PARIS—It is estimated that it costs Paris $20,000 annually for its share of the expense of municipal fetes and receptions.

One reason it's safer to breathe through our noses is because that makes us keep our mouths shut.

Business Man in Smoking Car: "Yeh—I began small. Had nothing when I started in business—except my brains."

"But lady," a marriage-license clerk explained to a movie-actress applicant, "the law compels me to record all previous marriages before I issue a license."

"Good Lord!" exclaimed her prospective husband. "And I've got a taxi waiting!"

"Pop, can't we move soon?" "Move? Why?"

"Well, I've licked all the kids in this neighborhood."

The Boy Friend: "Say who's the dumb-looking guy that drives your car around and works in the garden. I notice he always gives me a nasty look when I come in."

The Girl Friend: "Oh, don't mind him. That's just father."

Mr. Brown's experience rather refutes the idea that it is advisable to catch 'em young and treat 'em rough.

To Tom, who had been cutting up, his mother exclaimed wearily: "Why can't you be a good boy?" "Well, Mother, I'll be good for a nickel."

Mother: "For shame, you ought to be like your father, good for nothing!"

School Children In Danger
Many parents feel that schools today push children too hard. Certainly their growing bodies need strong powers of resistance. Watch your child for depleted health and vitality, loss of flesh, failure to gain weight, fretfulness, lack of appetite for proper food, etc. These are warning signals. Get hold of him in time.

A short course of Cod Liver Treatment works wonders for most any run-down child. It's a great strength-giver and body-builder. And now instead of the old style fishy tasting oil, you can get at Red Cross Drug Store or any drug store genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, as easy to take as candy. Thirty days' use must benefit your child or the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Today is a good time to start. Adv.

AT THE THEATERS

Tom Meighan at The Star in "Blind Alleys"

Thomas Meighan, hero of many a romance, drama and comedy, enters a new field with his current Paramount production, "Blind Alleys," which arrives at the Star theater today for a three day run. The new vehicle can only be described in one way. It is melodrama—fast, thrilling, very impossible but—and this is more important—superbly entertaining!

"Blind Alleys" presents Tom as a marine captain, newly married to a charming Cuban senorita. On the first night of their honeymoon they arrive in New York and proceed to back up against a series of events which separate them. Meighan is struck by an auto and removed to a hospital and Greta Nissen, his wife, finds herself embroiled with a gang of desperate thugs.

Tom eventually leaves the hospital, only to fall unconscious on the street and wake up in a boarding house room with a beautiful woman, Evelyn Brent, nursing him back to health. What happens when Greta is rescued and finds her husband in his new surroundings provide the picture with many more dramatic situations than could possibly be adequately described at this time.

"Our Gang" will also be present on the same program in their newest comedy, "Bring Home the Turkey."

War on Mosquitoes
LONDON—The British College of Pathology is waging relentless war against horrid mosquitoes which make ancient Ripping Forest on the northern outskirts of London, unendurable in summer.

Hundreds of volunteers mosquito-fighted, armed with chemicals, advance through the forest on foot, bicycles, and motor cars, deluging the pests with chemicals which, neutralized with road dust, destroy mosquito eggs but do not injure flowers.

POTPOURRI
Casualties in the days news: Man fell 12 feet and fractured both arms and both legs. Some people get all the breaks.

Cabaret soprano disappeared while on her way from Europe. Maybe she was killed while on the high seas.

Illinois somnambulist walked off a second-story balcony for the second time in a month. Must have been a full yawn.

Rancher grooved easy mark for confidence men. Now one crook is dead, the other wounded. Confidence men proved easy mark for rancher.

Woman practiced with a revolver.

Comedy Scores Hit At Sherrys

"The Prince of Pilsen," a new comedy which was presented with great success at the Sherry theater yesterday, is an example of the unusual in modern film production, and qualifies splendidly as a distinct screen novelty. It is a lively farcical production dealing with court life in a mythical European kingdom, and the comedy element is ever present and reliable.

George Sidney, featured as Hans Wacker, a Cincinnati brewer who, on going to his old home in Pilsen, is mistaken for the Prince of Pilsen himself, is the chief comedian, and reveals himself as a thorough actor. Anita Stewart, who plays the part of his daughter Nellie, is seen in a role which provides full scope for her dramatic ability, and of which she makes the most.

The chief supporting roles are portrayed by Myrtle Steadman and Allan Forrest, both of whom add immeasurably to the strength of the cast and the enjoyable qualities of the picture. It was directed by Paul Powell, who has here shown a fine sense of comedy values.

"The Prince of Pilsen" was produced by A. H. Sebastian for Belasco Productions, and is released by Producers Distributing Corporation.

PREPENS BUTTERFLIES
CHICAGO—Whenever she has a chance Mrs. Jacob Hair, wealthy Chicago woman and candidate last year for the Republican Congressional nomination, develops a butterfly motif in her dress.

Her clothes often have a headed butterfly pattern, and last Christmas her holiday greeting cards were sealed with vari-colored butterflies.
