Hoxie Wax
Dramatic in Newest Feature

Jack Hoxie, who is the hero of "The Western Whirlwind," the Universal-Blue Strick Western which comes to the Star theater, Sunday only, portrays graphically the role of Jack Clayton, discharged soldier of the American Expeditionary forces in France, who returns to his ranch home, expecting of a hearty welcome and instead finds chaos.

This picture marks a new era in Western pictures. Not only has it a new and original plot but it contains great production value, wonderful scenic effects, exuberant comedy moments and an exceptionally capable cast.

Hoxie reaches the zenith of his screen career in "The Western Whirlwind." His ability as an expert Western, Roman and trick rider, is put to a difficult test, from which he emerges with added laurels.

Margaret Quimby is the lovable sweetheart and Edith Yorkie the mother.

One of the well known "Let George Do It" comedies will be shown.

This stirring story of the war of the cattlemen on the sheepmen for the open range is heralded as being the best this latest Western character has produced to date, and is full of stirring scenes, wonderful riding and is portrayed amongst the grandest of scenery.

It is guaranteed to please the most critical of the lovers of the great outdoors.

London's Night Clubs Said Dull
LONDON, Mar. 18. (AP)—Night clubs are flizzling out so fast in London that the newspapers are conducting extensive post mortems in an effort to find out why the clubs which are touted as being so gay are passing into bankruptcy or are padlocked for violating their liquor licenses by selling after hours.

"The plain truth is that the public has got on to the fact that most of the so-called exclusive night clubs are really dull and boreome and not half as pleasurable a place to dance as the larger hotels and restaurants which keep within the law," one journal says. "The clubs charge extortionate rates for drinks and food and do not deliver the goods."

New Comedy at Arcade Stars Colleen Moore

A guaranteed, gloom-chaser is playing at the Arcade theater today and Saturday. It is Colleen Moore in "Orchids and Ermine," a thoroughly satisfying story of what happened to a little telephone operator at the lobby switchboard of a big New York hotel when she came into contact with a real young handsome millionaire, some butter-and-egg men, a few diggers and other Broadwayites.

Colleen never was more chic than as the little pug-pusher who turns things upside down after she leaves her job in a dusty cement factory and wins the lofty social position of operator in the hotel.

Endless sparkling fun has been packed into the screen story which contains dozens of real New York scenes. Too much praise cannot be given the brilliant performance of Jack Mulhall, who heads the supporting cast, as well as Sam Hardy, Gwen Lee, Alma Bennett, Hedda Hopper, Kate Price, Jed Prouty, Emily Fitzroy, Caroline Snowden, Yola D'Avril and Brooks Benedict.

The merit must also be accorded John McCormick, the producer; Carey Wilson, the author; Director Alfred Santell, and Meyvyn Le Roy, the comedy constructor.
