TIGERS TO MEET BUCKS SATURDAY

Blue and White Track Team to Invade Pendleton for Contest

Tigers this week are sharpening up their teeth and claws for the avowed purpose of hanging onto a pack of Bucks until the rough-riders are clawed unceremoniously from their prancing steeds.

Because on Saturday, La Grande high school takes its fourth crack at Pendleton this year, two clean knockout blows were registered by the blue and white athletes earlier in the year against one sleep producer chalked up on the Umatilla lads' side. A win by the local track team this week means a decisive string of victories over their opponents but a loss would mean only 50-50 honors.

In each case earlier in the school year it was Tubby Zundel who cut loose with shock punch. But the Tigers this time go to the enemies' back yard without his services, and it will be interesting to note results.

Lyman to Have Competition
Lyman, high point man of the Baker meet, will have his hands full Saturday. There is Allen, dusky hurdler and high jumper, and there is Pahl, low hurdler, and Cronin, high hurdler—all worthy opponents. Allen and Lyman in the high jump should be one of the features of the meet. Lyman hasn't been extended yet this season and Allen can get up to 5 feet 10 inches in an emergency.

Counting on Field Events
La Grande has hopes of scoring a considerable number of points in the three shot and javelin and breaking even in the jumps. The Tigers also hope to win the 440, the half and the mile but some severe contests are expected in these.

Pendleton has the advantage of about three weeks more practice than the Tigers have and this may count for a lot.

Cough Mackenzie is preparing his men for the meet. Because of cold weather, practically no practice was held Monday and Tuesday but the full bill is in order tonight.

COSTLY TOLEDO STAR WILL WARM CUB BENCH

CHICAGO—Edwood English, star shortstop of the Toledo American Association club, who came to the Chicago Cubs this season for a $50,000 purchase price, is starting his major league career on the bench.

Jimmy Cooney, veteran Cub infielder, retains first claim on the Cub shortstop job because of his experience. English shows great promise, but lacks the skill which enabled Cooney last season to set a fielding record for National League shortstops with a .972 average for the season.

PING-PONG REVIVED BY FANS IN FRANCE

PARIS—Ping-pong is coming back into its own in France and a Ping-pong federation has just been formed to organize sectional and international matches and lay down rules for their conduct.

Ping-Pong is by no means a game only for weak women and children, say proponents of the sport, who declare it calls for the greatest skill and subtlety.

Scores of sectional clubs have been formed with a view to affiliation with the national organization.

DEAF INDIAN CARVER WINS ARTIST'S HONOR

CHICAGO—A deaf and dumb sculptor of the Indian race, John L. Clark of Glacier Park, Montana, has risen from anonymity as a woodcarver to the ranks of acclaimed artists. Following the acceptance of several of his carvings of western animals for exhibition at the Chicago Art Institute, his "Bear in a Trap" has been placed on permanent exhibit here. Clark's work consists of reproductions in wood of wild animals.

In their first win in seven starts the Boston Red Sox yesterday gave the Yankees their first beating. The score was 6 to 3 and the best baseball of the day was produced not by the bats of Ruth and his fellow heavy hitters but by the good left mitt of young Hal White. That sneaky hand was stingy and out of it the Yankees could get but nine hits.

The Braves were Giant killers. As though once were not enough the Braves did it first in the morning, 9 to 5, and again in the afternoon, 5 to 4.

The Athletics played ball to beat the Senators, 3 to 1. With a flash of his old time speed and daring, Ty Cobb came sliding home in the sixth with the final run on a triple steal.

Cardinals Win
The Cardinals too began to get up steam after a limping start and detonated 12 heavy hits, two of which were homers by Bottomley and Hafey. "Sunny Jim" also chipped in a triple as his bit in the rout of the Reds 9 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns smacked away 12 hits for a 7 to 5 win over the White Sox.

Three heart-breaking errors by Cleveland's Indians lost them their game with the Tigers, 5 to 5, and the Brooklyn Robins dropped their seventh straight to the Phillies, 4 to 0.

Itain trickled down in Chicago and saved either the Cubs or the Pirates a beating.

Shack-O'Brien Decision Does Not Please Mob

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 20 (AP)—Sammy Shack, New York, received a decidedly unpopular decision over Tommy O'Brien Portland, in their ten-round main event here last night. The lights of the arena had to be dimmed before the crowd would disperse. They are featherweights. No serious damage was done on either side, but O'Brien was the aggressive throughout.

