MAJOR LEAGUES PLAY TOMORROW

Baseball's Annual Race for World Series Honors to Begin in East

By the Associated Press. The baseball season, swept clear of winter's clouds and uncertainty and stove league players, will burst brightly, exultantly into view again tomorrow.

Some of the best known stars will twinkle from different patches of the blue, after long seasons of permanency in other constellations. A diamond astronomer who slept through the winter would be dumfounded at the change. There will be some new lights up there; risen to the first magnitude from the milky way of the minors; and there will be a few of the brilliant ones right back in the same old place. Then too, there will be, as always, the comets that streak across the sky, shaking pyrotechnic tails, only to disappear into the void of baseball players who have gone.

Athletics Look Good. Perhaps the brightest glow will come from the Philadelphia Americans where such satellites as Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins and Zack Wheat will beam after long years in other places. For more than a fifth of a century Cobb was the fixed star which to all baseballdom meant Detroit. Addition of these luminaries to the McGillicuddy constellation have made it the favorite of the pre-attitudinarians in their guesses on the American league finish.

Other transplanted stars will be found in the Giant group in the national league sector where Rogers Hornsby and Eddie Roush have been moved from St. Louis and Cincinnati respectively. Down in the St. Louis Cardinals constellation is Frankie Frisch, migrating from Hornsby's old spot. Close by is the mighty star, Alexander, right where he was last year.

Tris Speaker, whose name is most often coupled with that of Cobb and Collins as one of baseball's greatest, has a new patch around him this year—the Washington club. Walter Johnson at Washington and Babe Ruth at New York are fixed satellites that beckon again from the teams they have helped make famous.

If managers are to be believed, there will be three or four pennant winners in each league, and no teams in last place. The Athletics, in the American look especially good to the wisecracks, with another Pennsylvania team, the Pirates, of Pittsburgh, getting the call

Beavers, Oaks Break Even In Double Header

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE table with columns for team, W, L, and Pct.

By the Associated Press. The Missions and the Seals broke even on two games yesterday, the Missions winning in the morning 5 to 1, and the Seals in the afternoon 10 to 8.

The afternoon game was a free-living affair, with Lefty O'Doul making two home runs and two singles. Batteries: (Morning) Geary, Mitchell, Turpin and Vargak; (Afternoon) Mundy, Kuna and Vargak; Dumovich, Bryan and Whitney.

Beavers, Oaks Split. The Portland Beavers and the Oaks likewise broke even in two games, the Oaks taking the morning contest 6 to 1, and the Beavers winning the afternoon, 4 to 6. Batteries: (Morning) Ortman and Wendell; Krause and Baker; (Afternoon) Pender and Yelie; Dickerman and Hood.

The Sacramento Senators defeated the Seattle Indians in both games, winning in the morning 5 to 3 at stockton and in the afternoon 7 to 3 at Sacramento. The Senators took five games of the series. Batteries: (Morning) Brandt, Mijus and Schmidt; Keating and Sevelid; (Afternoon) Edwards, Peters and Jenkins; Singleton and Koehler.

Games Postponed. The Los Angeles-Hollywood double header was postponed on account of rain. Games this week: Sacramento at San Francisco; Missions at Seattle; Oakland at Los Angeles; Hollywood at Portland.

Yankees In Running. The Detroit Tigers, who have been the dark horse of the American league for several seasons, look even darker with a new jockey, George Moriarty, the erstwhile umpire. The Yankees promise much, with youthful punch and the always threatening George Herman Ruth. Cleveland has virtually the same team as last year, with the vital exception of Tris Speaker, whose transfer to Washington gives the Senators one of the league's strongest outfielders.

It is a quaint and curious fact that all the hunkers are not on golf courses.

THOSE DOUGHTY DODGERS

Perhaps you don't believe that the ball 'Irish' is here snitting and the one 'Bill' is pictured pitching were one and the same. Don't blame you; they aren't the same—but it made interesting reading, didn't it?

Hermiston And Walla Walla In Victory Sunday

HERMISTON WINS. PENDLETON, Apr. 11 (AP)—Hermiston broke into the Blue Mountain league with a 4-3 victory over the Mission Indians in the opening game here yesterday.

Score: Hermiston (AP)—R. H. E. Hermiston 4 2 2 Walla Walla 3 2 4

Batteries—Phelps and Shessly; Bettles and Hudson.

Walla Walla Victor. At Walla Walla, the Pendleton Buckaroos outthrew the Bears, but extra base hits brought their downfall, 13 to 4. Heavy slick work by O'Rourke and Yonney featured in the Bears' attack each contributing a home run. Cold, rainy weather hampered the mound work of both teams.

Score: Walla Walla (AP)—R. H. E. Pendleton 4 12 6 Walla Walla 13 10 3

Batteries—Hatrup, Hodges and Hoskins; Parris and O'Rourke.

Hotel Is Robbed While Fire Burns

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 11 (AP)—While guests were fleeing and the fire department was battling a fire on the fifth floor of the Portland hotel early today, thieves entered three of the rooms on the floor above and stole watches, jewelry and clothing.

Damage to the hotel from the fire was estimated at $2,000, half to building and half to contents. Police were trying to determine whether the thieves had started the fire to cover operations or had merely taken advantage of the confusion to commit the depredations.

J. L. Smith, of Spokane, reported a gold watch had been stolen from his room; Randolph Hartley, giving his address care of the Heilig theater, reported loss of a watch and two suits of clothes; Miss B. Cameron reported theft from her dresser drawer of a jewel case containing about $300 worth of jewelry.

'Cyclone Sally' Is Presented By Wolf Creek Cast

GRANGE HALL, Ore., Apr. 11 (Special)—A fair-sized audience witnessed the three-act comedy 'Cyclone Sally' that was staged at Grange Hall Saturday evening by the Wolf Creek grange and school.

The story centered about Jack Webster, hampered owner of Webster Place who returned after a long absence with the purpose of marrying Sue Bascom for her money. As soon as he arrived he was met with open defiance at the hands of some 'terrible creature' who was known as Cyclone Sally.

who was in reality a very charming girl. Hostilities opened immediately and battles raged fast and furiously. When the climax arrived Jack found to his dismay that instead of courting Sue Bascom he has been making love to his mortal enemy, Cyclone Sally.

All of the following characters did splendid work: Hot-tempered Jack Webster, Clifford Gillinson; Cyclone Sally, Graham, Ross; Chromey; English, Reggie, Van Bailey; Coy Ruth, Reggie's sweetheart, Martha N. Titus; Jim Jenkins, who fouted for 20 years and was not discouraged, J. A. Nice; Jenny Thatcher, the object of Jim's persistence, Celesta Nice; Willie Clump, a marcel at forgetting; Jesse Smith; Effie Varden, Treessie Smith; and Vivian Vernon, the countryside belle, Nola Brant.

The entertainment between acts was as follows: J. A. Nice two readings; Mrs. Martha Titus, pianologue; and the four men of the cast gave a blackface skit 'The Hen Roost Club.'

David Belasco, the Dean of the American Theatre

writes: 'The voice is to the actor what the chisel is to the sculptor. He must beware of dulling its qualities. Naturally I am vitally concerned about the voices of my players, so I always advise the one cigarette that I discovered many years ago that does not impair control of the subtlest vocal shadings or cause huskiness or harshness. I mean the 'Lucky Strike.' It is the player's best friend.'

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.
