Hymn Pantomime Program To Be Held Wednesday

The program is completed and everything is in readiness for the pantomime of hymns to be given in the Zion Lutheran church here Wednesday evening, March 23, by the Luther league.

Only one program of this kind has ever been given in La Grande and that was given by the Luther league about two years ago. The program this year, however, will be much more elaborate and is expected to be even better than the first.

Those taking part have been working for several weeks preparing the program. The final practice will be tomorrow evening at the church.

Nineteen hymns will be given and while they are being sung by the choir or soloists, members of the Luther league will form a living picture of the hymn.

The first number will be "Silent Night, Holy Night," which will be pantomimed by Katie Keller, Natalie Ebert, Arthur Lund and Lillian Lund, with music by the choir. Other numbers will be: "I Love to Tell the Story," pantomimed by Mrs. L. H. Awea, Barbara, Ernest and Juanita Sittlinger and sung by Mrs. J. G. Sittlinger and Miss Anna Lottes;

"While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night," Anna Lottes, Natalie Ebert, Henry Jensen, Carl Johnson and Henry Ebert; and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," L. H. Awea, Fred Matthes Jr., Pauline Clausen and choir; "Perfect Peace," Lina Lottes and Marie Neukirchner, and "Onward Christian Soldiers," boy scout troop and choir;

"The Last Chime," Anna Lottes and Paul Knautz; "Jesus Shall Reign," campfire girls and choir; "Just As I Am," Anna Lottes and Lloyd Lund; "Abide With Me," Mrs. Frank Hanson; "Holy Bible, Book Divine," Mrs. J. G. Sittlinger and choir; "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," Mrs. Ernest Stoyka and choir; "Sweet Hour of Prayer," Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Awea, Barbara and Juanita Sittlinger, and Lina Lottes; "Rock of Ages," Anna Lottes and choir; "He is Risen," Lina Lottes, Lillian Lund and Pauline Clausen, with Paul Knautz and choir; "Lead Kindly Light," Mrs. Ernest Stoyka and choir; "Thy Will Be Done," Pauline Clausen, Frank Hanson, Fred Ebert, Fred Matthes Jr., and Lina Lottes; "The Way of the Cross Leads Home," Ida Neukirchner and choir; "The Dream City," Anna Lottes and Lina Lottes, and Paul Knautz.

Members of the choir are, soprano: Anna Lottes, Lina Lottes and Margaret Michelson; alto: Ida Neukirchner and Mrs. J. G. Sittlinger; tenors: G. L. Dutton, Fred Matthes Jr.; bass: L. H. Awea and Paul Knautz.

P.-T. Association Tea To Be Held At Lane Chapel

An interesting program has been arranged for tomorrow afternoon, when the Riveria Parent-Teacher association will give a tea at Lane chapel, to which all parent-teacher organizations in Union country are invited.

Women of the Riveria association are working today at the chapel, to which all parent-teacher organizations in Union country are invited.

The purpose of the tea is for the various organizations of the community to get acquainted and each guest will be tagged upon arrival with their name and the name of the association which they represent.

During the program the Rev. G. A. Pollard will talk on "The Responsibility of the Parents and the Responsibility of the Teacher to the Child." Mrs. M. T. Kennedy, vice president of the association, will talk on "Kindred Interests of Parents and Teachers." Mrs. J. C. Camp, second grade teacher at Riveria school, will speak on "The Value of the Parent-Teacher Association to the Teacher," and Jean Williams will give a musical reading.

The Rev. William R. Beece, minister of Portland and lecturer for the board of missions of the New Christian church, will give a lecture this evening in the Neighborhood club rooms, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Beece is the author of "God's Presence and Power in Man," "A Dozen Days for the Mind," and is editor of The New Christian Life. He is said to be an excellent speaker and makes his subjects thoroughly understood. Beginning this fall he will do national lecturing for the church throughout the entire United States. His subject tonight will be "Who Was Jesus Christ," and the lecture will be over in time for everyone who wishes to attend the Whitman glee club concert.

Tomorrow night he will give a second lecture in the neighborhood club rooms, the subject being "Emanuel Swedenborg, Prophet."
