieces to $10,000 bills, and the paying teller cashes from 5,000 to 15,000 checks. In addition, about $5,000,000 of new currency is distributed daily to the 35 agencies through which it enters into circulation to replace worn out or damaged money.

In a vault adjacent to the cash room, under the personal supervision of Charles J. Gates, the cashier, is stored the nation's reserve of about $1,300,000,000. It occupies little space, considering the amount, and does not become "cash" until it is transferred across a hall into the money vault. The longer paper currency can be kept in reserve, the better "seasoned" it becomes and the longer it will be able to stand the strain of being spent, once it gets into circulation.

VOTERS MAY HIDE AGE AND USE MAIDEN NAME

JACKSON, Miss. — An ancient feminine privilege has become a modern feminine right, for Mississippi says her women voters may maintain secrecy concerning their age.

The attorney general gave his opinion that a statement of being "21 plus" was sufficient. Married women may use either their own or the names of their husbands in registering, the prefix "Mrs." being required in case of the former. An unusually large number of women has registered for the democratic state primary in August.

SOUVENIR SABOTS FIND AMERICAN USE

PORTLAND, Ore. — Souvenir hunters will no longer have to leave the country in order to obtain the wooden shoes they used to collect in Switzerland. A Swiss woman, Mrs. Lena Koehlin, living in Portland, working on a lunch that the sabots would be popular here both for decorative and practical purposes, imported 1,500 pairs which she sold within two weeks. She plans sending to Switzerland for her father to start a factory in the lumber region in the west.

The shoes are made of ordinary weight water-proof leather on cherry or walnut soles and are intended for wet or cold weather.

AUTOGRAPH WORTH $51,000

MAMARONECK, N. Y. — Demand for autographs of signers of the Declaration of Independence means independence for John Cecil Clay, a shut-in artist, who was in straitened circumstances till he found in his barn a letter of Bullock Gwynett which brought $51,000 at auction.
