Bear Selling In Evidence Today In Wall Street

NEW YORK, Apr. 11 (AP).—Selling pressure was more pronounced in today's stock market despite a resumption of aggressive bullish operations in high priced industrial, southwestern railway and a few specialties.

Bear selling was in evidence throughout the session in a number of the oil, tobacco, food, motor and sulphur shares.

Power-Driven, preferred broke its points, presumably in reflection of recent price cuts, and Freeport Texas dropped five. Brisk accumulation was apparent at intervals in National Dairy products, Victor Talking Machine, International Nickel and Public Service of New Jersey. R. H. Macy secured over eight points on reports of record breaking Easter business.

The closing was steady. Various speculative shares advanced strongly under the impulse of vigorous buying in the last hour, notably Western Maryland common, which closed 40. Mark Tuckman was heavily bought, rising three points, and International Harvester and Reynolds Tobacco "P" also manifested decided strength. Total sales approximated 2,200,000 shares.
