AT THE THEATERS

"Love's Greatest Mistake" At Star Tomorrow

Here's one to be put on your list of motion pictures not to be missed. "Love's Greatest Mistake," which will show Sunday and Monday at the Star theater, is one of these pictures which is just naturally a smashing hit. It is Paramount's newest dramatic offering based on the Liberty Magazine story of the same name.

Josephine Dunn, the Paramount school graduate, here for the first time featured, treats to a finished performance as the girl, Honey McNell, who is bored with life in her small Pennsylvania home town. She is a natural prey to the Manhattan wolves who prowl about in ruxedex, but her innate sense of decency and honesty keep her on the "straight and narrow."

Frank Morgan as William Ogden the banker who is intrigued with Honey's native beauty gives us the perfect characterization of the tired business man, who spends his evenings in search of recreation. And William Powell shines as the Don Juan of blackmailers in his interpretation of the role of Kendall. Evelyn Brent is to be commended for her work as Jane, Honey's married sister.

"Why Girls Say No," is no second "Abie's Irish Rose" in plot, theme or background, but it is said to be one of the laughing hits of the season and this two-level hit comedy will be a feature of the attractive bill Sunday and Monday at the Star theater.

Three Millards Head Vaudeville Bill Sunday

A versatile vaudeville program, consisting of fast and lively stppers, clever musicians, pleasing novelties, singers, and laughable comedians is promised at the Arcade theater on Sunday.

The three Millards head the bill in a dance offering with musical interruptions, embellishing their vehicle with beautiful scenic effects, draperies, and fetching gowns. Bird & Young, "The Two Saps," present a funny oddity that is a combination of song, talk, and dancing. LaGros & Anna offer "A Musical Divertissement," an artistic cycle of songs and music with a few imitations.

A singing and talking comedian, out-dances each act on the bill with a comedy vein. Foley & Cummings in "Ups and Downs" offer an athletic novelty done by two exceptionally clever acrobats.

Dog Star In Picture at Sherrys Today

Off the net you'd have difficulty in finding two better pals than Al Ferguson and "Fangs." The Dog Star, both of whom have prominent roles in "The Sherry's Cat," one of the Ben Wilson-Hayart Star Westerns, scheduled for presentation at the Sherry theater today only. But with the cameras grinding it's an entirely different story! Ferguson, you see, is almost always seen in a "heavy" characterization, while "Fangs" is invariably aligned with the forces of Law and Order in the interesting series Ben Wilson is now producing.

So perfect is the intelligent canine's understanding of his work that, invariably, when he sees Ferguson on the set his ears go back and his lips curl to disclose the double row of wicked ivory teeth that gave him his name. And when he and Al fight—as the turn of the plot sometimes demands—it's no sham fight but a pitched encounter with both participants using everything they've got.

"Abie's Irish Rose" Coming to La Grande Again

That "Abie's Irish Rose" is the most popular play the world has ever known is proven by the following long run records, which Miss Anne Nichols' famous comedy has established in various large cities of the United States.

The hilariously funny Irish Jewish comedy will be seen here at the Arcade Tuesday evening, Apr. 12. These are some of the records:

New York—Five years and still running.
Detroit—twenty-eight weeks.
Chicago—fifty-eight weeks.
Pittsburgh—Twenty-two weeks.
Los Angeles—Forty-two weeks.
Toronto—Seventeen weeks.
Montreal—ten weeks.
San Francisco—twenty-two weeks.
Denver—Nine weeks.
Seattle—four weeks.

Comedy Hit Coming To Sherrys Sunday

"Footloose Widows," the Warner picture which comes to the Sherry theater on Sunday for a run of two days, is one of the best farce-comedies ever written. It is a story of two girls in a fashionable New York specialty shop who decide that the way to nab a rich husband is to go to a big hotel in Florida, wearing the gowns that have made their shop famous, and to pose as wealthy widows, footloose and fancy free.

Louise Fazenda is featured. But in this picture she is not the Fazenda of old Sennett Studios, serving maid days, but a finished comedienne, who has left her slapstick behind her and achieved an impersonation that for its charm, beauty and gay sense of comedy values puts her close to the top of screen comedienne.