At Hundenberg, German heavyweight, earned a draw with Young Peter Jackson in a smashing six-round contest.

Everett McDevitt, of Peshastin, Wash., took a decision over Jack Dempsey, of Tacoma, in an eight-round semi-windup.

But Bryns demonstrated the shock punch when he put George Spady to sleep in the fifth of a six-round preliminary. Both are Portlanders.

WINS CAGE RENOWN IN HALF A SEASON

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—Loren Hodges, sophomore striping of Purdue University, hurdled 28 hours of classwork in a semester to become eligible for basketball in midseason, and won honorable mention among Big Ten centers. Now he is destined to win the Boiler-makers some repute in track as a hurdler. He has more speed than his loping stride reveals, and is blessed with a pair of hands which can pick a basketball off the floor and shoot for the basket from either side.

WATERSON'S LIBRARY A GIFT TO LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—The personal library of "Morse Library" Waterston, whose newspaper work endowed him with an almost legendary character, has become public property through its presentation to the Louisville free public library.

The Waterston memorial library of 4409 books is set aside in a special room, which contains the desk, many pictures and other furnishings from the workshop of the editor.

Rice and potatoes differ in food value even though both are rich in starch. Potatoes contain some minerals and vitamins. Milled rice has none of these, so there should be plenty of fruits and vegetables in the daily meals if rice is to be served often.

WHAT IS MEANT BY HEELS OVER HEAD

Something for a photographer to write home about is this extraordinary picture of an accident during the Chequer Handicap. Meeplecher at Gatywick, England. "Miss Catherine" Wallace Philip's entry, stumbled as one of the jumps and catapulted Foster, her jockey, straight over her head, the camera catching him in mid-air as his mount leaps back to her feet. Foster was little injured!

Americans Learn English All Over Again While in England

LONDON, Apr. 14 (AP)—The vanguard of the American tourist army is learning "English as she is spoke" by what a psychologist would call "trial and error."

If an American man meets a similar worker of English nationality he soon learns that his English cousin is a "railway employe," not a railroad man.

The English "railway employe" speaks of a coal car as a mineral wagon. He calls a roadhead a permanent way; a switch, a point; a freight car, a goods van; a brakeman, a guard; a switchman, a signman; an engineer, an engine driver. Grade crossings are level crossings, and baggage would be luggage.

If the visiting American chances to be in the motor-car business he is obliged to learn to say honest instead of the hood of an automobile, petrol instead of gasoline, the windscreen instead of windshield, sparking plug instead of a spark plug, a lorry instead of a truck, and a spanner instead of a monkey wrench. He learns to spell tyre; aluminum, aluminium; and curb, kerb.

The American in England may send by express, but not, as he thinks, by special delivery. He places letters in a pillar-box, not a mail-box, or gives it to the postman, not the mail-man. It travels in the mail van, not the mail-car. This applies to women, too, for the American housewife in London thinks she buys from a dry goods store, but it is really a drapers, a shoemaker is a boot-maker here, a fruit merchant is a fruiterer, a vegetable dealer becomes a green grocer, a hardware merchant turns out to be an ironmonger and a poultry dealer a poulterer. She would ask for a sample instead of a pattern, crackers instead of biscuits, candy instead of sweets, and a baby buggy instead of a perambulator.

Americans became even more confused when they chance to visit London's East End and hear the Cockney say lily for lady, mile for mail, paper for paper, yes for yes, orpical for hospital, and fee for face.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH

PINEHURST, N. C.—The Pinehurst golf course, with its beautiful surrounding scenery, is one of the most picturesque in the country—and the scenery had a great deal to do recently with the defeat of Virginia Van Wie, youthful Chicago golfer, when she was battling Gienna Collett for the annual North and South and South women's championship.

The two came to the fifteenth, a water hazard hole, with the Chicago girl two down to Miss Collett. Virginia's drive went into the canal and it cost her a stroke. She dropped the ball on the bank and her iron shot flew across the green to a clump of pines and shrubbery, five feet away. She took three strokes to get back to the green and was down another hole. Had her ball not landed in the leafy background she stood a good chance of taking the hole, as Miss Collett required four strokes to get on.

Peaches Browning has written a song, Young man, beware, wine and women, too.
