By Sister Mary BREAKFAST — Orange juice, cereal with cream, crisp broiled bacon, shirred eggs, bran toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Spinach in cream, spring salad, raisin bread and butter sandwiches, grape juice sponge, milk, tea.

DINNER — English beefsteak pudding, parsnip patties, head lettuce with cheese balls, junket ice cream with new maple sirup sauce, whole wheat rolls, milk, tea.

The English beefsteak pudding is rather unusual but very good and quite economical. The rule given will serve from four to six persons. If wanted for two or three persons, use half the quantity of each ingredient and bake the pudding in a small dish.

English Beefsteak Pudding One and one-half pounds round steak, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs.

Cut steak into inch cubes and sear quickly in a little fat in a very hot spider. Shake the spider and sear cubes quickly and on all their surfaces. Mix and sift flour, salt, pepper and baking powder. Add milk slowly, beating to make a smooth paste. Add eggs well beaten and the prepared meat. Turn into a well-greased baking dish, cover and bake one hour in a moderate oven.
