Two Attractive Parties Given at F. S. Ivanhoe Home

Two attractive parties of the spring season took place this week at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe on Fourth street, the first one being a luncheon on Tuesday at which Mrs. W. H. Holmquist, Sr. and Mrs. Ivanhoe were hostesses.

Luncheon was served at 12:15 o'clock, the 40 guests being seated at 10 small tables, which were prettily appointed in a lovely setting of scheme of pink and orchid. Sweet peas were the flowers used in a centerpiece for each table, and the place cards, which were in the form of tulips, also typified the spring season.

Bridge was the diversion following luncheon, with high score for the first prize going to Mrs. Lee Jackson. Mrs. Lee Bonvay received the second prize.

The second party was yesterday afternoon and was as delightful as the first. Mrs. Holmquist, Mrs. Ivanhoe and Mrs. W. B. Haver were the hostesses.

Ten tables of bridge were enjoyed during the afternoon, with Mrs. Lloyd Pierce winning the first prize, Mrs. Grover Grinnett second, and Mrs. Stephens, third. The pink and orchid color scheme was used again and also novelty score cards.

At 4:15 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reuter entertained the members of the evening club and a few guests last evening at their home on First street.

Six tables of bridge were at play. The club prize among the women players went to Mrs. F. L. Halston, and R. J. Green won the men's prize. Mrs. Arthur R. Bonvay received the guest prize.

Refreshments followed the card games.

Mrs. Lee Bonvay will have the afternoon club Saturday, April 2.

Three tables of bridge were at play yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Sherrill Ewin was hostess to the members of the Helonia Bridge club at the home of Mrs. Clarence Green on Cedar street.

Mrs. Harris French made high score during the afternoon's play.

The Seonag-taha campfire girls met yesterday afternoon at the high school building, the meeting being called to order at 2:45 o'clock by the president, Mrs. Dorothy Brown. A discussion followed on the public ceremonial to be held April 8.

Mrs. Grace Bussey was present and gave an interesting talk on birds, telling the girls that in identifying birds a system is necessary.

She gave an outline by which to recognize birds, and told the girls never to go birding on a windy day, but that a sunny day was especially good.

The next meeting of the group will be a hike for the purpose of identifying birds.

On Arbor day the girls are planning to plant six trees on the high school grounds.

Honoring the fourth birthday anniversary of her son, Jack, Mrs. Chester Koyle entertained 11 children at a birthday party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French.

The children enjoyed games during the afternoon, one being a peanut hunt, with Muriel Lavan finding the most peanuts.

Later in the afternoon the little guests were served with ice cream and cake, a birthday cake in yellow and white with four light candles serving as a centerpiece for the table.

The little honor guest received many gifts.

rons of the chapter had charge of the social following the regular lodge session.

C. M. Humphreys was chairman in charge. Mrs. John S. Hodgins, worthy matron, presided over the lodge meeting.

In the attendance contest the side headed by Mrs. C. W. Noyes, and made up of members whose names begin with the letters of the alphabet from M to Z, is ahead by two points for the first time. The other team is headed by Miss Pauline Lederle. The contest will close with the last meeting in May.

An interesting meeting of the Bible Searchers class of the First Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Condit, with Mrs. W. Mohr and Mrs. E. G. Kirby assisting as hostesses. About 20 members were in attendance and Mrs. Harry Turner, president of the class, presided.

Mrs. H. H. Cleaver gave a reading on "Modern Poems" and Miss Mildred Spencer played two piano selections during the program.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially, when the hostesses served luncheon.

The Loyal Sisters of the Christian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Hough, with Mrs. Earl Hough and Mrs. Arno Voelz assisting as hostesses.

About 28 members were present and after the short business meeting, presided over by Mrs. C. W. Bunting, an interesting program was presented.

Gail McMaster and Ola Mae Hough played a piano duet and responded to the encore, each playing a solo number. Mrs. Marcel sang, accompanied by Mrs. H. J. Kitchen at the piano.

The hostesses served luncheon following the program.

The Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Hanford with about 15 women in attendance.

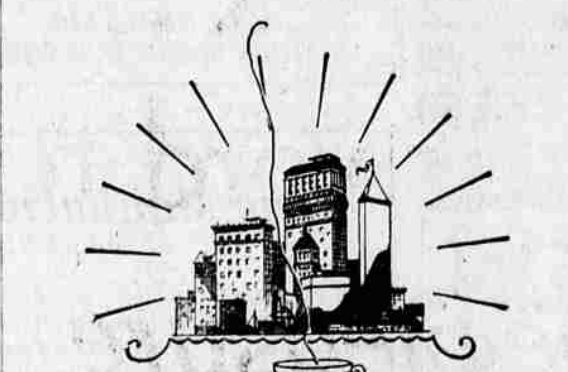

Mrs. H. W. Parker led in the devotional. During the business meeting it was decided to discontinue the home guards for the year, the work of the organization being completed.

Mrs. L. V. Duncan had the afternoon program, the subject being "The Rural Church at Its Best."

After the lesson a social was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting of the society will be April 27, at the home of Mrs. Elva Pierson.

Plans were made for today's luncheon tea yesterday afternoon when the members of St. Peter's

WOMEN LEGISLATORS CALL NIGHT SESSIONS
LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—Arkansas has two women legislators who get what they want, even when they demand extra legislative sessions.

Although the house voted down other proposals for night sessions, when Mrs. Florence McIlvaine and Mrs. Mary B. Wigstrand pleaded for evening meetings so that their bills might get proper consideration, it agreed.

Mrs. McIlvaine, represents Pulaski, the largest county in the state, while Polk county, represented by Mrs. Wigstrand, is one of the smallest.

INDIANS BURN FEET
AUSTIN, Tex.—Three Tarahumara Indian runners from Mexico who are to race here Friday have swollen feet from placing them on steam pipes in Pullman cars. The three men and three women in the party wore no socks.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Strawberry, fresh pineapple, cereal, cream, baked French toast, maple syrup, milk.
LUNCHEON—Spinach and mushrooms on toast, brown bread, jelly, coconut tapioca cream, milk, tea.
DINNER—Roast chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, creamed dried corn, spiced figs, asparagus salad, chocolate ice cream, crisp nut cookies, graham rolls, milk, coffee.

Spiced figs can be made this time of year when the stock of preserves and butters—the fruit of last season's labors—is getting low. You will like its suggestion of tartness with hot or cold meats and particularly with mild flavored meats such as veal and chicken.

Spiced Figs
Two pounds figs, one orange, 1 lemon, 2 cups granulated sugar, 1 1/2 cups vinegar, 1/4 ounce stick cinnamon, 1/2 ounce whole cloves.
Wash figs through several waters. Cover with cold water and let stand over night. Add spices tied in a small cheesecloth bag. Wash orange and lemon well and cut both in thin slices. Remove seeds and add to syrup. Bring to the boiling point and add figs. Simmer for two hours. Remove spices. Put into sterilized jars and seal.
