THE RADIO
Far from out the ethereal blue sweetest music greets my ear, Tones that melt and permeate Making rosy what was drear. And I listen while my soul Soars in thrilling ecstasy The price of pork, a rule for jam Single with the melody! Oh, radio, to thee I sing A grateful song for all you bring!

MEDICAL SPRINGS PERSONALS

MEDICAL SPRINGS (Special)—After several days of snow and rain the weather is like spring again. Forth in this locality are busy sowing spring grain and alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hayes, of Portland, are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Kennedy. George Koslosky returned home Sunday evening after spending two weeks at Rexburg, Ida., where he was called by the death of his mother.

After being ill for a week Mrs. B. Rumburg is able to be at school again.

John, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kennedy, has been confined to her home ill of scarlet fever. She is able to attend school again now.

F. Whitten is improving his farm house by installing a water system.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will leave soon for their new home near Spoken, Wash. They have been residents of Medical Springs for many years and will be missed in this community.

Lester Miller is at Baker with his brother, Griston, who is ill in the hospital there.

Mrs. A. Broskie, of Boise, Ida., is visiting her husband at the Twin Baby mines.

Joe With and family and H. Harrison and family are moving to Medical Springs from Whitney to work in the mill here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Huffman, of Union, spent Sunday with home folks. They also took home some baby chicks from the Rumburg and Powers poultry ranch.

Miss Maxine Duncan has been going to Baker for medical treatment twice each week.

AT THE THEATERS

"Don Juan" Opens Run at Arcade Today

Since the Sixteenth Century Spanish monk, Gabriel Telles, wrote "El Burlador de Sevilla" (The Deceiver of Seville), the central character, Don Juan, has gone through hundreds of transformations in drama, poetry and story, but it remained for the Warner Brothers to bring the character to the screen in the big spectacular production that opens at the Arcade theater today for a run of three days.

John Barrymore, who plays "Don Juan," is possibly the one actor who could make convincingly real the romantic spell that has been cast over the world by the legend of this most fascinating of lovers. Appearing against the background of the Renaissance when the Borgias were in the saddle and life teemed with passionate desire, the loves, laughs and fights are the very epitome of romantic drama.

The picture was directed by Alan Crossland, and its cast includes such notables as Mary Astor, Estelle Taylor, Helene Costello, Myrna Loy, Jane Winton, John Roche, Lionel Barrymore, June Marlowe, Phyllis Haver, Helen Lee Worthling, Philippe de Lacy, Nigel de Bruiler, Hedda Hopper, Helena Daly, Sheldon Lewis, John George, Warner Oland, Montagu Love, Josef Swickard, Emily Fitzroy, Gibson Gowland and Gustav von Seiffertz. The screen version was prepared by Hess Meredyth, who wrote "The Sea Beast." She used Lord Byron's "Don Juan" poem as a basis for much of her material.

Harold Lloyd Returns to City In Last Comedy

Lovers of the great outdoors have a treat in store for them with "Harold Lloyd's clown chase," "The Kid Brother," shows at the Star theater Friday and Saturday because the greatest portion of the picture was made in the open spaces of California. The Lasky ranch in Dark Canyon, just outside of Hollywood, provided a large measure of the locale in "The Kid Brother," while the beautiful waters of Arroyo also provided their quota of "shots."

The story of "The Kid Brother" is set in a tiny town nestled in the mountain foothills. Lloyd gets away from the stereotyped feet yarn, which has been done to death in motion pictures, and throughout the entire picture not a gun is fired. It's just a human interest comedy ripe with carefully correlated romance, drama, and thrills, the type of plot in which the best-acted comedians revel.

"The Kid Brother" is the sympathetic type of characterization which was popular in "The Freshman," "Gri Shy," "Grandma's Boy," and other of his most successful pictures.

"The Kid Brother" will be another great success, is beyond question, for those who have seen Paramount's current release acclaim it as being in a class with Harold's best. What more could any audience possibly ask of a picture?

SPONSOR REVIVAL OF NEEDLE CRAFTS

CHICAGO—The art of needlework will be revived with the organization, by Chicago women, of a Needlework and Textile Guild. Mrs. Edgar Palmer, Mrs. Chauncey Horland and Mrs. Gustavus Swift are sponsors of a permanent exhibition of needle crafts at the Art Institute. The collection will be changed frequently to show all phases of the art and lectures will be given on its history.

"Without Mercy" Actions in Action

"Without Mercy" the George Melford production presented by Metropolitan Pictures, Inc., which appears on the screen at the Sherway theater today for a two-day run, is a story of two women, mother and daughter, who have both fallen into the clutches of the same man.

The mother, who learned her lesson and luckily escaped him twenty years back, is faced with explaining him and his wiles to her susceptible daughter, who has both enamored with him.

To do this she suffers her life to be bared to the girl, and proves her case with scars she still bears from his hands. But the man's hold is strong on the girl, who loves him and believes in him.

The subsequent decision of the daughter changes many lives, sends one man to prison and keeps another man from being elected to the United States Senate before she sees her error. The story vibrates with action, and is tense with the emotions rising from great loves and hates.

In the cast are Dorothy Phillips, Rockefelle Fellows, Vera Reynolds, Robert Ames, and Lionel DeMora. The picture is released through Producers Distributing Corporation.

3200 Baby Chix Shipped to Lake

HOT LAKE, Ore., Apr. 7 (Special)—A shipment of 3,200 baby chicks was received at Hot Lake sanatorium farms yesterday from the Salem hatchery, Salem, Ore. The shipment consists of 3,000 white leghorns and 200 black anconas.

The brooder houses at the farm are heated with natural hot water from a spring and the poultry yards well equipped for this addition to the flock.

79 Years Young—Thanks Tanlac

Aged Lighthouse Keeper Tells Story of Health Restored.

Many men and women in this era die unnecessarily. As S. H. Borland, a respected resident of Milwaukee, Ore., says: "Without good health a man's life is unbearable. Sooner or later he breaks down."

"I've had a narrow escape. I neglected my health, and grew so nervous I couldn't sleep. My stomach would not digest food and had to stick to milk and eggs only. I forced myself to this and even then was tormented by sharp pains. I was in constant misery."

"A friend told me about Tanlac and I began taking it. This wonder tonic toned me up and made me a new man. Now I eat everything without trouble. I sleep like a child. I'm almost 80 years old now, but feel stronger and better than in many years, thanks to Tanlac."

Tanlac, nature's own remedy made from roots, barks and herbs, is sold by your druggist.

the opening of the model American home in Paris over which a French woman, Madame Boas de Jouvenal, will preside as hostess.

The structure was originally brought to France as part of a "model homes" exhibit. It was subsequently officially dedicated by the Bienville-Francaise, which means "welcome to France society."

Mme. de Jouvenal is one of its founders. During the war she was one of the hostesses of that organization and extended its courtesies to American officers stationed in France.
