Earl Carroll Is Some Better But Still in a Coma

GREENVILLE, S. C., Apr. 15 (AP)—Earl Carroll, New York theatrical producer, had not regained consciousness today although there were indications that he was beginning to rouse from the coma into which he lapsed two days ago, while en route to Atlanta penitentiary to begin a sentence for perjury in connection with his South Sea party.

He took a little liquid nourishment late last night, the first that he had passed his lips since entering the hospital. Until then his physicians had been forced to resort to glucose injections to provide nourishment.

Mrs. Carroll, who became ill upon her arrival here yesterday to be at the bedside of her husband, was said to have spent a restless night and her condition was regarded by physicians as a definite sign that Carroll's condition was continuing to improve.

"You might say he has been semi-conscious at times," Dr. H. C. Bruce, one of his physicians, said. "While he has not given any sign that he recognized anyone in the sick room, he mutters and seems to be trying to talk when spoken to."

COURT HONORS DAY

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 15 (AP)—Services commemorating "one of the mile posts on our way to civil government" were held by the Oregon state supreme court today. It was on April 15, 1843, that Dr. L. H. Babcock assumed his duties as "supreme judge with probate powers" after appointment by a group of Oregon settlers. In commemoration of the 84th anniversary of this event, the state supreme court, composed in its business at 10:28 o'clock this morning while Justice McDevide, senior member of the court, made a brief speech.

Arrangements have been made for a party of people including the supreme court justices and their wives to go this afternoon to Clatsop, where the settlers met to select Dr. Babcock as their first judge.

Loot Worth $1000 Found Near Amity

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 15 (AP)—Miscellaneous goods estimated between $1,000 and $2,500 were found by officers at the Vance Richardson place near Amity in Polk county Thursday night, most of which, officers say, was from Salem stores and obtained through a working agreement between Richardson and Lloyd Wilkins, trusty convict at the state prison, driving one of the penitentiary trucks. The goods included everything from candies to lumber, shoes, clothing of all kinds, furniture, hardware, some of the latter being taken from a McMinnville store.

Richardson had not been arrested up to noon today and the district attorney of Yamhill county had not yet decided what charges would be placed against him. The raid on the Richardson place was staged by Sheriff Manning, of McMinnville, and deputies Sam Burkhardt and Bert Smith, of Salem.

Richardson met Wilkins about two years ago while the trusty was driving a truck between Salem and Rickwood. Richardson is said to have told officers that he would drive to Salem every Friday and park his automobile downtown and that Wilkins would fill it up. The two men did not always meet, Richardson is quoted as saying. Wilkins is said to have admitted his share in the transactions.

GAS 12 1/2 CENTS

LOS ANGELES, Apr. 15 (AP)—The Pan-American petroleum company today for the third time undercut its competitors in the retail price of gasoline by announcing a reduction of two cents a gallon, making its latest price twelve and a half cents.

10-YEAR-OLD HURT

PENDLETON, Apr. 15 (AP)—Charles Barker, 10, lies in a local hospital with his left hand placed in a cast and his right eye injured to such an extent that he may lose the sight, following the explosion of a dynamite cap yesterday 10 miles west of Pendleton.
