Relief Society Celebrates Its 85th Anniversary

About 60 members of the Women's Relief Society of the Latter Day Saints church gathered at the monument hall last evening for a dinner, commemorating the 85th anniversary of the organization of the society.

This society is the oldest women's organization in the world, having first been organized Mar. 17, 1842, in the state of Illinois.

Dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock at several long tables, decorated with bouquets of the season's flowers.

After dinner community singing was enjoyed for a time, followed by games for the remainder of the evening.

An interesting meeting of the Art Research class was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hall K. Wallis at Island City.

Fourteen members were present and during the afternoon a discussion of "The Marvels of Roman Bridge Building" was given by Mrs. Fred Kiddle. Mrs. Lloyd H. Phipps talked about "The Marvels of the Roman Amphitheatre."

Following the program Mrs. E. P. Mossman conducted an examination on modern artists, which created more than a little interest.

The class will meet again Monday, April 3, at the home of Mrs. C. S. Moore.

Mrs. Jake Clark was hostess of a birthday surprise party last evening at her home on D avenue, honoring her husband's 56th birthday anniversary.

Twenty-six friends gathered at the Clark home at about 8 o'clock and an enjoyable evening was spent at dancing and games.

The hostess served refreshments at a late hour.

Will Arrange For More Lenten Teas

Arrangements will be made for the second of a series of lenten teas, which are being given by St. Peter's Aid society, Wednesday afternoon when the society will meet in regular session at the home of Mrs. C. C. Bull, with Mrs. B. W. Carr as hostess.

The tea will be held Thursday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5 at the home of Mrs. Bull. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited.

The Omaha campfire girl group met at the home of Miss Sally Sigrist Thursday evening for a campfire birthday council fire.

An interesting program was given with each girl of the group taking part, the subject being "Trees." After the program each girl was awarded the honors she had won since becoming a campfire girl. Following the awarding of the honors the girls played games, which were about trees.

Refreshments in keeping with St. Patrick's day, were served.

The Womanshaunts campfire girls, of the Greenwood school district, also met Thursday evening for a birthday ceremonial, honoring the 15th anniversary of the campfire organization.

The meeting was at the home of the guardian, Mrs. D. C. French and during the evening five girls were initiated, making a group of 16.

After the coronation the girls made ready for their regular sale at the school the following day. The money from the sales will go to pay for one year's subscription to Every Girls magazine for each of the campfire girls.

Mothers, Daughters Dine at Enterprise

ENTERPRISE (Special).—A mothers' and daughters' banquet was held Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, sponsored by the Women's club. The banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock, with 23 mothers and daughters seated at six long tables which were decorated with daffodils and other spring flowers. Menus and programs, hand painted by Mrs. D. Irwin and Mrs. Bert LaCroix, marked each place.

Twenty business men of the city served the banquet, which consisted of meat loaf and salmon loaf, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, salad, rolls, coffee, tea and cake.

Mrs. L. Lee Williams acted as toastmistress and gave the address of greeting. Mrs. C. C. White gave the invocation; Margaret Huber played a piano solo and a girls' trio sang.

"A Word from a Mother" was given by Mrs. G. M. Gully, and "A Word from a Daughter" was given by Catherine Dobbin. Two vocal numbers, "Three Wishes" and "The Second Minuet" were given by Mrs. H. B. Jamison.

Mrs. George Cherry spoke on the subject "The Youth of Today, the State Tomorrow," and Helen Savage gave a recitation "The Mother's Watch." The high school choir sang.

The committee in charge of the banquet consisted of Mrs. Daniel Boyd, chairman; Madeline J. H. Thompson, J. A. Egleston, R. I. Forsythe, J. F. Farrell, J. C. Swazze, C. W. Brown, D. R. Irwin, J. B. Ashwood and C. A. Miller.

ENTERPRISE (Special).—Mrs. Anne Lenhart and Mr. and Mrs. Bert LaCroix entertained the members of the Methodist Episcopal church choir and participants in an Easter cantata, to be given here, at their home Tuesday evening.

The cantata to be given is "Our Living Lord" by Wilson, and promises to be one of the best ever presented by the organization.

After the rehearsal the hostesses served refreshments. The next practice will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Strickler.

ENTERPRISE (Special).—The Presbyterian Aid society held a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Pooler, when the following officers were elected for the new year: Mrs. D. Boyd, president; Mrs. M. E. Jordan, vice president; Mrs. O. J. Millard, secretary; Mrs. H. C. Mahaffey, treasurer.

Mrs. H. M. Foster played a violin solo. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Jamieson Is Bridge Hostess

ENTERPRISE (Special).—Mrs. H. B. Jamison entertained the Thursday Bridge club and a few guests at her home Thursday afternoon at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

The table was decorated with yellow candles and baskets of yellow daffodils. A three-course luncheon was served with covers laid for 12.

After luncheon bridge was at play. Mrs. Holland, of Joseph, winning the most prize and Mrs. Ben Wentlers the club prize.

Guests, besides the club members, were Mrs. Holland, of Joseph; Mrs. Nora Campbell, of Watlowa; Mrs. Pearl McElroy and Mrs. Jean Bennett.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes, cereal, cream, eggs, poached in milk, hot toast, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetablechowder, toast sticks, salmon salad sandwiches, oatmeal cookies, hot lemonade.

DINNER—Baked lamb loaf, creamed new carrots, tomato jelly salad, cream cheese pie, cranberry sauce, coffee.

Since the vegetable chowder is made with milk, lemonade is suggested for the luncheon beverage. The very novelty of drinking hot lemonade for luncheon will make the drink welcome, while the drink itself affords an ideal way to give one's family valuable vitamins and the needed "spring tonic."

