Social Affairs Few This Week

With Holy week in progress the final few days before the end of the Lenten period, social affairs in La Grande are on the wane, with the exception of a few organizations whose interests show a civic betterment as well as purely social trend.

The majority of the women are devoting this week to religious work, attending union meetings at the various churches nightly, and making arrangements for Easter Sunday observance.

Several church organizations are having meetings this week, among them being the Missionary society of the Christian church which will hold prayer services on Good Friday.

Beginning with Easter Monday, social activities are expected to show a marked increase.

Members of the La Grande Order of De Molay will be hosts at a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Milton Price on Monday for all Masons. This will be the only Masonic dance given during the last four years and a large crowd is expected.

The purpose of the dance is to secure funds to purchase DeMolay caps. Tickets may be obtained from DeMolay boys or at the door.

Friends of C. F. Hargett surprised him at his home last night, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Three tables of picnic were formed and high prizes were won by Mr. Hargett and Mrs. J. B. Hagey. Mr. Hagey received consolation. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

F. S. Club Meets With Mrs. Warner

The members of the F. S. club entertained their husbands last evening at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. W. D. Warner on Washington avenue with Mrs. Warner and Mrs. G. G. Griffith acting as hostesses.

Six tables of bridge were at play during the evening and high score was made by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Landry. Second prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Clegg and guest prize went to Mr. and Mrs. John Adelman.

Raylene was dressed in costume and prizes awarded to the best dressed man and woman were won by Mrs. G. R. Williams and Clark Webb.

Another interesting feature of the evening was when Mr. and Mrs. Griffith entered the room to the tune of a wedding march played by Miss Barbara Hatt.

Conleys Observe 45th Anniversary

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conley, of Cove, celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary on Wednesday. They were married at the Centennial hotel at Union on April 6, 1882.

Mrs. Conley is a native daughter, her father, B. E. Brown, having been an early pioneer of the Grande Ronde valley. Mr. Conley was born in Mt. Vernon, Jefferson county, Ill., in 1853, and came west with his parents in 1874. He spent the first year near La Grande, but then moved to the old homestead, a few miles west of Cove, which is now known as Nibley.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley were early playmates, attending the same school. They have two sons, three daughters, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. Their marriage has all been spent in the Grande Ronde valley and for the past two decades, their home has been at Cove.

IMBLER (Special)—A pleasant birthday party was held last week in honor of Mrs. A. C. Anderson, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Westenskow.

Sixteen guests were present. Refreshments were served before a bonjourment. Mrs. Anderson received many lovely gifts.

IMBLER (Special)—The Imbler Relief society entertained at the home of Mrs. P. H. Westenskow

In honor of Mrs. A. C. Anderson, as she is expecting to leave for her home in Utah this week. Twenty guests were present. Refreshments were served before the party adjourned.

Announcements

The Carnation club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Milton Price on Cedar street with Mrs. Milton Price and Mrs. Parley Price as hostesses.

The Missionary society of the Christian church will hold services of prayer on Good Friday at the church. The first service will begin at 10 o'clock, going through until 3:30 o'clock. The leaders will be Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, the Rev. C. V. Dunn and Mrs. Oma Lapham. Dinner will be served and those attending are asked to bring a prepared covered dish.

The Westminster society of the Presbyterian church will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Lee Reynolds at 493 O avenue.

The D. A. R. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Robert Eakin at 1812 Walnut street.

The L. A. of R. of B. T. will have the social meeting of the White Rose club on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Frank Mann. Mrs. Harden will be assistant hostess.

The Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. L. V. Duncan, 902 K avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A large attendance is expected.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes, cereal, cream, scrambled eggs with bacon, crisp graham toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Fish loaf, tomato sauce, rice, hearts of celery, baked rhubarb, nut macaroni, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked bluefish, scalloped potatoes, dandelion greens, cucumber salad, graham bread, lemon jelly roll, milk, coffee.

The fish loaf is good made with fresh or canned fish. The woman who does not have fresh fish at hand may prefer to serve the loaf for dinner and substitute soup and hearty egg salad for luncheon.

Fish Loaf
 Two cups finely flaked fish, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup cornmeal, 1/2 cup bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 cups well seasoned mashed potatoes, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons finely minced cucumber pickles, 1 tablespoon tomato catsup, few drops onion juice, 2 tablespoons minced parsley.

Add milk to fish and heat. Add bread crumbs to absorb milk. Add butter, potatoes, seasonings and mix thoroughly. Beat eggs until light, and add to mixture. Turn into an oiled mold, cover and steam for one hour. Turn out into a hot platter, surround with tomato sauce and serve.

Any kind of fish can be used, but care must be taken to be sure all bones are removed.

