A girl coming home from a party at 5 a. m. in Chicago shot herself when she met her mother who was on the way to church. Mothers shouldn't get up so early to go to church.

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbounded possibilities of trouble lie in wait for him who interfered with feminine affairs. In the words of Justice Ford of the state supreme court, "So far be it from him to decide which of two theaters was entitled to the services of Seneca's Marguerita Cretio, singer. Each claimed she had signed a contract."

Canadian milk has been found unsafe to drink and a ban has been placed on it by the government. What in the world is a man to drink in Canada, any, how?

That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear, that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort.

That growly, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. "Shooting" will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Barstman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. Get the genuine in the yellow package at any good drug store. Price 21. Always on hand at Glass Drugs, Inc.

NEW YORK (AP)—Mr. Coolidge is quite a good provider of news, in the opinion of correspondents as reflected by Carter Field of The Herald-Tribune at a dinner given by the prominent scribers of the nation. As described the correspondents now lack the thrills of the Roosevelt days, the dramatic which Wilson knew how to provide and the gentility of the "benign" Harding, but they get more news, more details, with less blind speculation.

Regular foot for luck, they hit petroleum. There was no gusher but the well has been bringing in a tidy 800 barrels a day ever since and several other wells are being sunk.

When they thought they had found a promising place they purchased an option and organized a small company among their cinema friends and sunk a well.

OFFICE CAT TRADE MARK

"I suppose you will want me to give up my job, Henry, when we are married."

"How much do you earn at it?" "Sixty a week."

"That isn't a job. That's a career. I wouldn't want to interfere with your career, little."

Tommy—Do fish grow very fast?

Terry—I should say! Father caught one and it grows six inches every time he mentions it."

Eliza Jane met her mistress just before Christmas with ominous announcement. "Miss Mary, I got to leave you."

"Why, Eliza, aren't you satisfied with your place?"

"Oh, yes, I'm satisfied all right. 'Tain't dat, mum."

"Well, da you want more wages?"

"No'm, tain't dat. I'll tell you how it is. You recollect you let me off a month ago in attend a funeral? Well, mum, I'm going to marry de corpse's husband."

Gladys—You remember, you told me that if I'd put a piece of that wedding cake under my pillow I would dream about my future husband?

"Charles—Well, did you?"

Gladys—That's what worries me; I dreamt about the seventh regiment."

NOT EXPECTED HERE
A crowd of troubles passed him by as he with courage waited.

He said, "Where do you troubles fly?"

"When you are thus belated? "We go," they said, "to those who mope."

Who took on life, he rejoiced. Who meekly say good-bye to hope. We go where we're expected."

We don't know where the above lines originated, but there's a heap of truth in them for us all. Think it over.

"How did the South wedding come off?"

"Fine until the preacher asked the bride if she'd obey her husband."

"What happened then?"

"She replied, 'do you think I'm crazy?' and the groom, who was in a sort of a daze, replied 'I do.'"

A VALUABLE SUBSCRIBER
"Dear Editor:

"Last Thursday I lost a gold watch which I valued very highly, as it was an heirloom. I immediately inserted an advertisement in your 'Lost and Found' column, and waited. Yesterday I went home and found the watch in the pocket of my other suit."

"Good bless your paper!"

"Father: Has Gladys gone to the dance yet?"

"Mother: She must have. Most of her clothes are here."

Men no longer hide behind women's skirts. Neither do women.

AT THE THEATERS

Clara Bow At Arcade in Elinor Glyn Film

Clara Bow, long hailed as the reigning queen of flappers, has grown up. She is now a full-fledged star. Such was the recent announcement of Jesse L. Lasky, first vice president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation.

Plans for the Paramount star's future were also made known by Mr. Lasky when he stated that the picture to mark her elevation to stardom is Elinor Glyn's "It", which arrives at the Arcade theater today for a four day run. Clarence Badger directed and Antonio Moreno is featured.

Miss Bow's destinies will be guided by the man who is credited with her discovery, H. P. Schulberg, associate producer in executive control at Paramount's West Coast Studios where her films will be made.

"She is the greatest single 'hot' in pictures," says Mr. Schulberg. "Her work as a featured player stood out like a beacon light and all she needed was the support of a great organization. Miss Bow's handling of the flapper character in 'Mantrap' was a positive sensation. As a Paramount star she has a brilliant future."

Clara Bow is entirely a product of motion pictures. She gained her first chance by winning a beauty contest and through consistent hard work finally resulting in a contract as a Paramount featured player. Since that time her ascent in the film world has been remarkable.

"Parisian Nights" Closes Run Here Tonight

"Parisian Nights," the big Gothic production which projects in thrilling manner the colorful and dangerous life of the Paris Apache on the screen and which involves a young and wealthy American sculptress in the meshes of a love affair with the leader of the famous Apache "Panther" will be seen for the last time tonight at the Sherry theater where it has been playing to popular audiences at every show. Elaine Hammerstein and Lou Tellegen, capably supported by Itunes Adorno, William T. Kelley and Boris Karloff, interpret the thrilling action. Al Santell, who directed the picture, deserves great credit for the astute manner in which he has caught the atmosphere of mystery and romance which colors the whole production.

GRANGE HALL PERSONALS

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Mrs. William Hughes is ill at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest DeLong and family were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCall Sunday.

M. A. Carter, of Coyle, was a visitor at the Blue Mountain grange meeting last week.

The Victor Itagun family is under quarantine for scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kiddie and two children have moved to the farm in this section, which Mr. Kiddie purchased from Lee Reynolds during the winter.

W. O. Sherwood, who has been ill for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Lucy Graham in La Grande, is reported to be improving.

George Palmiller, state grange master, visited Blue Mountain grange last week. Immediately after the meeting he and W. R. Gekeler left for Joseph, where they attended a Wallowa county grange meeting.

Mrs. Johnson, who lives on a farm near Hot Lake, is spending a few days visiting here Saturday, Mrs. Charlon Gekeler.

Art Acord Is Star in Picture Coming to Star

Art Acord is certainly a fool for luck.

While making "Loco Luck," his starring vehicle which shows at the Star Theater tomorrow only, he was on location in the oil fields of Southern California.

The picture deals with romance and adventure in the oil fields and while not working before the camera Acord spent the time chatting with old-time oil men. From them he learned a great deal about oil prospecting and was filled with the fever to find an oil well of his own.

When the picture was completed he and his director, Cliff Smith, went on a tour of possible oil fields. Previously they had spent their vacations prospecting gold in Sierras or working their mining claims. This time they tried a new game.

"When they thought they had found a promising place they purchased an option and organized a small company among their cinema friends and sunk a well.

Regular foot for luck, they hit petroleum. There was no gusher but the well has been bringing in a tidy 800 barrels a day ever since and several other wells are being sunk.

Keep in Trim!

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be a retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. Each year more and more people are learning the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, in this condition. Scarcely a nook or hamlet anywhere but has many enthusiastic users. Ask your neighbor!