Three eggs, 1 tablespoon flour, 2/3 cup sugar, 1 cup cottage cheese, 1/2 cup cream, 1/2 cup blanched and chopped almonds, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup cranberries, 1/4 teaspoon salt, few grains nutmeg, plain pastry.

Put cheese, which should be very dry, through a colander. Combine with salt, nuts, cranberries, cream and melted butter. Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored and beat in flour and sugar mixed and sifted. Add first mixture and mix thoroughly. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Pour into a pie dish lined with plain pastry and bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes. The oven should be hot when pie is first put in and the heat reduced after 10 minutes. When heating the egg whites, brush the pastry in the pie dish with a little of slightly beaten whites. This will prevent the crust from becoming soggy.

WOMAN IS EXPERT ON MINING PROJECTS

DENVER, Colo.—Most women are well acquainted with the coal cellars of their own homes and therefore the acquaintance, Mrs. Ada T. Tibbets, chief clerk of the state coal mine inspector of Colorado, knows the depths and hazards of every coal mine in Colorado and enjoys the knowledge.

Developers of new and abandoned projects seek her advice. After 20 years in the department, she is declared to be one of the best informed persons on mining in the entire west.

HAS PRIVATE RIVER FOR FISHING GUESTS

LIMERICK, Ireland.—When the impulse to fish strikes Lady Olin Wynham-Quinn, she turns to her own little river which flows through her Adare Manor estate and empties into the River Shannon. Adare Manor is in the country known as the last Irish stronghold of James II.

Lady Olin, the daughter of Lord and Lady Dunraven, is one of Great Britain's most enthusiastic sportswomen. It was due to her fondness for fishing that parties over the week-end, at a feature of society life at the large country estate in days past, have been revived. Guests come even from London for this sport.

REDUCE ILLITERACY BEFORE NEXT CENSUS

ORLANDO, Fla.—Ignorance is not bliss and will be eradicated in the United States if the efforts of the General Federation of Women's clubs to stamp out illiteracy before the next census is taken in 1930 are successful. There are 5,600,000 illiterate persons in the country, and Mrs. William F.

Blackman of Orlando, is chairman of the federation's committee to teach those unlettered Americans to read and write.

Mrs. Blackman plans to enroll the backward men and women of our country in an educational course and gradually extend the work to cover the whole state. Other states adopting this program include Illinois, Kentucky, Kansas, Wisconsin, North Carolina and Maine.

FASCIST WOMEN IN WELFARE WORK

ROME.—Even the regime of fascism is affected by the American talent for social reform. An Italian woman, Princess Cristina Gulianini Bandini, receiving praise from Premier Mussolini and the hope for her work in behalf of the helpless women of Italy, acknowledged that her education in this field was acquired while she was a member of the League of Nations committee to investigate the white slave evil.

This committee was suggested by the league by Miss Grace Abbott of the children's bureau of the United States department of commerce and is supported by the American bureau of social hygiene.

By Williams Girl at Last To Wed Man of Choice

LONDON, Mar. 22 (AP).—Headline in today's London newspapers appeared the announcement in society phraseology of the betrothal of Miss Marcella Duggan, daughter of the Marchioness Curzon of Kedleston, to Edward Denis Rice.

Thus the friends of the young lady became aware that the marchioness who was Miss Grace Elvina Hinds, of Alabama, had at last given permission for Miss Marcella to marry the man of her choice. He is a 27-year-old barrister, the elder son of Henry Rice, of Danecourt, Kent.

Miss Duggan was a school girl when her mother married Lord Curzon in 1917. She soon won her stepfather's affection and became his constant companion. He bequeathed her his house at Broadstairs as "a token of affection." She was one of the outstanding debutantes of last year, for Spanish type of beauty epitomized her. Mr. Rice is tall and of fair complexion.

Breakfasts That "Stand By" You

Quaker Oats Urged Widely by Authorities

FOREMOST educators, editors as well as leading business institutions like General Electric Company, now are widely urging breakfasts that "stand by" as an important aid to success.

That's because it is now known that over 70% of the day's important work, in offices, stores, etc., falls into the four morning hours—the hours from 8:30 to 12:30.

In most American schools, including Princeton, Yale, most State Universities and some 2,000 grade schools throughout the country, 80% of the important classes are held before luncheon.

Thus, largely on expert advice, millions now start days with Quaker Oats—food that "stands by" one through the morning.

Excellent balanced in protein, carbohydrates, minerals and the important Vitamin B, this delicious food is ideal for banishing listless mornings.

Today get Quick Quaker that cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes or regular Quaker Oats at grocer's.

A Rare Dish! Baked Omelet Souffle Try It!

MOST women think an Omelet Souffle is difficult to prepare. This recipe proves it is not. And it also proves how generally useful Mazola is for all cooking—three uses from a single can—a perfect fat for frying—a shortening equal to butter in richness—a salad oil of the highest quality.

Once you try Mazola you will never go back to the old-fashioned methods of cooking.

This recipe is from Ida Bailey Allen's New Book "The Modern Method of Preparing Delightful Foods"—see coupon below.

BAKED OMELET SOUFFLE
4 eggs 1/2 tablespoon Argo
3 tablespoons hot water or Kingsford's Cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 tablespoon Mazola
1/2 teaspoon pepper

HEAT the Mazola in a quart-sized baking dish, rubbing the sides with the hot oil. Separate the eggs, beat the whites stiff and the yolks till creamy. Add the cornstarch, water and seasonings, fold in the whites, transfer to the heated baking dish and bake twelve to fifteen minutes in a hot oven, 375 degrees F.
