PORTLAND TEAM MAY COP TITLE

Outlook in Beaver Camp in San Jose Is Far from Dull and Sombre

By William C. Etheredge
NEA Service Writer

SAN JOSE, Cal., Mar. 24—Watch the Portland Beavers this year. If experience means anything, this club will put up a hard battle for the 1927 pennant of the Pacific Coast league.

There is a sprinkling of youngsters in the lineup, but Pres. Thomas L. Turner will depend upon his older players to pull the club to the top. That is the way things look here in training camp before the season opens. Turner refuses to be optimistic. Mer. Kinnis Johnson is.

Like the Seals, though, the Beavers' prospects hinge upon possibilities. James "Doc" Prothro, star third sacker, voted the best in the league, has been holding out and may not play. The pitching staff still is an unknown quantity. And youth may have its influence if Chalmers "Big" Cissell, the 113,000 "boy wonder" shortstop, proves to be the ringtailed wonder he was when Turner laid down a fancy price for him to Des Moines.

Prothro wants $1000 a month, and desires a six-month contract to Memphis, Tenn., and go into business. Stan Baumgartner, south-paw flinger, is the only other hold-out, but has accepted transportation money.

The pitching staff has been bolstered by addition of Walter Kinbey, huge portlander formerly with the Athletics, and "Cowboy" Ed Tomlin, mammoth buckaroo from Newark of the International league, and the Detroit Tigers. Both are strong hitters.

Cissell looks just as good in camp as did Hal Rhyne in his first year of play. In one practice game he rapped out three hits in four times at bat.

Elmer Smith, leading home runner of the league, and Bill Bagley, who led the league with 192, top the list of hitters.

The Beavers may not cop the pennant, but they'll not be in the cellar—not by a Beaver's damself.

Billy Edwards Is Winner of Match

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 24 (AP)—Billy Edwards, Kansas City light heavyweight wrestler, took two out of three falls last night. Pergandus, who substituted for Tom Alley, took the bout on less than an hour's notice. Edwards won the first and third falls while Pergandus got the second.

Alley was unable to appear because of an infected left knee cap.

It was announced Clete Kaufman, Columbus, Ohio, and Edwards would meet in the public auditorium here next Monday night.

Featherweights Fight Slow Tilt

SALEM, Ore., Mar. 24 (AP)—Ad Mackle, Portland, claimant of the featherweight championship of the Pacific coast, won a slow 10-round decision over Art Humphreys, Everett, Wash., here last night. Mackle took practically every round.

THE POLITEST

ST. LOUIS—Politest folks seeking public patronage are barbers and other beautifiers. Undertakers come next. So a survey by the national association of retail clothiers has determined.

Eugene Will Not Go to Chicago

EUGENE, Ore., Mar. 24 (AP)—Lack of sufficient funds to finance the trip has caused cancellation of the entrance of the Eugene high school basketball team into the national tournament in Chicago. The Eugene players, champions of Oregon high school circles, had planned to leave this morning.

AUSTRALIA MAKES SCOTCH

MELBOURNE, Australia—Australians are now making Scotch whiskey. The Distillers' company of Edinburgh decided to erect a plant here when consignments of Victorian barley were tested in Scotch stills to the satisfaction of experts.

-the password to pipe-pleasure

GIVE the sign to the man behind the counter and he will hand you a tin of the grandest tobacco that ever smuggled in the bowl of a pipe. Throw back the lid and revel in that tantalizing aroma of real tobacco. Load up and light up. There you have it!

That is Prince Albert, Gentlemen—smoked by more men than any other pipe-brand. This overwhelming preference didn't "just happen." It exists for the single reason that P. A. brings more deep-down, solid satisfaction out of a pipe than any diet you could put it on.

The very first pull will tell you that Prince Albert is unlike any other tobacco. Notice how cool it smokes, no matter how wide you open the throttle. Notice, too, that it doesn't bite the tongue or parch the throat, no matter how often you fill-up and pull-in.

You may think you are all set on a smoke-program. Fair enough. But don't let that interfere with your getting a first-hand knowledge of what P. A. offers in real pipe-pleasure. Where there's so much P. A. smoke, there must be the fire of truth. Try it and see!

PRINCE ALBERT

—the national joy smoke!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin tins, and round crystal glass tins with sponge-consister top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.
