A policeman saw an old man beating a small boy.

"Why beat the boy?" he asked. "Listen" replied the man. "I went Isaac to the delicatessen, and gave him two quarters, one to buy fish, and the other to buy bread. Now he comes back after being away half an hour and wants to know which quarter is for the bread!"

Binks bought a new shirt and on a slip pinned to the inside found the name and address of a girl, with the words, "Please write and send photograph."

He wrote to the girl and sent her a picture of himself. In due course an answer came and with heart flutter Binks opened it. It was only a note:

"I was just curious to see," it read, "what kind of a fellow would wear such a funny shirt."

IN THE SPRING
In the spring a young man's fancy Makes him amorous and bold; In the spring he's wild and prancy, Full of pep, and hard to hold. In the spring, with secret laughter, Some frail flapper sets her snare; And the spring to him thereafter Means just lighter underwear.

The man who does a thing wrong for thirty years, certainly knows how to do it wrong.

Husband (reading aloud notice on hotel door): Have you left anything? Wife: Oh, yes, dear, we might as well take the candlestick, too.

Clarence (ardently): "When will you promise to share my lot, dear?" Gladys (sweetly): "Just as soon as you build a house on it, big boy!"

"What's the best check protector?" "A fountain pen that won't write."

If the women are really dressing to please themselves these days, it certainly doesn't take much to please them.

When spring's sweet note falls due there is no protest.

AT THE THEATERS

Last Showing of "Silent Power" Is This Evening

"The Silent Power" now at the Sherry Theater is as full of thrills as a dynamite of sparks. This Gotham Production features Ralph Lewis, whom film fans remember as the star who specializes in such parts as locomotive engineers, fire and policeman, and other types familiar to everyone. This time Mr. Lewis is the boss of a giant electric power station, and the background of enormous generators, turbines, switches and wires is one that adds much interest to the story.

The story tells of a young engineer who falls on a big construction job and whose troubles culminate in a charge of murder. At the final split second when he seems doomed, he is saved by his sweetheart who finds the real murderer who in desperation, cuts the power lines leading in the prison.

Ethel Shannon is the heroine of the story and looks as charming as ever. Charles DeLaney plays the tricky young man and Vadim Ulftruff recently featured in "The Sea Beast" contributes a wonderful character part.

Also showing a comedy.

Tom Mix Thrills With Stunts in Film at Star

Some of the most thrilling stunts ever pictured, feature Fox Films "The Broncho Wrangler," a Tom Mix story of Western Ranges, which had its first showing at the Star theater yesterday.

Needless to say, it is Tom Mix who made the audience sit forward gripping their seats, with his daring horsemanship and feats of dangerous daring. But this is not merely a picture of unprecedented stunts, there is a real story of which the thrills are a logical part. In addition, the cast is one of the best and carries forward the action of the story to a logical conclusion.

Helena Costello, daughter of Maurice Costello, (prot. of the movie hero), carries on the tradition of the family with an unusually fine performance. Malcolm Waite gives a fine performance as the villain. Dennis Lloyd is a fine worrior of Old Spain and George Irving is splendidly cast as Tom's father. The picture was directed by Orville Dull from an original story by Adela Rogers St. John, and is a fine entertainment from every angle. Don't miss it.

The same show will be repeated today and Saturday.

Hilarious Sports Comedy At Arcade

In Paramount's hilarious comedy, "Casey at the Bat," which made its local bow at the Arcade theater yesterday, Wallace Beery signs a contract to play baseball for the old New York Giants and almost wrecks the entire league with his escapades.

Hailed as a "mad," Beery, a small town junk dealer, enters the "big-time." So popular does the red-headed Irishman become that he soon emerges as the Babe Ruth of 1901. Funny as Beery was in "Behind the Front" and "We're in the Navy Now," he's even more humorous as baseball's famous "Casey."

Casey proves himself a home run hitter by knocking a four-bagger with a bat in one hand and a stein of beer in the other. Vamped by several members of the Florida Sextette, he almost stops the show by crashing into the orchestra pit while climbing on the stage for a personal appearance. Above all, Beery's ability to appear hopelessly foolish makes the picture uproariously entertaining.

The entire cast contributes much to the film's success. Ford Sterling gives a sterling characterization as a big league scout. ZaSu Pitts, the home town girl, is at her best and Sterling Holloway does his crafty plotting humorously. If "blue-chasing" ribbons are being distributed, Director Monte Brice gets a handful.

This feature picture, a late Pathé News and Fables will be shown again at the Arcade, today and Saturday.