GREEN PEAS WITH REAL SUGAR

An ample supply of green peas, sugary with their own natural sweetness and not requiring any additions from the family sugar bowl, are the pride and ambition of every gardener's heart.

Peas from a single planting are in bearing for only a short time. The dwarf varieties most commonly grown in the home garden yield for about ten days while the bush peas, those which require brush or wire supports and grow from three to four feet tall, remain in good bearing from two to three weeks.

It is real economy to plant the tall peas for quantity. A succession of plantings must be made to have a crop over any long continued period.

They can be had from June until late July ordinarily and by irrigation and careful cultivation all summer. But as hot dry weather is usually the end of the pea crop it is unwise to plant after mid-May unless ample irrigation is provided, which is seldom convenient in the average garden.

While the dwarf sorts do not bear as heavily nor over as long a period as the tall sorts they are the most convenient to grow and most generally planted. An excellent plan to provide a succession is to plant extra early, early, mid-season and late varieties at the same time and then make another planting about ten days or two weeks later.

The smooth seeded earliest of all can be planted as soon as the soil can be worked. The finer quality wrinkled sorts cannot be put in safely until a week or two later.

The village blacksmith has a rival in Mrs. Harriet Fisher Andrews, who has been called the "anvil queen" of the United States.

Mrs. Andrews claims the distinction of being the only woman in the country who runs a foundry. She says she can put through a piece of work in her plant from start to finish as well as any of her employees.

Such Flavor

as this comes only in real Quaker Oats

The price you pay for substitutes is the same as for the genuine Quaker Oats. The difference is in the flavor. And flavor, above all things, is important in oats.

That rich and tasty Quaker flavor is the result of some 50 years' milling experience. Once you taste it, you are spoiled for ordinary oats.

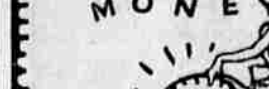

That is why millions demand the Quaker brand—why you should accept no other.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Protein, carbohydrates, and vitamins and "bulk" are thus combined to make Quaker Oats an excellently "balanced" food.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Schilling Tea

sealed HOT in vacuum

The only tea whose flavor is completely protected -- kept fresh and fragrant from tea-garden to tea table. Five kinds of protection -- all exclusively Schilling -- for the true tea flavors known only in the Orient: (1) Twice-toasted -- the only way to unmask rich hidden flavors of a tea leaf. (2) Then the leaves sealed in vacuum (like your coffee) -- but sealed HOT at its most aromatic moment.

(3) The world's only key-wind vacuum tin for tea -- with a Snug Cover -- to protect it even after you open it. (4) Of the many grades of Orange Pekoe, only the choicest, most fragrant, are blended with Pekoe in Schilling's. (5) Your grocer protects you -- he returns your money instantly if you don't like Schilling's best.

You keep the tea. Orange Pekoe

U. S. LONDON EMBASSY IS WELL FURNISHED LONDON — American furniture in a British home decorated by a Russian is the international combination authorized by Mrs. Alan H. Houghton, wife of the American Ambassador to the Court of St. James.

The attractive furniture which Mrs. Houghton brought from the United States to furnish the new embassy at Princes Gate has a suitable setting. The dining room has been paneled in Queen Anne style to harmonize with the long dining table and chairs, while Adam style rules the drawing room, where there are many evidences of Mrs. Houghton's artistic taste.

The small study for the Ambassador with its curious old pieces of furniture and comfortable chairs is paneled in old panoramic wall paper. The decorative scheme, supervised by Mrs. Houghton, was conceived by Prince George of Russia, nephew of the late Czar Nicholas.

SETTLEMENT MOTHERS AS EAGER AS CHILDREN

NEW YORK — Mothers of large families in the congested districts of New York City are as eager for recreation facilities and the stimulating environment of settlement houses as are their children, says Mrs. Bernice Haumann, chairman of Hamilton House board of directors.

"Most people think settlements are for children only," Mrs. Haumann says, "but the mothers of our youngsters, most of them workers in factories, come to us constantly for cooking and sewing lessons and for companionship with neighbors."

Hamilton House is in one of the most congested tenement districts of the city.

RUSSIAN BALLET STAR IS 52 YEARS OLD

MOSCOW, Russia—Russia's premier ballerina is a 52-year-old woman who dances, the critics say, like a girl of 20. She is Mme. Katherine V. Geltzer, famed in European dramatic circles for her pantomime.

She came to fame recently in a superb ballet based on Victor Hugo's "Hunchback of Notre Dame" and is now devoting her time on a new role in a revolutionary ballet called "The Red Poppies," soon to be produced in Moscow.

Mme. Geltzer's mascot is her pet goat.
