U. S. FAILS, WORD FROM THE SOUTH

Rumor Is That American-Mexican Commercial Treaty Is Off

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22 (AP)—An intimation that the United States had been unsuccessful in efforts to negotiate a commercial treaty with Mexico was contained today in a state department announcement that the smuggling convention between the two nations would terminate on Mar. 25.

In the absence of a commercial treaty or other arrangements with Mexico "safeguarding American commerce against possible discrimination," the statement said, the Washington government did not deem it advisable to continue the smuggling convention which might in certain contingencies bring the United States to cooperation for enforcement of laws of decrees relating to the importation of commodities of all sorts into another country.

The smuggling convention has a direct bearing on the American embargo on arms shipments into Mexico. Under this convention, even if the embargo were lifted, the U. S. would be required to notify Mexico of impending shipments from the United States of arms or any other commodity prescribed from importation under the Mexican law.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22 (AP)—Mexican Ambassador Teles conferred with President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg at the Coolidge residence on DuPont circle last night, and today he said he entertained nothing but the most optimistic views of future relations between the United States and Mexico.

TWO PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO CRIME

left open by Mrs. Snyder. Gray insisted he did not tie the clubbed victim, applied chloroform-saturated cotton to his face and then tied his hands and feet. Gray insisted he did not tie the wire around Snyder's throat.

Gray and Mrs. Snyder ransacked the house to indicate that Snyder was killed by burglars. After that, Gray continued he told Mrs. Snyder and left for Syracuse.

Before leaving Syracuse Saturday, Gray arranged to have a letter mailed to his wife when Mrs. Snyder and he also arranged to have the bed in his hotel room disturbed to indicate that he had slept there.

Burned Clothing
A blue shirt belonging to Snyder was found in Gray's hotel room. This, he said, was given him by Mrs. Snyder to replace his own stained with blood when the art editor was slain. He said a blood stained kimono and a nightgown of Mrs. Snyder were burned after the killing.

Gray had been regarded by his friends as a man of exemplary conduct. He was an active church worker in East Orange, N. J., where he lived.

His affair with Mrs. Snyder originated in a flirtation in a restaurant two years ago.

Police doubted Mrs. Snyder's first story of "giant burglars" when they found a diary which told of her affair with Gray, and when they found jewelry which she had said had been stolen.
