Miss Pierson And Cecil D. Kelley Married Sunday

Miss Leta Pierson, daughter of Mrs. T. E. Pierson, of this city, and Cecil D. Kelley were united in marriage at a quiet wedding at the home of the bride's mother on N. Avenue Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, with only the members of the two immediate families in attendance.

The Rev. George H. Pease, of Wallawa, formerly pastor of the first Methodist Episcopal church here, performed the ring ceremony.

The bride was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harold Hovattman and Harry Kelley, the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

Miss Pierson was lovely in a dress of white silk, the material for which was sent by the bridegroom's aunt from China, who is a nurse aboard a United States liner. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridegroom wore an overcoat.

An informal wedding breakfast followed the ceremony and immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Kelley left by auto on a honeymoon trip to Portland and coast points.

They will be away for about two weeks, and then will return to La Grande to make their home at the Kitchen apartments.

Mr. Kelley is associated with the state highway department here.

The Osoha campfire girls enjoyed a tracking hike Saturday. Three of the group, going ahead and leading the trail for the rest to follow. The trail started at Central school and led around the foothills west of town and came out on the highway beyond the hospital, then to the Bowman-Hicks mill and to Riverside park.

When the girls had all reached the park and had rested a short time a campfire was built and refreshments were served.

A short time was spent in the park before the girls started home. Before they reached town they sang many of their campfire songs.

Each girl in the party will receive a certificate of honor for tracking two miles.

The regular meeting of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Claude Busick, with Mrs. Ruckel, Mrs. Earl Davis and Mrs. George Solberg as hostesses.

The program on "Fortifiers in the United States" was given by Mrs. Viola Parker, assisted by Mrs. Solberg, Mrs. C. T. Holly led in the devotional.

The hostess committee served refreshments before adjournment.

UNION (Special)—Mrs. W. H. Vogel entertained the members of St. John's guild of the Episcopal church at her home in North Union Tuesday afternoon.

During the business meeting plans were made to send a missionary box to the Episcopal mission at Park Yakon, Alaska.

A social followed the business session, during which time the hostess served refreshments.

During a group of songs showing their progress in music since last fall, when they entered school, several of the group singing solos.

The president, Mrs. C. B. Johnson, then conducted the regular business session.

Mrs. Camp, of the Riviera association, gave an interesting paper on "Present Day Problems—For Parents and Teachers," in which she brought out many instructive phases.

Mrs. A. V. Lindgren, chairman of the campfire girls' auxiliaries organization, discussed campfire girl work, pointing out the many benefits to be derived by the girls who become members of the organization. A member of Souni-etchah campfire girl group told of the benefits she has received to far from being a campfire member.

Miss Virginia Waller, of Caney, Kas., has been chosen queen of the annual Tulsa, Okla., Rose Carnival May 29 and 31, and this picture seems to prove the judges were men of wisdom. But Miss Waller is very smart as well as beautiful. As a student in Kansas State Agricultural College she has been presented with a sorority ring awarded each year to the co-ed making the best scholastic record among the 2500 girls of the institution.

The orange marmalade is quite perfect for the lamb croquettes used in the luncheon menu. Without the tang of the marmalade the meat would be uninteresting and monotonous as to flavor, although well balanced and nourishing.

Baked Lamb Croquettes

One and one-half cups left-over roast lamb, 1/2 cup cold boiled rice, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1/2 tablespoon minced parsley, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg, buttered crumbs.

Put lamb through food chopper and measure. Mix meat and rice thoroughly. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Add with seasonings to meat mixture. Beat egg and add all but 4 tablespoons to mixture. Beat mixture with a fork or slotted spoon until perfectly blended. Turn into four buttered custard cups; brush over with reserved egg, sprinkle with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven for 25 minutes. Turn out on a platter and serve with buttered or creamed peas.

Gay Chiffon Is A Popular Dress

PARIS, (AP)—Gay chiffon dance frocks made over pink and silver cloth are a late phase of the Paris fashion.

In a season of extremely short skirts and silhouettes slenderized to the limit of the dress designers' power, gay dancing dresses on youthful women give the effect of a puff of smoke or little cloud of fog. They carry out perfectly Paris' new ideal of the femininity more on suggestion than reality.

KENTUCKY TOWN HAS WOMAN POLICE JUDGE

LOYALL, Ky. — Taxi driving over Kentucky mountains earned a police judgeship for Mrs. Hattie Casey of Loyall. Working as a taxi driver, Mrs. Casey earned her college tuition and then qualified for her present office. A similar position is held in Kentucky by Mrs. Mary Mullins of Mount Vernon.

"I expect to stick to the law," said Mrs. Casey, "but I can still be considerate of the people before me."

11 MINUTES OF SLEEP

ATLANTIC CITY.—Another account about Tom Edison's four hours sleep nightly is out. Dr. Alford P. Haake, of New York, says he has been experimenting and has found that the average person gets but 11 minutes actual sleep in a night—that is sleep while perfectly still, and Edison has learned how to get real slumber.

Lambskin Jackets Adorned With Batik

PARIS, (AP)—Separate jackets to be worn with sport costumes are of many varieties in Paris where each dressmaker has his own ideas for small sport coats.

Premet has revived batik for the bright little jackets of kid which this house shows. Worn with two-piece sport costumes in pale colors, or with white pleated shirt jackets—little Jacob roasts—make simple costumes brilliant.

The New York Y. M. C. A. has given two thousand bachelors quarters in its buildings a year in which to find a wife and home. The last census gave New York City 837,000 bachelors between the ages of twenty-four and thirty-four. Once there was an artist who had a model wife.

You Pay

No more, no less... but Quaker Oats has the flavor

MONEY BACK

Schilling Tea

The only tea whose flavor is completely protected... kept fresh and fragrant from tea-garden to tea table. Five kinds of protection - all exclusively Schilling - for the true tea flavors known only in the Orient: (1) Twice-toasted - the only way to unmask rich hidden flavors of a tea leaf. (2) Then the leaves sealed in vacuum (like your coffee) - but sealed HOT at its most aromatic moment. (3) The world's only key-wind vacuum tin for tea... with a Snug Cover... to protect it even after you open it. (4) Of the many grades of Orange Pekoe, only the choicest, most fragrant, are blended with Pekoe in Schilling's. (5) Your grocer protects you - he returns your money instantly if you don't like Schilling's best. You keep the tea.

Orange Pekoe

Also Green Tea (Japan)

Quaker Oats

THE difference in breakfast oats is in their flavor. The price mostly is the same.

Millions demand the Quaker brand for its tasty, wonderful flavor. For flavor is the important point in food.

Some 50 years were spent perfecting that famous Quaker flavor. Once you taste it, you are spoiled for ordinary oats.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Protein, carbohydrates and vitamins and "bulk" are thus combined to make Quaker Oats an excellently balanced ration.

Get Quick! Quaker (cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes) or Quaker Oats today at your grocer. See how much finer tomorrow's breakfast will be than today's.
